on Saturday, October 26th, at 12 o'clock noon

Following the regular services in the Auditorium of the Synagogue House

Services begin at 8:45 A.M.

CONGREGANTS CONTRIBUTE
OVER $200,000 TO UJA

In response to an appeal made by the Rabbi before the Yiskor services on Shemini Atzereth, the members and worshippers pledged amounts totaling over $200,000. A number of contributions announced had been previously pledged in the trade and professional divisions organized by the United Jewish Appeal. The largest number, however, represented initial gifts made for the first time in the current year's campaign.

While we are very gratified with the response, we are striving for even better results. Our goal is to have every member and seat-holder of our congregation contribute to the UJA. Rabbi Lookstein put it well when he said, "We mean to exert every pressure in order to obtain the maximum results. If some be offended, then it is better to offend a living Jew than the memory of a martyred Jew." We ask our donors to be good enough and send in their checks to the synagogue office, made payable to the United Jewish Appeal. They will receive a temporary receipt from us and, subsequently, an acknowledgment from the UJA office.

We appeal to those who have not yet made their 1946 contributions to please respond at once. Help us achieve our goal—every member a donor to UJA.

RABBI LOOKSTEIN WILL SPEAK THIS SABBATH at 10:45 A.M. on
"IN THE WAKE OF THE DELUGE"— Human Reactions to World Catastrophe.

THE GEORGIAN SUITE

1-A East 77th Street

New York City

RABBI LOOKSTEIN WILL BE THE GUEST SPEAKER

A Reception will follow in honor of the wives of the new members of the congregation.

THIS SABBATH IN THE SYNAGOGUE

This Saturday is Shabbat Rosh Chodesh and special prayers will, therefore, be recited. Cantor Gertler has prepared several liturgical compositions for this service. There will also be two Bar Mitzvahs, one of whom will read the weekly portion and the other the Haftorah. Rabbi Lookstein will speak at 10:45 on the topic, "In the Wake of the Deluge"—Human Reactions to World Catastrophe.

At the conclusion of the services a reception and Buffet Kiddush will be tendered in honor of the Simchat Torah Chassanim, Messrs. Etra Lance, and Kommel in the auditorium of the Synagogue House.

All our members and their wives are cordially invited to the service and to the reception that will follow.

AT THE RABBI'S HOME

Rabbi and Mrs. Lookstein were home to the members of the congregation last Wednesday night, Shemini Atzereth. It was a most lovely gathering. Older members and younger members, those who recently joined, and those who have been with us for years were all there. The atmosphere was a festive one and the spirit was that of a family get together. This annual "At Home" has become a social highlight in our congregational life.

OUR IMPRESSIVE HOLIDAY SERVICES

It is indeed gratifying to us to acknowledge the many expressions of appreciation voiced by our congregants for the impressive services at our synagogue during the Holiday Season. We are indeed grateful to our worshippers for their splendid cooperation in rendering these services solemn and inspiring in the fullest sense.

We are particularly grateful to our efficient committee of ushers who contributed in no small measure to the orderliness and dignity of the service. Theirs was a difficult task well planned and well carried out. They began their work at Selichos time and did not complete their assignments until Simchat Torah. The committee consists of the following: Dr. Elmer Alpert, Messrs. Hyman I. Bucher, Alexander Garfein, George Jacobs, Irvin B. Jacobs, Alexander Kommel, Sol Lustbader, Charles Schlang, and Ira F. Weisman. A hearty thanks to all of them for their splendid service to the congregation.

WITHIN OUR FAMILY

Happy anniversary to Mr. and Mrs. William B. Fischberg. We wish them many years of wedded joy. . . . Happy returns of the day to Dr. Elmer Alpert, Mr. David Joseph, Mrs. Abris Silberman and Mr. Bernard Weiss who are celebrating their birthdays this week.

KEHILATH JESHURUN OPENS INSTITUTE FOR JEWISH STUDIES

Last year our congregation initiated a program of evening courses for men and women. The response to this program was so gratifying and the results so favorable that the congregation has decided to expand this program for the coming year and to establish an Institute for Jewish Studies that will be devoted to the furtherance of adult education.

We know that our members and friends will welcome this good news, and we invite them to take full advantage of the opportunities for cultural enrichment that are being offered by the Institute.

The program of Jewish studies planned for the year includes unit courses in the Hebrew Language, Bible, Jewish History, Zionism and Palestine, Jewish Laws and Customs, The Prayer Book, Jewish Music, and Yiddish language and literature. There will be classes for beginners as well as for advanced students. In addition to these courses, special study groups will be formed in any subject upon the request of a sufficient number of students at hours most convenient to them.

Each class will meet once a week for a period of 30 weeks. A Certificate of Accomplishment will be issued to students upon the satisfactory completion of each course.

The faculty of the Institute consists of highly qualified teachers who are experts in the field of Jewish education. Some of them are on the teaching staff of the Ramaz School and of our afternoon Religious School.

A prospectus of the Institute with the full list of courses is now in preparation and will be mailed shortly to our readers. For further information regarding the Institute and its program apply to our Educational Director, Mr. Herman C. Axelrod.

CHILDREN'S SERVICES WELL ATTENDED

Last Saturday, October 19, the children of our Religious School resumed their regular Sabbath Services in the chapel of the synagogue. The attendance was very satisfactory and many new pupils who recently joined our school participated in these services for the first time. They will, we hope, become regular worshippers in our junior congregation. Again we extend an invitation to all Jewish boys and girls in our neighborhood whether they be pupils of our school or not, to attend these services which are held every Shabbos morning at 10 o'clock.

WE CONGRATULATE

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Kobrin, members of our congregation, on the Bar Mitzvah of their son Lawrence who is a student of the Ramaz High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Brown on the Bar Mitzvah of their son Warren, a student of the Ramaz High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Amram whose son Fred celebrated his Bar Mitzvah last Saturday. Fred attends our Religious School.

Mrs. Vera Ickovic, whose son Ari, will become Bar Mitzvah this Saturday in our synagogue. Ari, who is a student of Ramaz, will read the weekly portion.

Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Taub, whose son Herbert, will become Bar Mitzvah in our synagogue this Saturday, Herbert is a pupil in our Religious School.

To the happy families we extend our heartiest felicitations and best wishes.

SISTERHOOD HAPPY DAY FUND

The Sisterhood acknowledges with thanks the receipt of contributions to the Happy Day Fund from Mr. and Mrs. Saul Lance in observance of their wedding anniversary, and from Mrs. Manuel Weinstein on the occasion of her birthday. Our blessings and good wishes to them.

THE FAMILY RECORD

We have received a number of complaints about the omission of certain birthdays, anniversaries, and Yahrzeit dates from our bulletin. While we regret this omission, we must state that unless properly informed of these events we have no way of divining them and, consequently, cannot record them. Our congregation has devised a Family Record for the purpose of securing full information pertaining to birthdays, anniversaries, and other important family events. Such information enables us to serve the personal needs of our membership more effectively. We regret to say, however, that many of our members have not as yet returned these family records to us, hence the omissions.

If you are among those who haven't sent in their records, please do so without further delay. If you have misplaced or lost your blank please let us know and we shall send you another one.
