SUNDAY SUPPER LECTURE SERIES TO BE RESUMED

First Lecture to be held March 7th

We are very happy to announce that a Supper Lecture Series will be conducted this year beginning with Sunday evening, March 7th. The Supper Series conducted last year was such an outstanding success and the demands for its repetition this year have been so numerous that we are confident that this news will be welcomed.

DEAD-LINE FOR YEAR BOOK ADS DRAWS NEAR

The dead-line set by the 1947-48 Year Book Committee for getting ads, is rapidly approaching. Thus far, a comparatively few members have assumed the entire burden, with Martin Klein, Frederick Margareten and Louis W. Yohann (in addition to those mentioned in previous issues of the Bulletin) joining the list of active Year Book workers.

Only a short time remains before March 1st, the deadline set. Elliott W. Siegel, Chairman of the Committee, expresses the hope of the entire group that the two remaining weeks will bring us closer to our goal. At the present time, we are still far from the quota established for this year's publication. We know that with a little effort on the part of each and every one of our members — with the office ready to assist in any way possible — we can reach this quota with ease.

The topic of the series will be announced in the next Bulletin, as will also the place where the series will be conducted. In that connection we can merely state that this time the place as well as the subject will be in the nature of exciting news. The lecturer, of course, will be Rabbi Lookstein.

The entire project will, like last year, be under the sponsorship of the Men's Club of our congregation.

MISHNAH CLASS MEETS EVERY SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Every Saturday afternoon, one hour before Mincha, a Mishnah Class is in session under the leadership of the rabbi. This class is now engaged in the study of the section, Nezikim. The interpretation is in English. About fifteen men have been attending the

SISTERHOOD NEWSMeeting Dates Set—

Mrs. Alexander Kommel, president of the Sisterhood, announced that in view of the fact that so many of the Sisterhood members are away on their winter vacations, no meeting has been scheduled for February. The date of the next Open Meeting has been set for Monday, March 8th, at the home of Mrs. Aaron H. Onish, 1016 Fifth Avenue. Further details will be announced, and members notified accordingly.

The Executive Board of the Sisterhood will meet on Monday, March 1st; the time and place will be announced in the next Bulletin. All members, however, are urged to note the date and make every effort to attend this meeting.

GEORGE HYMAN OF BLESSED MEMORY

An old stalwart passed from our midst when George Hyman died last Monday. It is true that for the last few years we did not see much of him because he moved to another part of the city. Nevertheless, old timers will recall with affection and gratitude the service that he rendered Kehilath Jeshurun. Brother of the sainted Samuel I. Hyman, one of the pillars of Kehilath Jeshurun, he continued the tradition of service to Jews and Judaism begun by his distinguished brother. Even during the years of illness preceding his passing he never failed to remain in touch with the synagogue of his boyhood and young manhood. We mourn the passing of the last of the Hyman brothers and we extend to his beloved wife our sincerest expressions of sympathy.

WITHIN OUR FAMILYNew Member—

We welcome into our Men's Club Berthold Breiner, who joined us last week. We wish him many years of happy association with us.

Birthdays—

To the following members who celebrate their birthdays this week, go our heartiest greetings: Mrs. Jerry A. Coan, Mrs. Samuel B. Cooperman, Solomon Hecht, Benjamin Jacoby, Dr. Sigmund Klein, Nathan Rosenthal and Reuben Westerman.

Bar Mitzvah—

Our best wishes to Zev Censor of Ramaz on his Bar Mitzvah this Saturday. To his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Censor, we extend our wish that he continue to reflect credit on them and the entire family.

Anniversaries—

Our prayer for many more years of happiness together go to the following members who celebrate wedding anniversaries this week: Mr. and Mrs. Jacob D. Cohen, Dr. and Mrs.

Maximillian W. Goldstein, Mr. and Mrs. Benedict I. Lubell and Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Mills.

Speedy Recovery—

We regret to report that Benedict Lubell is in Asbury Park hospital suffering from a fractured ankle. We are told, however, that he is mending well and will soon be up and around.

Honors—

Our congratulations to Justice Bernard L. Shientag who was honored this week by the Young Men's Hebrew Association for distinguished service in the community.

CONDOLENCE

We extend our heartfelt sympathies to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gitelman upon the untimely loss of their infant daughter. We pray that the Almighty spare them and their family from further sorrow for many years to come. Mr. Gitelman is a member of the Religious School and Adult Institute faculties.

RAMAZ NOTES

Ramaz Student Places in Contest—

Yael Gottlieb, Grade 8, has won second prize in an essay contest on "What a Yeshiva Education Means to Me," conducted by the Inter-Yeshiva Student Council. The presentation of the award was made by a representative of the Council at the Senior Assembly on Wednesday, February 4th, at 10:00.

Congratulations, Yael!

class regularly. It is, however, desirable that many more men take advantage of this class.

The Mishnah is the best introduction to advanced Talmudic study. The interpretations of the rabbi and his frequent references to contemporary law make the study group interesting to the modern student.

This Saturday the class will meet at 4:10 o'clock in Room 202 of the Synagogue House.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NOTES

Plans Under Way for Purim Celebration—

The Dramatic Society of the Religious School is now making plans for the presentation of an outstanding program in celebration of Purim. While other classes and clubs will participate in the program, the Dramatics Club, which includes children of all the classes, will be in charge of the program. Details will be announced shortly, but we give you this advance notice because Miss Viola Harris, director of the Society, assures us of an outstanding presentation.
