AND YET ANOTHER

We are happy to welcome Mr. Robert H. Zessman into the congregational fold. Years ago Mr. Zessman and his family were worshippers in our midst. His association with us, therefore, at this time is in the character of a return of the native.

HEBREW HIGH SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

A Hebrew High School for Girls is opening under the sponsorship of the Hebrew Teachers' Training School for Girls. The school will meet at 30 West 74th Street. Sessions will be held two evenings a week, Monday and Thursday from 7:30 to 9:30. A comprehensive curriculum for girls of high school age has been prepared. A competent staff is in charge. The instructors are selected from among those who teach Hebrew in the high schools of the city. Girls of high school age who are graduates of a recognized Hebrew School or its equivalent are urged to apply immediately. The school telephone is ENdicott 2-1670. The opening session will be on Monday, Feb. 14th.

RAMAZ PERFORMANCE THIS SUNDAY

At ten o'clock this Sunday, Feb. 6, in the auditorium of the Central Jewish Institute the children of Ramaz will present a performance for their parents and guests. On the morning's program are dramatic and choral performances. Our congregants are invited to attend and thus avail themselves of an opportunity to see the Ramaz School at work.

SEAMAN MARGARETEN WRITES

In a letter that Jerome Margareten, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Margareten, wrote the Rabbi, appears the following interesting observation:

"I am fine and we still have services every Friday night. We now have a chapel on the base. I no longer conduct the services, as my relief arrived in the form of a sailor named Greenfield. The fellows honored me by electing me president of the congregation. I am sure Mr. Etra would like my job. No mortgage, no salaries to pay, no overhead and one hundred dollars in the bank."

It seems then that the Kehilath Jeshurun tradition continues even overseas. We are still a congregation of presidents.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

All members are invited to come to the Social Hall on Monday, Feb. 7, at 2 P.M. to help fill Purim gift boxes for our boys overseas. The Men's Club joins us in making possible this ray of sunshine for our boys abroad.

Mrs. Samuel Rosen, Chairman of the United Jewish Appeal, has called a committee meeting for Tuesday, Feb. 8th, to be held in her home. Our group is fortunate in having such a splendid and sincere worker in its midst.

Our next regular meeting will take place on February 28th and we urge you to keep the date open.

FOSTER HOMES FOR YOUTH

All of us on the home front are aware of the importance of working with youth in times like these. The Youth Service Bureau, a division of the New York Association for Jewish Children, serves Jewish boys and girls from 16 to 21. Many of these young people are in need of the warmth and security that a good Jewish home can offer to them in these troubled times. The organization caring for these children is one of the largest and best known in the country. The rate of pay for boarding these youngsters is quite liberal.

If your home is not available, perhaps you know some families who would like to take advantage of this unique opportunity to serve the community. More information can be ob-

On March 6th we will once again act as hostesses to the Women's Branch of the Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations of America at its Annual Purim Meeting. This event will take place in the social hall of our synagogue, at 2 P.M. Our members are cordially invited to attend.

In conjunction with the Men's Club we are sponsoring a Purim Party on Sunday, March 12th at 6 P.M. In addition to a buffet supper, a wonderful program of entertainment is being arranged for. Reserve March 12th on your calendar.

The Sisterhood extends heartfelt condolences to Mrs. Isidore Schlang on the passing of her dear mother and wishes her and her entire family uninterrupted happiness for the future.

MR. KOGAN OF BLESSED MEMORY

Mr. Bernhard Kogan, for many years a worshipper in our synagogue and the father of our esteemed member, Nathan B. Kogen, passed away this week. We extend to Mrs. Bernhard Kogan, to her family and to Nathan B. Kogan our heartfelt sympathies.

The Class in Contemporary Jewish Life conducted by Rabbi Lookstein for boys and girls of high school and college age will meet this Sunday in the Rabbi's study at 11 o'clock.

BENEVOLENT FUND

This week we give thanks to William B. Fischberg and Louis W. Yohann for their generous contributions to our Benevolent Fund. The proven value of this Fund attracts more and more contributors. Your donations may have meant food, medical and surgical care or shelter for one of our very own. As time goes on, this phase of our program looms up with increasing importance. Contributions are always welcome.

THE ANNUAL CHARITY RUMMAGE SALE

Chairman Larry Brody and Co-Chairman Irwin B. Jacobs announce that the week beginning March 27th has been set as the date for the Annual Charity Rummage Sale. Up to now, we have had a disappointing response. Remember that any material in disuse, old or new, will be acceptable. All proceeds go to charity as there are no administrative expenses. Some worthy person may be deprived of the help he needs if you have suitable merchandise and neglect to send it to the synagogue. Don't let this happen. Telephone AT. 9-0820, or AT. 9-5760 and we will be pleased to call, but give us ample time to do so. Thanks are extended to Mrs. Kessner, Mrs. T. Landau, J. J. Lubell, I. Unterberg & Co. and S. Klein's for their contributions to the Sale.

ABBOTT BERNARD BUYS BOOKS

Abbott Bernard has purchased all the remaining volumes of Rabbi J. X. Cohen's famous book, "Jewish Life in South America." This is another example of the wonderful spirit of helpfulness and generosity that we find in our members. Many, many thanks Abbott.

MEMBERSHIP

Jack Alpert, our Membership Chairman, announces and welcomes an old friend to the fold, Abraham D. Wiseman. This gentleman recently lost his father. May he and his family know no further sorrow for many many years to come.
