JUBILEE YEARBOOK COMMITTEE MEETS

Last Monday night, November 25th the Jubilee Yearbook Committee met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Marcus. The large attendance and the lively discussions were indicative of the enthusiasm with which the committee is working for the success of the yearbook. Mr. Marcus, who is chairman of the committee, reported that all members and seat holders of the congregation will be asked to co-operate in this project. It is expected that each member will procure from his friends and business associates at least $100.00 in ads and greetings.

In a few days ad blanks will be sent to all of our friends, and we are confident that they will do their share in making this Jubilee Yearbook the most successful one in the history of the congregation.

NEW MEMBER

We are are happy to announce that Dr. Myron Bogdonoff has signed an application for membership in our congregation. Congratulations to him and his family.

FAMILY CHANUKAH PARTY SUNDAY, DECEMBER 22ND

The Men's Club and Sisterhood are jointly sponsoring a Chanukah Party which will be held in the auditorium of the Synagogue House on Sunday evening, December 22nd. An elaborate program is being planned for this occasion. It will include a delicious supper, good music, and entertainment by performers of note. The charge per person will be $2.50. Reservations are now being accepted for this party. Because of the limited accommodations, we must limit reservations to members of the congregation, the Men's Club, the Sisterhood, and their personal guests.

This celebration will afford our entire congregational family an opportunity to get together for an evening of good fellowship and sociability on the traditional and gay festival of Chanukah. Please reserve that Sunday evening and you will thank us for it later.

A REMINDER

Have you sent in your order for a box of Chanukah candles? If not, please do so before December 4th.

MEN'S CLUB NEWS

November Forum Well Attended

A capacity audience of men and women attended the Men's Club forum meeting in the auditorium of the Synagogue House Tuesday, November 19th. The guest speaker was the noted author, Vincent Sheean, who delivered an eloquent address on the subject "Problems of the Peace." As a war correspondent, Mr. Sheean traveled widely and observed first hand the political conditions in Europe and Asia. His analysis of the problems facing the world today was most illuminating and thought provoking. At the close of the meeting, Mr. Ira F. Weisman invited the entire audience to the social hall where a collation was served.

Father and Son Minyan and Breakfast

Last Sunday morning, our Bar Mitzvah boys and their fathers gathered in the chapel of our synagogue to conduct Rosh Chodesh services, and to take part in the Father and Son Breakfast which followed. It was a very impressive religious experience to the boys as well as to their parents.

The services were conducted by the boys. Haskel Lookstein officiated as Chazan and Jacob Bloom read the Torah. The benediction was pronounced by Elliott Messing. At the breakfast table, Rabbi Lookstein extended cordial greetings to the boys, their fathers, and to the members of the Men's Club who sponsored the breakfast. He voiced his admiration for the fine service that the Bar Mitzvah group conducts every Sunday and expressed the hope that this will become a permanent institution in the congregation. The Rabbi thanked Mr. Ira F. Weisman and Mr. Alex Garfein for their efforts in planning and arranging the breakfast. The members of the Men's Club who were present were so impressed with the splendid turnout on Sunday, that they decided to make the breakfast a weekly feature of the Post-Bar Mitzvah Minyan.

After the assembly, the children will visit the Jewish Book Exhibit. . . . The Dramatic Club, under the direction of Miss Harris, is now rehearsing a Chanukah play that will be presented at the annual Chanukah celebration of the Religious School on Sunday morning, December 22nd. . . .
