EDITORIAL COMMITTEE

FOR YEAR BOOK APPOINTED

As evidence of the special character of the 1943 Year Book, we are pleased to report that an Editorial Committee has been appointed to prepare the Year Book for publication. The committee consists of Ira F. Weisman, Hyman I. Bucher and Lillian Jacobs. Those who are familiar with the literary talents of the committee are confident that the esthetic as well as the literary quality of this Year Book will be of very high order.

Meanwhile ads are beginning to trickle in. The trickle will presently become a steady flow. We know that our regular ad-getters are busy at work. We know especially that our new ad-getters are determined to establish new highs. Mr. Israel Cummings, for example, co-chairman of the Year Book is over bubbling with enthusiasm and eagerness. We expect great things from him and we know that we will not be disappointed.

HAVE YOU A SON

IN THE SERVICE?

If you have a son or any other relative in the service of our country, then you ought to inscribe his name on the Victory Page of our Year Book. A single inscription is only $1. It will make your boy feel good when he will receive a copy of our Year Book and see that he has not been forgotten. Send his name, giving his rank, to the synagogue office and we will take care of the rest.

ROSH CHODESH PRAYERS

This Saturday we usher in the month of Kislev with its joyous Chanukah festival. This Sabbath in the synagogue, therefore, has special significance. It is as good a time as ever to begin the synagogue going habit.

The Rabbi's sermon subject this week will be "The meaning of Jewish Books"—A Jewish Book week sermon.

WOULD YOU HONOR A DECEASED RELATIVE?

The memorial section of our Year Book is a fitting place for inscribing the name of a departed dear one. A single inscription is $1. Additional space will be charged proportionately. By inscribing the name of a deceased in a synagogue Year Book one indicates that the departed ones is really not forgotten and is remembered from year to year. Moreover, the inclusion of such a name in the Year Book keeps the memory fresh in the congregational family.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

All members and their friends are invited to our next meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 30 at 12:30 P.M. in the synagogue social hall. A Cafeteria Style Luncheon will be served, followed by a G-- R---- Contest. Beautiful prizes will be given the winners and a delightful afternoon is in store for all who attend.

If you are surprised because our meeting day this once is changed from the usual Monday to Tuesday the reason is as follows: Monday, Nov. 29 is the Jewish Day for the State Commission of the Blind Association. We, as Jews were signally honored in having the opening day of the "Sale for the Blind." Let us support this worthy charity by setting a quota of sales hard to beat by our successors on the following days. The date is Monday, Nov. 29 — the place is 608 Fifth Avenue. Do come and buy!

Mrs. Louis J. Singer and Mrs. Benjamin L. Leifert, chairman and co-chairman of our forthcoming are working very hard to make this the most successful and splendid affair we have ever had. Top-notch entertainment, food that a gourmet dreams about, beautiful prizes and the most famous hotel in the world are awaiting your pleasure and will spell an afternoon of utter delight to all who attend. So, come on donors, get busy and either give or get — by ads — your quota of $12.50 for your donor ticket. Guests' tickets are $5. Send in your reservation now!

DONOR LUNCHEON TUESDAY, DEC. 14th Waldorf-Astoria

MEN'S CLUB NEWS

CRIME EXPERTS FASCINATE

LARGE CROWD AT NOV. MEETING

In sheer enthusiasm and approval perhaps, no other meeting equalled that of November 17, when Dr. Alexander O. Gettler, City Toxicologist and the Hon. Burton B. Turkus spoke on "Crime and its Detection." Both men, by universal consent, spoke long past their allotted time. Dr. Gettler explained the unerring accuracy of modern scientific methods in aiding the solution of the most baffling crime. Several famous cases were cited. The dynamic Assistant District Attorney, Burton B. Turkus, told us how organized crime, which is established on a nation-wide scale, defies the law and thwarts the machinery of justice. His "inside story" of the methods of gangsterism and the difficulties of obtaining a conviction was as enthralling as it was terrifying.

The ever increasing size of our attendance and membership is proof of the fact that our growth has picked up a momentum that brooks no denial. We are persuaded that effective leadership and purposeful direction are bringing this about. The persistent pursuit of our prescribed aims has inevitably been recognized by men of good will everywhere and in the logic of events they are attracted and eventually join our ranks. Every meeting gives irrefutable evidence of this fact. Our social hour was made a most "doggy" one, with the generous Sam Bucher providing the "dogs."

OPEN MEETING

(CHANUKAH, DECEMBER 21st)

For our Chanukah meeting, Program Chairman Dr. Elihu Katz has promised us a glorious array of radio, screen and stage talent, in addition to a well-known band. Just as last year, the Sisterhood will furnish the wherewithal for the social hour. Everyone welcome, everyone invited.

NATIONAL WAR FUND DRIVE GOES ON APACE (NOV. 16 - DEC. 7)

If you have not already given, please send your check, payable to National War Fund, to the Men's Club, c/o the Synagogue and we will mail same to our district headquarters.

THEY ARE STILL COMING

We report another applicant for membership. We heartily welcome Mr. Jonas Adler, a real newcomer into our midst. His first association with us was on an occasion of sadness. May he remain with us for many years of happiness.

A REMINDER HELPED

The Rabbi's reminder last Saturday morning about the Saturday afternoon Yiddish Discourse brought many new faces to mincha. We heard that those who came had no regrets. Why not try it yourself?
