SISTERHOOD NEWS

The open meeting on Monday evening February 28 was a huge success. A large crowd of men and women turned out to listen to our speaker, the Hon. Dean Alfange who spoke on "How to Combat Race Prejudice". The audience was deeply stirred by the speaker who spoke courageous and forceful truths about a subject which we, as Americans and Jews, are entirely too lax. Those who attended voted the evening the best yet. Here is to many more such interesting meetings.

Mrs. Seppy I. Silberman, Chairman of Red Cross asks that you give your donations through our organization. Let us go over the top on this most worthwhile of charities.

Mrs. Samuel Rosen and Dr. Ann Casper, together with their committee are working on United Jewish Appeal. Our increased donation to U. J. A. will help save thousands of European Jews. Do not fail them!

Have you any rummage? Won't you call our office, ATwater 9-5760 and we will be happy to pick up packages.

Do not forget the Purim Party on Sunday, March 12th at 7 P.M. Do send your reservations now!

PURIM NIGHT IN THE SYNAGOGUE

On Wednesday night, March 8th the Festival of Purim will be ushered in amidst the traditional ceremonies. At 7 o'clock that night the Megillah will be read in the main synagogue. The children who are always the principal guests of that festival will be provided with the usual holiday souvenirs. A section of seats will be reserved for them.

At the close of services, coffee and homen-tashen will be served in the social hall. This will give the necessary social touch to a festival of traditional gayety. Remember then to come to the Megillah Wednesday night, men, women and children.

MAZEL TOV

A hearty mazel tov to Dr. and Mrs. Erich Buechler on the birth of a daughter.

A NEW MEMBER

We welcome Mr. Max Cooper into our midst. His application for membership was just received. This is the way Mr. Cooper chose to commemorate the Bar Mitzvah of his son in our synagogue last Saturday. A fitting way indeed.

speak on

"EUROPEAN UNDERGROUND"

We are proud to present this exciting Jewish gentleman and scholar who lived ten days with Hitler, at Hitler's invitation! How did he do it? Come to the meeting for the answer. He knows intimately not only Hitler, but Mussolini, Petain, Laval, Franco and all the rest of that murderous crew who forced us into this world maelstrom. As a reporter, author, world traveler and lecturer (speaks eight languages fluently) he has had an unbelievable history of adventure, resourcefulness and daring. He was present at moments when tragic history was being made. We call him a man in a million! He has survived and escaped from three Hitler concentration camps. His record is unmatched, even by any fictional hero.

Rabbi Lookstein will open the meeting with a short address

Collation will be served
