RABBI RETURNS FROM TRIP TO ARMY CAMPS

Rabbi Lookstein returned late this week from a ten-day tour of army and navy camps in the state of North Carolina. He traveled as vice-chairman of the Religious Activities Committee of the Jewish Welfare Board. He saw boys in training, as well as returnees from the European and Pacific theatres of war. The impressions that he gathered should be of interest to our congregants and he will share them with the congregation this Saturday morning. His sermon subject will be "Our Boys at War—What They Say and Think".

Come and greet the Rabbi on his return and listen to an illuminating report.

ALTERATION PLANS IN PROGRESS

The Board of Trustees at its meeting on Thursday night gave its approval to the Synagogue Alterations Committee to proceed with the selection of an architect for the proposed alteration of the synagogue and school buildings. Three architects have already been selected and these will submit their plans, the best of which will be chosen. We may, therefore, authoritatively state that we have thus taken the first step that will lead towards the realization of the grandest and most historic project of our synagogue life.

AD-GETTERS ALL

The deadline for ad-getting is rapidly approaching, and although we can well understand the reason for the lull at the end of December and the beginning of January, we cannot understand the continuance of that lull. Mr. Frederick Margareten, our energetic chairman, is a bit uneasy about the results obtained thus far. And while we have an active Year Book Committee, every member of which is an ad-getter in the bigger sense, the slogan this year still is: "A $100 in ads to be obtained by every member and congregant."

The sum is not great — it becomes even smaller when you realize that all you have to do it to get the ad, not to give it yourself. If you are shy or if you do not quite know how to approach your friends and business associates, give us their names and we will contact them for you. They will all be glad to help you help your synagogue.

The Year Book must be a success. It will be a success and you will want to have a share in that success. Hurry and use the blanks in your possession. If by any chance you should run out of blanks, merely call AT. 9-5760, and you will be sure to receive them in the next mail.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

MISSING THE OBJECTIVE

This is the final reminder of the outstanding event annually sponsored by our Sisterhood. Do you realize, members of K.J. Sisterhood, that to miss this important function is not only an injustice to yourself but to your organization as well? As a member you have a responsibility to support the good work to which the Sisterhood devotes its energies and efforts. Do help us reach our objective. Be a part of our splendid work. Be present at the Donor Luncheon.

Final arrangements by our efficient chairman and her committees assure you good food, fine service, ideal surroundings — and — surprise entertainment.

RESERVE THE DATE

Won't you get out your date book and jot down Monday, February 5th? That's the time of our next meeting and we are planning a fine program for you. Watch for the announcement.

A VOTE OF THANKS

The Sisterhood extends a vote of thanks to Mrs. Samuel Rosen for her gracious hospitality last Monday. A fine group attended the meeting at her home and enjoyed the review of plays of today by Irma Kraft.

This year, the Sisterhood will stress to a greater degree the cultural phase of their meetings and hopes to bring to its members varied and interesting programs. It only asks in return your interest and attendance.

CHARLES LEFF JOINS

From the hospital where he is now recuperating, Charles Leff sent us his application for membership in our Synagogue. We are happy to welcome you, Charles, and we hope that you will soon get well and be back in our midst.

MEN'S CLUB NEWS

THE "AD" COMMITTEE

We are reminded by our "Ad" Committee Chairman, Abe Kirshon, that some of us have yet to give or get "ads" for our synagogue Year Book. It is preferable that each one of us get, rather than give, "ads." In the new building, which the proceeds of the Year Book will help make possible, our group will enjoy certain privileges which more closely approach true club life than anything our present facilities permit. More detailed information will shortly be forthcoming.

There is much to look forward to for our organization. Let us, therefore, individually do our share, so that we may be the more deserving.

MEMBERSHIP

We are happy to welcome Ben Sands and Ira Willner into the fellowship of our group. We are confident that they will become active members of the organization.

RAMAZ NOTES

The amount reached last week in the sale of war stamps and bonds by Ramaz School was $6,682.75

Children are now contributing social service money to the March of Dimes and proudly record 100% participation.

CONGRATULATIONS TO LUBELL FAMILY

Our heartiest congratulations to Mr. J. J. Lubell on the engagement of his son Benedict to Miss Shirley Silbergleit of Asbury Park, N.J. May happiness and health be their constant companions in this new chapter of their lives.
