RABBI BACK HOME

The Rabbi and Mrs. Lookstein have returned from their recent vacation. As we already wrote in our last bulletin, during his stay in Atlantic City, the rabbi visited the Army Air re-distributing Center and the England General Hospital located there. He spoke twice before the Jewish service men and in that way obtained a good idea of what is going on in the minds of our soldiers.

His experiences during these visits will be reflected in his sermon this Saturday morning. It should interest our congregation to know the thoughts of men and women too, who have spent 18 months in the Pacific, in North Africa, or on the European continent. Come and hear about it.

1943 YEAR BOOK IN MAIL

Adler Warmly Congratulated

The 1943 Year Book, a work of art, a compendium of culture, and a hand-book of information is in the mail. Our advertisers and members of the congregation have already received it and their comments are most laudatory. The Year Book is everything that we promised it would be. Rev. Joseph E. Adler, our Ritual Director, was in charge of the Year Book and to him must go the praise and commendation for as a

OUR ANNUAL PASSOVER APPEAL Eli Siegel and Louis Yohann to Head $2500 Relief Campaign

Mr. Elliott W. Siegel has been designated as Chairman and Mr. Louis W. Yohann co-Chairman of our Annual Passover Relief Campaign. A quota of $2500 has been set as our goal for this year. With the funds obtained we help provide Passover necessities for the needy families of our city. In addition, there are a number of institutions here and abroad who annually receive from us a contribution for the Passover Holidays. Out of this fund, too we provide Passover boxes containing Holiday goodies for our men in the service. And finally, this year, we intend to send a substantial sum to rabbis and students stranded in Shanghai, India and other parts of the world.

We therefore appeal to all our congregants to be more generous than ever before. Try to double your last year's contribution. At any rate, give more than you gave last year. Above all, please do not delay. Send your contribution as soon as possible. Remember that only three weeks remain to Passover.

Checks may be made payable to the Kehilath Jeshurun Benevolent Fund and contributions are deductible from Income Tax.

"EUROPEAN UNDERGROUND"

Were you ever in a concentration camp? Do you think you could escape — let alone survive? This scholarly Jewish gentleman, of fine but durable steel, has been in no less than three such places of detention and escaped each time! He has been an invited guest of Hitler and spent ten days in the home of that demon of destruction. His life's story is more fantastic than any that fiction has yet devised. In this erudite personage (speaks eight languages fluently) we give you the last word in resourcefulness and quiet daring. A brave but gentle being comes to tell us of his amazing experiences and the background that begot them. We're truly proud to present him to our group.

Rabbi Lookstein will open the meeting with a short address

Collation will be served

OUR PURIM PARTY

Our Third Annual Purim Party sponsored by the Men's Club and Sisterhood brought together a jovial enthusiastic capacity crowd.

The Synagogue's family groups were never better represented and all participated in the general activities, suitable to the commemoration of this historic Jewish festival.

The Dinner Committee did a splendid job of arranging some forty odd tables gaily bedecked with colored tablecloths and tastefully set with full platters of meats and appropriate side dishes. Hy Bucher and Alex Garfein tended the bar and let us whisper, it was the busiest spot in "town" long after the official ceremonies were over.

The entertainment was climaxed by the appearance of the famous Jennie Goldstein — a truly great artist. Her personality and bubbling enthusiasm electrified the audience as she gave a splendid and varied performance in several languages.

Four other acts appeared as advertised — chief of which were Fraidale, a smooth singing character songstress, and that laugh provoking mid-get of magic, Al Flasso — all of whom gave voluntarily of their time and talents. To them and to Dr. Anu Katz, who brought them and to Margaretten who was the firm to arrange for Jennie Goldstein's services, we give a heartfelt and appreciative thanks. And lest we forget, the charming ladies of the Sisterhood who acted as hostesses.

The Committee itself undoubtedly did a meritorious piece of work, orthodox requirements collectively, as well as individually, but unquestionably the prize performance and one worthy of special mention was our generous, good-natured and tireless worker, Alex Garfein. And right alongside of him we must make mention of good old reliable Joe Adler. And so we write finis to this year's celebration and look forward to seeing you at the Purim party next year.
