FIRST SUNDAY SUPPER LECTURE TO BE GIVEN THIS SUNDAY

Rabbi Lookstein to Discuss Reform Judaism

The first supper lecture of the year, sponsored by the Men's Club, will take place this Sunday, March 7th, at 7:00 p.m. in the Ramaz High School building, 22 East 82nd Street. This lecture, on the topic, "Reform Judaism — its Original Goals and Present Status," is the first of a four-lecture series on the theme "The Religious Complexion of American Jewry" to be delivered by Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein.

WHO IS SELLING WHOM NOW FOR THIRTY PIECES OF SILVER?

According to the New Testament account Judas turned over the founder of Christianity to his enemies for thirty pieces of silver. Without commenting on the accuracy of that statement, it is interesting to note that in our day the tables seemed to be turned. Are not Jewish Palestine and the Jewish people as a whole being sold for a price greatly in excess of the one allegedly paid to Judas?

In his sermon this Saturday, "The Holy Dollar and Dollar Diplomacy—Reflections on the Sabbath of Shekolim," Rabbi Lookstein intends to discuss the most recent policy with respect to the Jewish state. All Americans are greatly aroused as a result of what has happened at Lake Success. We may, therefore, expect a bold and clear-cut statement from the

The other lectures, covering Conservative, Reconstructionist and Orthodox Judaism—as well as the future of religion in general among America's Jews—will be held on Sunday evenings, March 14th, April 4th and April 11th, at the Ramaz High School. Subscription for the entire series is $6.00; the cost for an individual lecture, supper included, is $2.00.

SERVING THE CAUSE OF RELIGIOUS JEWRY

The first panel to render "Jewry" Duty was inducted at the daily morning services last Monday. In spite of the inclement weather, those who volunteered to attend the daily minyon for a two week period were there. It was a delight to see a group of young, modern, American Jews who realized that an important religious

TWIXTEENERS HOLD SUCCESSFUL MEETING

Twenty-two young people between the ages of 15 and 17 met in the Auditorium of the Synagogue House last Sunday afternoon and organized themselves into a group to be known as The Twixteeners of Kehilath Jeshurun. It was an enthusiastic gathering of the young and eager sons and daughters of our members and their friends. Lawrence Cooper presided and reports were rendered by Lewis Siegel, Chairman, and Shirley Adler, Secretary of the Steering Committee. In the reports the program of the organization was outlined. The Twixteeners will sponsor cultural, recreational and social activities for the young people of their age of the congregation.

After the business session the group was addressed by Rabbi Lookstein who discussed "Gentleman's Agreement." During the question and answer period that followed the address it became manifest that the group consists of some real intellectuals, boys and girls who read, who think, and who formulate healthy and intelligent opinions.

MEN'S CLUB NEWS

As guest lecturer at its next Forum Meeting, to be held on Tuesday, March 16th, the Men's Club has invited Capt. Harry N. Sperber, Chief German interpreter at the Nuremberg Trials, who has just returned from Europe. Capt. Sperber will speak on "Peace—Can the U. N. Hold It?", a topic of importance and timeliness, which he is well-qualified to discuss for us.

A native of Germany, Capt. Sperber was a journalist and broadcaster who soon found himself on the Gestapo blacklist. His knowledge of Europe as well as his linguistic abilities, prompted his appointment into the Military Intelligence Branch of the U. S. Army, and, posing as a German, he roamed the beer halls, railroad stations and other gathering places of Germany, and listened to plans and hopes for the future never before revealed to America.

As Chief German Interpreter at the Nuremberg Trials, he came into close contact with such war leaders as Goering, Von Ribbentrop, Von Papen, and others who were subsequently released, and who are currently active in sabotaging U. N. efforts at world peace. His experiences abroad in many of the European countries, renders him qualified to discuss, from an expert's viewpoint, the world situation today.

The Men's Club Forum Meeting platform has been graced with many outstanding speakers this year. We dare say that Captain Sperber will take his place among the most outstanding of this season or any other.

We invite you and your friends—including the ladies—to be present March 16th. An enjoyable and informative evening is in store for you. The meeting will begin promptly at 8:30 p.m.

SABBATH SERMON

Rabbi. We advise our congregants not to miss this sermon.

We also bring to the attention of our worshipers that this Sabbath is the Sabbath of Shekolim, the first in a series of Sabbaths preceding the Festival of Liberation—Passover. On this Sabbath, too, Rosh Chodesh prayers are recited. Let us all be in the synagogue this Saturday.
