PROFESSOR CLYDE R. MILLER TO SPEAK AT THANKSGIVING SERVICE

Services to be held Thursday, November 27th

The annual Thanksgiving Services of Kehilath Jeshurun, which have enjoyed a most enviable reputation for their impressiveness and for the renowned guest speakers who have addressed them in the past, will be held this year on Thursday, November 27th, at 11:00 a.m. in the Auditorium of the Synagogue House.

The Guest Speaker this year will be Dr. Clyde R. Miller, Associate Professor of Education at Teachers College, Columbia University, the founder of the Institute for Propaganda Analysis and well-known author. Dr. Miller, who conceived the Springfield Plan, is the "father" of the popular opinion polls now being conducted throughout the country on matters of current interest. He is the author of "The Process of Persuasion," a book widely acclaimed for its analysis of the powers of persuasion and propaganda.

RABBI LOOKSTEIN'S ARTICLE ON THE JEWISH DAY SCHOOL PUBLISHED

Under the general heading of "Jewish Schools in America," the American Association for Jewish Education has published a compact but comprehensive description of the types of Jewish schooling in the United States and Canada. Contributing writers are all experts in their respective fields, and it is a source of pleasure to note that the article on the All-Day School was prepared by our own Rabbi.

Rabbi Lookstein presents a short background of this type of Jewish

The services will be conducted by Rabbi Lookstein, and Cantor Hyman Gertler, with the assistance of a full choir under the direction of Seymour Silbermintz, will officiate. As in past years, the services will offer the inspiration the occasion demands.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Open Meeting —

Mrs. Abraham Wiener, Chairman of the Sisterhood Program Committee, announces that arrangements have been made for an Open Meeting of the Sisterhood for Monday, November 17th at 1:30 p.m. at the Savoy-Plaza. This meeting, to which all Kehilath Jeshurun ladies and their friends are invited, will have as its guest speaker, Mrs. Albert L. Wigor who will speak on "Palestine Looks to Democracy." We know Mrs. Wigor's message will prove of great interest to all who attend.

The guest artist at this meeting will be Ruth Kobart, who will entertain our guests with a program of Palestinian songs that will long be remembered. Since the affair will be devoted entirely to Palestine, we are certain our friends will derive inspiration as well as enjoyment by attending.

The hostesses of this open meeting are Mrs. Hyman Abrams, Mrs. Harry Etra and Mrs. Alexander Kommel, all of whom are active members of the Sisterhood. According to the arrangements made, coffee and cake will be served promptly at 1:30; our guests are therefore requested to be at the Savoy-Plaza (Mandarin Room), 58th Street and Fifth Avenue, on time.

Invitations to the meeting are now in the mails. Please return the Response Card which is enclosed therein as soon as possible in order to enable the Committee to make definite and final arrangements.

Board Meeting —

The next meeting of the Board of the Sisterhood will be held Monday, November 10th at 1:05 p.m. in room 102 of the Synagogue House (Domestic Science room). In addition to discussing the Annual Donor Luncheon, the meeting will hear a detailed report on the Neediest Cases project. All members are urged to attend this meeting.

Get Well —

We extend to Mrs. Joseph Cohen our heartiest wishes for a speedy recovery from her illness. We hope to see her back with us very soon.

RAMAZ NOTES

The recent G. O. election campaign conducted by the pupils of Ramaz — and the Ramaz High School — culminated this week in the election of officers to respective G. O. posts, with some closely contested races. The officers who were chosen to fill the positions in this student organization were: President: Joel Lewittes, grade 8; Vice-President: Yacov Goldin, grade 7; Secretary: Tova Ordentlich, grade 7; Treasurer: Edgar Hausman, grade 6.

In the Ramaz High School, the results of the election were: President: Rebekah Berman, form 3; Vice-President: Jacob Bloom, form 2; Secretary: Susan Goodside, form 1; Treasurer: Joyce Hanover, form 3.

To the winners we extend our best wishes for a most successful administration; to the losing candidates, our thanks for the good fight and keen school spirit manifested. To all, thanks a million for offering students and school staff alike a most enjoyable interlude.

Book Review Contest —

Pupils of the upper grades are making plans to participate in the Book Review Contest sponsored by the National Jewish Welfare Board. The contest, part of Jewish Book Month to be observed from November 7th to December 7th, is most eagerly awaited by children attending Jewish schools throughout the city, and we are confi-

WITHIN OUR FAMILY

Birthdays —

We extend our heartiest birthday wishes to the following members who celebrate their birthdays this week: Mrs. Morris Bien, Mrs. Julius Charnow, Hyman Cohen, Mrs. Israel Cummings, Mrs. David Kahn, Alfred N. Kram, Vice-President Saul J. Lance, and to Junior Member Frederick Zuckerman.

Marriage —

Mazel Tov to Julius Schwartz upon his recent marriage. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz many years of happiness together.

Honors —

Congratulations to Mrs. Benjamin Gottesman upon her recent election to the Vice-Presidency of National Hadassah. We know this will prove most valuable to Hadassah, and so we extend to that esteemed and active organization our felicitations.

CONDOLENCE

We wish to express our sincerest condolence to Benjamin Miller of the Ramaz School staff upon the loss of his beloved mother. We pray that the Almighty spare him from further sorrow for many years to come.

dent our children will place high when the final results are announced.

Armistice Day Assembly —

Our Armistice Day Assembly program will be held in the Auditorium on Tuesday, November 11th. Parents are cordially invited to attend.

school (also known as a Yeshiva) and its history in Europe, the continent of its birth, and in America. The Rabbi then describes the set-ups of the various types of all-day schools; the traditional Yeshiva, the modern Yeshiva, the Integrated Yeshiva (of which Ramaz is the oldest) and the Hebrew-English School. The aims, methods and curriculum of each are described briefly in a most lucid and interesting manner.

The Rabbi concludes his article with two predictions: the Jewish all-day school will contribute greatly to the enrichment and advancement of Jewish learning in America; secondly, it is destined to become a major contribution of American Israel to American cultural democracy.
