SISTERHOOD NEWS

Juliette T. Aschner to Speak at Next Meeting

The Sisterhood extends a cordial invitation to its members and their friends to attend the next regular meeting which will take place Monday, November 26th at 2:00 P. M. in the home of Mrs. Louis Etra.

The business part of the meeting will be devoted to committee reports and to a discussion of our Donor Luncheon and Year Book. After that we shall be privileged to hear the well known book and play reviewer, Mrs. Juliette T. Aschner, who will analyze and discuss the play, "Deep Are the Roots" and the best-seller, "The White Tower." If you have seen the play and read the book you will fully appreciate Mrs. Aschner's keen analysis. If you have not, then you certainly ought to avail yourself of this opportunity. We assure you an interesting and delightful afternoon.

An Event You Must Not Miss

We again call your attention to our Annual Donor Luncheon which will be held on Tuesday, December 11th at the Savoy Plaza Hotel. Mrs. Samuel Marcus, our Luncheon Chairman, expects to receive a subscription from every member. If you have not as yet sent in your subscription, do so at once. This is an event that you must not miss. Every effort is being exerted to make this a memorable occasion, and we count on your wholehearted support.

THANKSGIVING SPEAKER

We are privileged to present as our guest speaker at the Thanksgiving Services on Thursday, November 22nd, 11:00 A. M., the noted author, scholar and journalist, Mr. Max Lerner. His subject will be: "Where Do We Go from War?"

Mr. Lerner is recognized as one of the outstanding liberals of our day. He has won national fame as chief editorial writer of the newspaper PM and as radio news commentator, Station WOR. He was Professor of Political Science at Williams College and editor of the "Nation." Among the many well known books which he has written are: "It Is Later Than You Think," "Ideas Are Weapons," and the "Mind and Faith of Justice Holmes." Mr. Lerner is an eloquent and forceful speaker and his interpretation of events is profound and challenging.

The musical program of the service will feature our own Cantor Victor Gold, assisted by a full choir, under the direction of Meyer Machtenberg. There will, of course, be appropriate Thanksgiving prayers and a special Victory Prayer will be offered.

We urge all our congregants and their friends to be with us on Thursday morning to take part in our impressive Thanksgiving service.

tory Bonds through the Sisterhood. Those who have already bought bonds elsewhere are requested to send her the serial numbers. Our bond drives have always been very successful and we expect the results of this drive to top all of our previous records.

CHANUKAH CANDLES

In the past it has been our practice to send Chanukah candles to all our congregants. We have found that a large number of boxes were returned to us, for which we had to pay return postage. This resulted in a loss to our Benevolent Fund, which is the sole beneficiary of this project. We have, therefore, decided that this year candles will be sent only upon request. If you want us to send you a box of candles, kindly address a post card to Mr. Adler and it will be mailed to you promptly.
