IT CAN BE DONE

The goal set for our Jubilee Yearbook is $25,000. This is not a very large amount and with a little effort on the part of each congregant, it can be easily attained.

It should be emphasized that the 1946 Yearbook will be different from all the previous Yearbooks published by our congregation. It will be the Diamond Jubilee Yearbook and in it will be recorded the history and achievements of Kehilath Jeshurun during the past seventy-five years. In form as well as in content, it will be an impressive volume that each member will be proud to possess.

The Yearbook Committee, headed by Messrs. Marcus, Lustbader and Siegel, is confident that each member will do his share towards the success of this Jubilee project. If each one will procure only one hundred dollars in ads or greetings, then we will not only reach our quota but go above it.

As previously announced, the deadline for ads is January 31st. This gives us one more month in which to complete our work. Let us, therefore, intensify our efforts and make this Yearbook the outstanding success it deserves to be.

SUNDAY MINYAN AND BREAKFAST WELL ATTENDED

One of the new activities recently introduced by the congregation is the Sunday morning Minyan and Breakfast sponsored by the Men's Club. This special service brings together once a week our Bar Mitzvah boys and their fathers for a session of prayer followed by a social hour. All will agree that this is a very worthwhile activity and has many educational values.

While we are satisfied with the attendance at present, we feel that many more boys and their fathers should attend this service. This is by no means limited to the boys of our congregation. All post-Bar Mitzvah boys in our neighborhood are welcome.

The service begins at 9:15 and the breakfast is served at 10:15. Each week an interesting topic of current Jewish events is discussed at the breakfast table.

A hearty "mazel tov" to Mr. and Mrs. Morris Ratnoff upon the marriage of their daughter Audree to Charles Lesavoy, which will take place this Saturday night. . . . Our President Mr. Max J. Etra and his mother are leaving for Florida this Sunday. Our good wishes to them for a pleasant winter vacation. . . . Hearty anniversary greetings to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Goodstein, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Topkis, and Dr. and Mrs. Oscar Gruen. . . . A happy birthday to Mrs. David Joseph. . . . In listing the members of the Chanukah arrangement committee, the name of Alvin Austin was inadvertently omitted. We therefore take this means of thanking him for his cooperation.

WELCOME NEW MEMBER

We are pleased to announce that Mr. Sidney Mills, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bornstein, has sent in his signed application for membership in the congregation. A hearty welcome to him and his family.

MEN'S CLUB PLANS NEW ACTIVITIES

As a growing organization, the Men's Club is constantly expanding and enriching its program of social and cultural activities. The monthly forums, smokers, holiday celebrations and other social functions are occasions for genuine fellowship and attract very large audiences.

In order to provide for the varied interests of the group, we are planning for the coming year to introduce several new activities which we are sure will be welcomed by all. A full athletic program for members of the Men's Club will soon be introduced in the gymnasium of the Synagogue House. We are also planning to organize a dramatic group as well as a choral society. These new activities will, of course, be directed by competent professional people.

In addition to this broad program the Men's Club contributes materially to the educational and philanthropic endeavors of the congregation. It provides scholarships to Ramaz and the afternoon Religious School; it sends underprivileged children to summer camps and maintains many other benevolences.

We look forward to a year of fruitful work and we hope that each member will take full advantage of the rich and varied program of activities.
