

1950 YEAR BOOK CAMPAIGN LAUNCHED

Ramaz and Religious School to Benefit

The campaign for the 1950 Year Book was officially launched this week, when the Board of Trustees of the Congregation, the Board of Ramaz and the Religious School Board met, at independent sessions, to map plans for the successful outcome of the drive. The cooperation of the two school boards in what was heretofore regarded a strictly congregational project, is in keeping with the decision reached last June, whereby the entire proceeds of the Year Book would be turned over to the Scholarship Funds of the schools, thereby enabling an increasing number of deserving children to benefit from the educational advantages our schools have to offer.

THE RABBI'S SERMON THIS SATURDAY

Last week there was a notice that the Rev. Leonard Feeney, a Jesuit, was expelled from the Order by his archbishop. The reason given for the action was "disobedience." Actually, the dismissal was caused by Father Feeney's views. He maintains that non-Catholics cannot enter heaven.

The incident has caused a good deal of discussion in theological circles. The question of salvation and the merits of the various religious faiths is basic to religion, even as the problem of relativism is fundamental to all philosophies. Rabbi Lookstein, therefore, has chosen for his subject this Saturday morning, "Judaism, Protestantism and Catholicism — Which has the Key to Salvation?"

Need we tell our worshipers that they may expect a learned, fearless and most interesting sermon. Our advice — do not miss being in the synagogue this Saturday.

The Year Book has always enjoyed a unique position in our Congregation. In all modesty, we feel we can be proud of the volumes we have published in the past, for the highest commendations have been received from countless religious, literary and communal sources. So impressed were our members with the recent Year Books, that more and more of our membership have made this their pet project. That the proceeds will now go exclusively to the important function of educating our children, should act to increase the number of workers for this cause.

As in the past, the Synagogue office is prepared to offer every facility to the ad-getter. Sample letters to prospective advertisers have been made available. Even the burden of sending out letters to your friends, explaining the purpose of the Year

Executive Board to Meet Monday —

The Executive Board of the Sisterhood will hold its next meeting this Monday afternoon, November 7th, at 12:30 in the Library. A large attendance is expected so that the matters on the agenda will have the benefit of complete and thorough discussion.

All Set for County Fair —

Everything's ready, and we're rarin' to go.

Final arrangements for a most novel enjoyable evening have been completed, and a swell time is assured at the County Fair that is being sponsored by the Sisterhood on Sunday evening, November 13th.

Mrs. Samuel A. Marcus, Chairman of the affair, and Mrs. Nathan B. Kogan, Co-chairman, have announced that everything, to the last detail, has been arranged to make the Fair an unusual gathering with fun and hilarity the keynote of the evening.

You'll be surprised when you enter the Social Hall next Sunday and see how it has been completely re-decorated in line with the spirit of a real County Fair. We predict that EVERYTHING short of live-stock will simulate a real hill-billy get-together.

And we know you'll be there with us. You won't be able to resist the charm and magnetic attraction that Attractive folders have been printed for distribution. In addition to the actual advertisement form, they contain a brief outline of what our aim is and how contributions will be used. Won't you join in this activity? A call to the Synagogue office will suffice to start you on your individual campaign to get ads or greetings. And you would be amazed at the ease with which this can be accomplished.

Please let us hear from you. The mitzvah of furthering Jewish education deserves your attention.

MEN'S CLUB NEWS

New Members —

We greet Meyer W. Blumberg, William Klinger, Dr. Morris R. Lemler and George Milowitz, who joined our group last week.

Executive Board Meets Wednesday —

The next regular meeting of the Men's Club Executive Board will take place this Wednesday evening, November 9th, at 8:30 in the Library. Members are urged to attend, as final details for the Tenth Anniversary Dinner will be discussed, in addition to other matters that have arisen since the last Board meeting.

Last Week for Dinner Reservations —

The Tenth Anniversary Dinner, in honor of Ira F. Weisman, is just about ten days off. The response thus far has been most gratifying, but we are at a loss to understand why we have not heard from a number of our old "standbys." The nature of the affair is such, that we have received numerous reservations from Congregation members (who are not members of the Men's Club), who feel obligated to join in this tribute to Mr. Weisman. Certainly, his decade of selfless and devoted service is deserving of such recognition.

We are entering the final week. If you haven't yet placed your reser-

YOUNG PEOPLE'S MINYAN OFF TO A GOOD START

In spite of the nasty weather last Sunday morning, the Young People's Minyan got off to a good start, with some forty boys and girls present to participate in the service.

Morris Amitay and Lothar Frank officiated as cantors in a smoothly-run, decorous service which provided spiritual satisfaction as well as educational benefits. Naturally, the breakfast which followed added to the enjoyment of the youngsters.

This Sunday morning at 9:30, the Minyan will again conduct its own service. Morton Charkey, Franklin Holzer, Harvey Leifert and Seymour Sadinoff will be the cantors, and Abraham Gubbay will deliver a short sermon on "The Internationalization of Jerusalem."

Young people, this is your activity. Come down, participate in it, enjoy the breakfast that follows, and reap the benefits that such a service has to offer.

vation, won't you do so now? A good time is assured — with Sam Levenson entertaining, how can it be otherwise? — and you'll thank us for urging you. A call to the Synagogue office is all that's required, plus, of course, your presence November 15th.

WITHIN OUR FAMILY

Birthdays —

Many Happy Returns of the Day to Mrs. Julius Charnow, Mrs. Maurice Finkelstein, Mrs. David Kahn and our Vice-President, Saul J. Lance.

Bar Mitzvah —

Good luck to David Suer, a pupil in our Religious School, on his Bar Mitzvah this Saturday.

Anniversary —

Greetings to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hyman, who celebrate their wedding anniversary this week.

From our Collegiates —

Lewis Siegel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott W. Siegel, has entered the field of Jewish education. As a student at Franklin and Marshall College he found an opportunity to teach Hebrew in the Sunday School at Lancaster. We hear that he is meeting with success in his pedagogic activities and, naturally, we are very happy to learn about it.

Another interesting item: collegiates Arthur Rosen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rosen, and the aforementioned Lewis Siegel, both students at Franklin and Marshall, were able to arrange for kosher meals in the fraternity house where they dine. We understand that the two made their own visit to the town kosher butcher and checked on the kashruth. We applaud their initiative and their devotion to traditional Judaism.

From time to time we would love to print in the Bulletin news of our collegiate family. Won't parents write to us. The exploits and achievements of our young people in their academic environments will be of interest to us all.

CONDOLENCE

We learn with regret of the passing of the beloved mother of Leon Klein, a member in the Men's Club, and express to him our heartfelt sympathies.
