SISTERHOOD NEWS

In the beautiful Wedgewood Room of The Waldorf and to the soft strains of enchanting music, a large and glamorous group of Sisterhood members and their friends gathered on Tuesday for the Annual Donor Luncheon.

It was unquestionably one of the finest functions, and a very gratifying tribute to the tireless efforts of Mimi Singer, Chairman, and Lillian Leifert, Co-Chairman, and the committee. We are indeed indebted to Max Etra, President of our congregation, who gave of his valuable time to be with us, and who procured such popular talent as Jackie Miles, now appearing at The Capitol Theatre and Larry Brooks of The Copacabana, for our entertainment. Since no Sisterhood function is complete without our beloved Rabbi Lookstein, we were especially grateful not only for his inspiring address, but for his presence, in view of his recent illness. We hope that the success of the luncheon will act as a tonic to him and, please God, keep him in good health.

Our President, Rose Rudd was her ever charming self, and was happy at the enthusiasm of the donors, many of whom have promised to actively participate in Sisterhood henceforth. A word of thanks to our chairman of prizes, Mrs. Albert Levey and Mrs. Isidore Givner, Co-Chairman, for their excellent work in that direction, and to Alice Gold and Frances Tisch for their assistance. Last but certainly not least, our sincere appreciation to Cel Silberman for her superb rendition of the National Anthem and The Hatikvah. We are proud of our own "Lily Pons". We are grateful to Hannah Adler, Rose Alpert, Anne Casper, Martha Givner, Lillian Jacobs and Cel Silberman for the smooth functioning of the tickets and seating. And of course, a special word of appreciation to Gertrude Lookstein without whose guidance and advice no Sisterhood affair could go on.

To all the members and friends who were not with us due to ill health, go our best wishes for a speedy recovery.

To Rose Rudd, our best wishes for a pleasant vacation and a well earned rest.

CHANUKAH CANDLES IN THE MAIL

Those who responded to our request cards will receive this week their Chanukah candles. Candles will not otherwise be sent to anyone, unless requested. This is made necessary because of the war emergency.

The Festival Begins Tuesday Night

Don't forget to kindle the first Chanukah Light Tuesday evening, December 21st. The glorious festival of Chanukah is then ushered in and continues for eight days. Remember too that it is the traditional gift season and let your children realize that.

WELCOME MR. PEARCE

Mr. Sidney A. Pearce found a most fitting way to celebrate the birth of his daughter. At the ceremony of naming the child he joined he congregation as a member. Mazel tov Mr. and Mrs. Pearce on the increase in your family and for helping us increase the congregational family.

YEAR BOOK DEADLINE APPROACHING

Fifteen days remain to the close of our Year Book and to its being turned over for print. We are most gratified with the results thus far obtained and with the stream of ads that continues.

We know, however, that there are still a good many who must be at work on prospects. There may even be some who have held off for a variety of reasons up to now. To all of them we say — just fifteen more ad-getting days left! Please hurry and turn in whatever you have and whatever you get.

Mr. Joseph E. Adler is available for any assistance that you may need. The Victory Page can still use many more names of men in the service. The Kiddie Page still has ample space. Make every day count, therefore, realizing all the while what a grand service you are rendering your congregation.

JOURNAL RATIONS

"Two ads to every congregant" — that is the rationing principle of our 1943 Year Book. Have you gotten your two ads yet? They are not hard to get. They are actually lying around and begging to be solicited. They are even deductible from income tax. Do bestir yourself and do something about it.

FROM THE RABBI

Rabbi Lookstein asks to be excused by the Young People's Study Group and the Talmud Class for not having given them their due attention because of illness. The Young People's Study Group will not hold sessions until further notice.

FINE TURNOUT FOR MID-YEAR MEMBERSHIP MEETING

Even the zero weather could not chill the ardor of our members who turned out most characteristically for the Mid-Year Membership Meeting which took place last Sunday morning in the social hall. Many who intended to be present were unfortunately prevented from coming by the grippe epidemic now raging. Among those was Rabbi Lookstein, whose absence naturally was keenly felt.

An interesting report of all that transpired in the life of the congregation since the last Annual Meeting was presented by the president, Mr. Etra. He was followed by the vice-president, Saul J. Lance, who, as chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Ramaz School, read what was really a fascinating report of the School's growth. Mr. Louis J. Singer spoke for the Membership Committee and reported on the encouraging increase of the congregation's membership. He then introduced the twenty-two members approved by the Board of Trustees and nominated them for election as members.

The treasurer's report of Mr. A. R. Winer gave a very happy picture of the congregation's finances. Mr. Ira F. Weisman spoke for the Men's Club and Mrs. Lookstein for the Sisterhood of the congregation.

Of course the Cafeteria Brunch was enjoyed by all. A very palatable comment on it was made by Mr. Leigh Robbins.
