First Sunday Supper Lecture

THIS SUNDAY, MARCH 23RD

in the Social Hall of the Synagogue

RABBI JOSEPH H. LOOKSTEIN

will talk on

"FORERUNNERS OF POLITICAL ZIONISM"

Buffet Supper at 7 P.M. followed by lecture.

SHABBAT HACHODESH

This Saturday is Shabbat Hachodesh as well as Rosh Chodesh Nisan. The Hallel will be recited and special liturgical selections will be read. Because of the three-fold importance of the day three scrolls will be taken out, one for the regular weekly portion and two for the special readings. The month of Nisan is one of the important months of the Jewish calendar. It is the "month of spring" and ushers in the festival of Passover.

Come with your family to the synagogue this Saturday.

LAST CALL FOR PASSOVER RELIEF

The response to our Passover Relief Fund has been most gratifying. We are happy to note that many congregants and friends have this year contributed more generously than ever before.

We have not as yet, however, reached our quota of $3,000 so urgently needed this year. The time is short and we must carry out our obligations to the needy of our community, to our unfortunate brethren overseas and to the indigent rabbis who apply to us for aid.

If you are among those who have not as yet responded, please do so at once. Remember, this is the last call.

Rabbi Lookstein will preach this Sabbath at 10:45 A.M. on:
"WHEN TURNING THE CLOCK BACKWARD MEANS PROGRESS"

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Record Attendance at March Meeting

Last Monday, March 17th the members of the Sisterhood and their friends were treated to a delightful afternoon at the home of Mrs. Aaron H. Onish. The splendid turnout of over seventy women as well as the enthusiasm which prevailed were a tribute to the gracious hostess whose cordiality was enjoyed by all.

After partaking of a delicious lunch, the members listened to reports on the various activities of the Sisterhood submitted by the chairmen of the standing committees. Mrs. Seppy I. Silberman gave a financial report. This was followed by reports from Mrs. Jack Alpert, Membership Chairman, Mrs. Jacob Rudd for the SOS, Mrs. Edgar Trautman for the Knitting Project, Mrs. Benjamin Leifert for the Passover Relief and Mrs. D. Harry Kleinfeld for the Red Cross.

The highlight of the meeting was the informative and entertaining talk by the noted musician Hilda Holt on, "Changing Forms in Music." Our own women who are similarly gifted, particularly Mrs. Onish and Mrs. Silberman, assisted her and thus added to the enjoyment of the afternoon.

All those who attended will agree that this was one of the best meetings of the year.

Happy Day Fund

We extend our gratitude to Mrs. S. Lawrence Brody, Mrs. Albert Sokolski and Mrs. Abraham Wiener for their generous contributions to our Happy Day Fund. Through their kindness, several needy youngsters will enjoy many happy days in camp this summer.

PASSOVER LAWS AT SABBATH CIRCLE

At the Sabbath Circle this Saturday Rabbi Lookstein will discuss Passover Laws and Ceremonies. Questions pertaining to the holiday will be answered. The circle will meet at 5:30 p.m. All are welcome.

FIRST SUPPER LECTURE THIS SUNDAY

The first in a series of four Sunday Supper Lectures sponsored by the Men's Club on the "History of Zionism" will be held this Sunday evening, March 23rd in the Social Hall of the synagogue. The program for the evening will be as follows: A Buffet Supper will be served at seven o'clock, after which Rabbi Lookstein will deliver a lecture on, "The Fore-runners of Political Zionism." This will be followed by a question and answer period. Those who have made reservations for this Sunday night are requested to come on time.

Those who wish to attend the three succeeding Sunday lectures on March 30th, April 13th and April 20th are urged to send in their reservations now. The fee for a single lecture is $1.50 including supper. Please use the enclosed reservation form.

WITHIN OUR FAMILY

A hearty "mazel tov" to Mrs. Louis Alpert upon the engagement of her daughter Marilyn D. to Marvin L. Sands, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Sands of Greensboro, N. C. Miss Alpert is the daughter of the late Louis Alpert and the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob H. Alpert. Our best wishes to the young couple and to the happy families.

Many happy returns of the day to Mrs. Sarah Epstein who observed her 80th birthday this week. The occasion was celebrated by a reception which was attended by her host of friends. At this reception a poem composed by one of her grandchildren was read. The title of the poem was, "Whistler's Mother Is What My Grandma Ain't."

Similar greetings are extended to our esteemed trustee Mr. Albert Sokolski who celebrated his birthday this week.

Congratulations to Rabbi Norman Bronznick, teacher of Talmud at Ramaz who received his ordination last Sunday together with the 85 young rabbis ordained at Yeshiva University.

MEN'S CLUB NEWS

Reservations for Annual Dinner

Mr. Hy Bucher, chairman of our Seventh Annual Dinner which will be held May 20th in the Synagogue House reports that many reservations for this function have already been received.

Judging from the enthusiasm of our members and the special character of the event, there is no doubt that this dinner will be over-subscribed. Watch the next issue of our Bulletin for a surprise announcement about the nature of this event which will undoubtedly be the outstanding one of the year.

Next Forum Meeting April 15th

We wish to announce in advance that the next Forum Meeting of the Men's Club, to which ladies will be invited, will take place Tuesday evening, April 15th. The full program as well as the name of the speaker will be announced in the next issue of the Bulletin. In the meantime, reserve this date since you and your family will want to be with us that evening.

Mr. Axelrod Addresses Education Conference at Yeshiva University

Last Wednesday morning, Mr. Herman C. Axelrod, Principal of our Afternoon Religious School delivered an address on Talmud Torah Administration at the Conference on Jewish Education at Yeshiva University in connection with the Ordination Celebration.

Mr. Axelrod dealt with the work of a principal in his relation to the parent, pupil and teacher and showed how an efficient administration can contribute to the improvement of the afternoon religious school.

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS

We welcome into our congregational family Messrs. Charles Schiffman and Reuben Westerman whose signed applications for membership have just been received. Our congratulations to them and their families.

PREPARING FOR PASSOVER

As the Passover season approaches, we should like to call your attention to a few matters pertaining to the preparations for the observance of this very important holiday.

"Kosher for Passover"

The Passover holiday is one that affords the unscrupulous an opportunity to practice fraud and deception on the observant. A variety of food articles are offered for sale under all guises which are actually forbidden for use. The fact that these articles are sold in the Passover department of leading department stores is no guarantee of kashruth. Only the endorsement of a leading rabbi or rabbinic organization may be depended upon. Since not all are familiar with the status of endorsers, it is advisable always to consult the rabbi when in doubt.

Sale of Chometz

Rabbi Lookstein will be available beginning with Thursday, March 27th for the sale of chometz. The rabbi may be found in the synagogue office daily. For those who can not take care of this important ritual in person, the attached form may be used. It must, however, be returned to the rabbi no later than Thursday, April 3rd.

I,..... hereby authorize Rabbi J. H. Lookstein to dispose of all Chometz that may be in my possession wherever it may be, at home, place of business or elsewhere, in accordance with the requirements and the provisions of the Jewish law.

RABBI LOOKSTEIN TO ADDRESS RELIGIOUS SCHOOL PARENTS' COUNCIL

A meeting of the Religious School Parents' Council will be held Monday evening, March 24th at 8:30 in the auditorium of the Synagogue House.

Mr. Axelrod, the Principal, will report on the progress of the school, the achievement of the pupils and on the new extra-curricular activities.

The speaker of the evening will be Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein and our parents may look forward to a very illuminating talk on the subject, "What American Jewish Parents Dare Not Forget."

The teachers will, of course, be on hand and parents will have an opportunity to confer with them about the progress of their children. A collation will be served at the close of the meeting.
