ALVIN THEATRE

NEXT WEDNESDAY AT THE ALVIN THEATRE

All of the ticket holders to our Theatre Party are eagerly looking forward to meet next Wednesday night at the Alvin Theatre. The show that awaits them, "Jackpot", will undoubtedly be the smash hit of the season. Already we are told that the advance demand for seats at the box office for "Jackpot" is heavy. Those of us who hold tickets for that show will be the envy of theatre-goers.

Aside from everything else, however, we will meet as a congregational family, assembled not only for entertainment but also for advancing the material welfare of our synagogue and its activities.

Mr. Louis J. Singer, Chairman of the Theatre Party, was able to obtain a few additional seats that we can make available to those who would like to have them either for themselves or for making up a larger party. Those who are interested must however let us know immediately by phoning the synagogue office.

WELCOME MR. TOPKIS

After a slight lull our membership applications are beginning to come again. We are happy to announce the receipt of such an application from Mr. Abraham Topkis. Mr. Topkis, formerly from Wilmington, Del., comes from a family that has always maintained a tradition of activity and leadership in Jewish community affairs. We are delighted with our new applicant.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

We have been signally honored to have Mrs. Maurice Finkelstein as the speaker for our next meeting on Monday, January 24, at 1 P.M. Mrs. Finkelstein, who is the President of the Women's American ORT and a noted lecturer, will speak on Maurice Samuel's two great books,—"The Great Hatred" and "The Life of Sholom Aleichem." Our Cantor Robert R. Fingeroth will sing Yiddish Folk Songs in his own magnificent and inimitable manner. A Cafeteria Lunch will be served promptly at one. All this, you must agree, will make for a wonderful afternoon. Do come and bring your friends!

Mrs. Jacob Alpert, as Chairman of Red Cross Activities, asks for donors to the Red Cross Blood Banks. There are thousands of our boys back in the United States Hospitals asking YOU to help them by donating your blood so that they may live! They fought for us and gave their blood so that we may live. Won't you write or call Mrs. Alpert for an appointment at the Blood Donor Banks!

Our best wishes are extended to Mrs. Isidor Schlang for a complete and speedy recovery.

BOARD OF TRUSTEE MEETING

A regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of the congregation will be held on Thursday evening, January 20, in the library of the synagogue. A detailed report of the Year Book and the Theatre Party will be presented. A project of great consequence to the future welfare of the congregation will be presented at this meeting by the Rabbi. Trustees and associate trustees are expected without fail at this meeting.

TO OUR YEAR BOOK WORKERS

The 1943 Year Book is now part of congregational history. Its financial success has reached a new high. Its literary quality will be of unprecedented calibre. As an example of its special character this year, we are pleased to announce that a famous Jewish artist has been engaged to provide the illustrations and other art features of the Year Book.

We want to heartily thank all those who worked diligently and devotedly to procure ads for the Year Book and to contribute thereby to its financial success. Our champion ad-getter is still our esteemed trustee, Mr. Murray M. Rosenberg. He has now held that title unchallenged for several years. We are most grateful to him for his unfailing and undiminished interest and friendship.

To all our ad-getters and workers we express our deepest appreciation. In particular do our thanks go to the following, each of whom contributed substantially to the success of the Year Book: Mrs. Joseph E. Adler, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob H. Alpert, Irving Angel, Mrs. Max Berenstein, Mrs. Rae Berwick, Mrs. S. L. Brody, Hyman I. Bucher, Mrs. Sam Bucher, Nat Cohen, Mrs. S. B. Cooperman, Max J. Etra, Mrs. Samuel Fine, Mrs. Robert R.
