A HAPPY HOLIDAY TO ALL

DR. SAMUEL BELKIN

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, JUDGE

TO ADDRESS ANNUAL MEETING

Our very esteemed member, Dr. Samuel Belkin, President of the Rabbi Isaac Elchanan Theological Seminary and Yeshiva College, will deliver the principal address at the Annual Membership Meeting of the congregation, April 25th, next.

Thirty new members will be inducted at this meeting. They are the ones who affiliated themselves with our congregation during the course of the current congregational year.

As has been the custom with us for several years, the annual meeting will bring together the membership of the congregation, of the Sisterhood and of the Men's Club. It is one of the real occasions of the year. Remember the date and save it.

ANNIVERSARIANS

Due to the pressure of Passover matters we overlooked the twentieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Rudd. Our congratulations and best wishes to the Rudds for many more years of wedded happiness.

Wedding anniversaries were observed last week, too, by Mr. and Mrs. Elliott W. Siegel and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Levey. Many more happy anniversaries to you.

MAZEL TOV TO DR. WALLACH

Our heartiest wishes to Dr. and Mrs. Robert Wallach on the birth of their son. May they derive ever increasing joy from the newly born.

ALBERT SOKOLSKI REACHES 70

Word just reached us that a fortnight ago our very devoted trustee, Mr. Albert Sokolski reached his 70th birthday. Mr. Sokolski celebrated the event at a birthday party arranged by the members of his family. We extend to him our warmest greetings and we fervently pray that the Almighty may grant him many more years of health and happiness together with all his dear ones.

RABBI LOOKSTEIN WILL PREACH ON BOTH LATTER DAYS OF THE HOLIDAY AT 10:45 A.M.

IN THE EGYPT OF TODAY

The following is an address delivered by Rabbi Lookstein through the Office of War Information to the Jews of occupied Europe.

Brethren in the land of affliction! We speak to you from the United States of America, the land of freedom and democracy. We are addressing ourselves to you who are living in the different Egypts of our day. We know of your affliction. Frequently we have heard your cry of anguish. Always we were stirred by your dauntless courage. For the suffering that you have undergone and for the courage in the face of it, you will be rewarded.

This is to our people the season of freedom. We are preparing to celebrate the glorious festival of Passover. We recall again the Exodus from Egypt, the release from bondage and the emancipation from oppression and slavery. We know how difficult it is for you to observe Passover amidst the circumstances under which you live.

Draw renewed hope and courage for the days to come. The day of deliverance is not far off. Freedom cannot be suppressed, and emancipation cannot be long delayed. The brave legions of democracy are battling your enemies and will defeat them.

Our hearts and our thoughts are with you. As we, in the land of freedom, will sit around the Seder table, we will think of you and pray for you. As we dip our greens into salt water we will taste your tears. As we will look upon the red wine we will think of your innocent blood that was savagely shed. The pale matzoth will recall to us your miserably rationed bread of affliction. Every symbol of the Seder ritual will make us think of you and of your desperate plight. Throughout the Passover season our prayers will be directed to our Heavenly Father in your behalf. We shall recite with emphatic faith and confidence the ancient formula, "Next year we shall be free men". We shall pronounce with piety and assurance the affirmation, "That God will then speedily bring us forth from servitude to freedom, from sorrow to gladness, from darkness to great light and from slavery to redemption".

May you live to observe truly happy Passovers in a world of happiness and peace. Good Yomtov to you, our Brethren.

SABOTAGE!

This colorful and dynamic young man, co-author of the sensational best seller, "SABOTAGE", comes to us at a particularly crucial time. His work and his book furnish vital information to those of us who are truly interested in the preservation of the democratic ideals of our country. He has uncovered the nefarious doings of some of our most notorious American Fascists. His message is interesting and informative.

WE RECORD THE LOSS

We mournfully record the passing of Mrs. Fannie Berzin, mother of our devoted member, Sol Berzin. The Pass-over festival brings a dispensation of the traditional week of mourning. We nevertheless convey to Mr. Berzin our heartfelt sympathies and our blessings for uninterrupted happiness in the future.

Similarly, do we share the grief of the entire Jewish community over the passing of Reuben Sadowsky, for many years a faithful member of our congregation. Mr. Sadowsky was a benefactor and builder of many an institution dedicated to religion, education and human service. Our condolences to his bereaved family.
