YEAR BOOK APPROACHES HALF QUOTA MARK

The Year Book Committee meeting at the home of Mr. Fred Margareten last Wednesday night heard from its co-chairman, Mr. Cummings and from its director in charge, Mr. Joseph E. Adler, some real good news. The ads are coming in faster than at any previous time in the history of synagogue Year Books. With several of our very big-ad-getters yet to be heard from, the Year Book is already fast approaching half of the quota originally set.

If only every member would determine to do just a little, what a glorious success financially, literarily and artistically the Year Book can be. Remember that our goal is a very modest one:—Every member get just two ads. Is that asking too much? Remember too, that our deadline is December 30. Forgive us this once for asking you to hurry.

WILL YOUR SON'S NAME BE ON OUR VICTORY PAGE?

Every boy who is in the service of our country and who is related to a Kehilath Jeshurun member or worshipper is entitled to have his name on the Victory Page of our 1943 Year Book. This will be a permanent record and will for all time remain in the annals of the history of the congregation. Send such names in without delay. A single name inscription is only $1. If you want to have it boxed in compliment form, then the price is according to space.

K. J. SISTERHOOD ANNUAL DONOR LUNCHEON

Tuesday, December 14, 1943

12:30 P.M.

Wedgewood Room — Waldorf Astoria

Reservation for the Luncheon have exceeded all expectations. If you have not already done so, please send in your reservations now. A grand afternoon is in store for you and in addition you will be performing a good deed by supporting an excellent cause, that of the Scholarship Fund for the Ramaz School.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Sisterhood members and their husbands are invited to the Chanukah Party on Tuesday, Dec. 21, held in conjunction with the Men's Club.

Mrs. Jacob Rudd and Mrs. Louis J. Singer acted as sales ladies at the "Sale for the Blind" and enjoyed helping such a worthy cause.

Our Camp Fund is growing to such an extent that this year we hope to send twice as many children as we did last year. Thanks are extended to those who recently sent in donations on their "simchas".

A hearty welcome is extended to our two new members: Mrs. Samuel A. Marcus and Mrs. Mary Weisman.

Mrs. Samuel Sacks was appointed chairman of the Sisterhood Year Book Committee. Members are urged to cooperate with her.

ALL HONOR TO WAR FUND WORKERS

The Men's Club in cooperation with the Sisterhood has far exceeded its prescribed National War Fund quota. We gratefully acknowledge and thank the following ladies and gentlemen of the Sisterhood and Men's Club: Mrs. Joseph Adler, Mrs. Jacob Alpert, Alvin Austin, Hyman Brandman, Mrs. S. Lawrence Brody, Hyman I. Bucher, Mrs. Robert Finger-oth, Robert Finger-oth, Mrs. Benj. Gold, Mrs. Alfred Kahn, Abraham Kirshon, Mrs. J. H. Lookstein, Mrs. Fred Margareten, Mrs. Al Miller, Mrs. Jacob Rudd, Mrs. Samuel Sacks, Mrs. Louis J. Singer, Ira F. Weisman and Louis W. Yohann.

You are cordially invited to attend our

Our enterprising Program Chairman, Dr. Elihu Katz, has arranged for the voluntary service of these talented people at our annual Chanukah Party. The Sisterhood ladies will act as hostesses immediately following this gala performance.

MID-YEAR MEETING AND BRUNCH

By the responses already received, it appears as though our Mid-Year Meeting on Sunday, December 12, will be one of those overflows to which we have lately become accustomed.

The business part of the meeting will deal with the following: The president's report, the semi-annual financial report, election of the new members, and an address by Rabbi Lookstein. Members will thus have a splendid opportunity to obtain detailed information on the operation of the synagogue and all of its affairs.

The social part of the meeting, which in this case will precede the business session, will start promptly at eleven o'clock. A cafeteria breakfast will be served. Yes, there will be lox for the baigel and cream cheese, too, and lots of other expected and unexpected things. A breakfast of champions for a gathering of Kehilath Jeshurun stalwarts.

We have only two membership meetings a year. They are invariably interesting and entertaining. Members and their wives always enjoy them. They will enjoy this one even more.

NOT MUCH TIME LEFT FOR

CHANUKAH

Our Chanukah notices are already in the mail. A response card is provided for those who would like to obtain from us Chanukah candles. We have had to resort to this method because of the war emergency which made materials and service scarce. Please do not delay, if you would like us to serve you with your Chanukah candles.
