

REMEMBER THEM IN THE BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

Several weeks ago, the Bulletin carried an article announcing the forthcoming publication of the Book of Remembrance. In that article, the purpose of the Book of Remembrance was set forth, as being consistent with the Yizkor prayer in which a pronouncement of a pledge for charity is made. This, then, affords our worshipers an opportunity of fulfilling this pledge, by submitting names for the Book of Remembrance which is published before Shevuoth and placed in the hands of our worshipers during the four times of the year when Yizkor is recited.

NEW ASSOCIATE TRUSTEES APPOINTED

The appointment of Associate Trustees for the coming year was announced this week by Mr. Max J. Etra, president of the Congregation. In addition to the appointment of three new members, seven members who were on the Associate Board last year were re-appointed.

We congratulate the three new appointees, Messrs. Jerry Coan, Alexander Gross and Jacob Poust, and wish them good luck. We are confident that their addition will prove a valuable asset to the Board, and that their active participation in the conduct of the affairs of the Congregation will be found advantageous in every respect.

We extend similar felicitations to those Associate Trustees, listed below, who were re-appointed for the coming year, with the assurance that their continued presence on the Board will help immeasurably in the future welfare of the Synagogue. They are: Messrs. Ernest Adler, A. Milton Brown, Hyman I. Bucher, Harry Etra, Benjamin Jacoby, Harry Metzger and Isidore Schlang.

Our past experience has shown that a number of our members and friends have felt hurt and disappointed because the name of a dear departed one did not appear. Particularly is this so when the Books are distributed during Yizkor and the Memorial Prayer is recited, and a special prayer is said for those whose names are recorded.

The names which appear are submitted to the office. No name is recorded on the strength of a previous listing. Only when we are authorized to include the name of your dear departed one do we do so. It is therefore important that we have your authorization; otherwise we cannot include any names in this Book of Remembrance.

The Book is now being readied for press. Since it appears before the Shevuoth festival, which will be on June 3rd and 4th this year, we must have all names by Wednesday, May 25th. For your convenience, a special form appears on page 4.

Fill out this form and mail it before you put this Bulletin down. Do it NOW!

RAMAZ NOTES

Students of the Upper School participated in interesting and exciting Good Speech Contests held last week. The winners of the High School Hebrew Declamation Contest were: Shirley Adler and Ida Westerman. The High School English Declamation Contest was won by Susan Goodside and Evelyn Seelenfreund. The judges were Rabbi Lookstein, Dr. Abraham Katsh of New York University, and Dr. Theodore Goodman of Brooklyn College.

In the Junior High School Good Speech Contest, Vita Rosenbloom and Daniel Weiler were the winners. Mr. Goodside, and Mmes. Saul Schwartz and Benjamin Cohen, officers of the Parents Council, were the judges.

Five hundred students, teachers and parents spent a lovely day at Alley Pond Park in Long Island last Tuesday at the Annual Lag b'Omer outing. In this connection a contest is being sponsored by the school for the best photographs of that day. Any pupil may submit as many photographs as he sees fit, even if the picture was taken by his parent. All photos must be in the hands of Mr. Goodside by Tuesday, May 31st. Valuable prizes will be awarded for the winning shots soon thereafter.

WITHIN OUR FAMILY

Births —

Hearty Mazel Tov wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Baumgarten on the birth of a baby boy.

We extend similar wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Benedict Lubell, who also became the parents of a son this week. To the proud grandfather, our esteemed member, J. J. Lubell, our congratulations.

Birthdays —

Many Happy Returns of the Day to Naomi Jacobs and Abris Silberman, who celebrate their birthdays this week.

Bar Mitzvah —

Felicitations to the family of Seymour Waldman, a pupil at Ramaz, on his Bar Mitzvah this Saturday.

Anniversary —

Best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bachrach on their wedding anniversary this week.

The next meeting of the Parents Council will take the form of a supper meeting on Sunday evening, May 22nd, in the Social Hall. The program includes a symposium on "What Ramaz Has Meant to Me," with a number of Ramaz alumni participating.

JUDGE ROTHENBERG SPEAKS AT MEN'S CLUB DINNER

George Jacobs Named Father of the Year

For the ninth consecutive year, members of the Men's Club gathered this past Tuesday evening to participate in the Annual Dinner of the group. A large number of guests was on hand to enjoy one of the finest dinners ever to be held.

As guest speaker, the Men's Club had Judge Morris Rothenberg, President of the Jewish National Fund, who spoke on "The Implications of the Jewish State." Judge Rothenberg's talk was not a formal address, but, as he put it, an expression of his feelings on the establishment of Israel and its effects on the nations of the world. Pointing out that a true appraisal of this momentous event cannot yet be given, the Judge presented certain changes which, he felt, would of necessity come about now that Israel is one of the recognized nations. In the first place, he said, the Jew will no longer be obliged to journey from country to country, hat in hand, begging for admittance. He now has a land which will welcome him and give him an opportunity to live without fear of again having to migrate.

Secondly, Judge Rothenberg continued, the psychological effect of Israel's nationhood will manifest itself with every new day. It has, in fact, already been seen, where Israeli statesmen are welcomed among the representatives of the other nations at sessions of the UN. For the first time, the Jew will be viewed as a member of an identifiable people, an entity in itself.

Judge Rothenberg's remarks were most warmly received, containing as they did not only an interesting expression of an intelligent viewpoint, but also humorous anecdotes from the personal experiences of one who has been actively connected with Jewish life for so many years.

Prior to the talk of Judge Rothenberg, Mr. Ira F. Weisman, president of the Men's Club, presented several checks, constituting the major benevolences of the group, to the Congregation Building Fund, the scholarship funds of Ramaz and the Religious School, and the Camp Fund which sends deserving children to camp during the summer months.

An interesting feature of the evening was the drawing of a charcoal sketch by the noted artist, David Immerman, as a door prize. The winning ticket was held by Dr. Frank Goodman, who made an excellent subject for the deft strokes of the artist's chalk. Mr. Immerman again had several oil paintings on exhibition around the Social Hall.

Mr. Weisman announced the designation of Mr. George Jacobs as the Father of the Year. An appropriately inscribed certificate will be awarded Mr. Jacobs at Father's Day Sabbath, June 18th, in a brief ceremony in our Synagogue. We feel that this is an honor Mr. Jacobs richly deserves in light of his devotion to our institution and the tireless efforts he expended in its behalf during the past few years.

The evening was brought to a close with the humorous antics of Irving Kaufman, well known radio artist, who entertained with original songs as well as with nostalgic melodies which he introduced years back.

CHIEF RABBI HERZOG ATTENDS K. J. SYNAGOGUE SERVICE

It was a thrilling moment—indeed a rare privilege—when, at services last Sabbath morning, Chief Rabbi Isaac Halevi Herzog entered the Synagogue to worship with us. The Chief Rabbi, who is in the States for a brief visit, walked a considerable distance in order to attend our services.

Kehilath Jeshurun is justifiably proud at having had this honor conferred upon it. We hope that our Synagogue will again be the scene of distinctions and honors, and the site for outstanding dignitaries and esteemed officials to visit.
