CHANUKAH PARTY SET FOR DECEMBER 18

Another Good Time in the Offing

Another good time is being planned for the Annual Chanukah Party which will take place this year on Sunday evening, December 18th. Permit us to qualify that word "another." It is not intended as the common colloquialism, "just another one of those things;" rather, it is used in the sense of an addition to a long line of memorable affairs that have taken place at our Synagogue during the past few years.

Last Chanukah, last Purim and the Chanukahs and Purims before them, were celebrated in the traditional manner to which was added that certain ingredient which makes for the success of such parties. And, our guests will recall, everybody without exception had a really enjoyable time. The food, entertainment, and spirit left little — virtually nothing — to be desired.

This year's affair will have a precedent to live up to. And, while formal committee deliberations have not as yet taken place, advance talk of the nature of the Chanukah Party promises something a little bit different, yet every bit as entertaining and enjoyable — if not more so.

The price per cover, set by common agreement after last year's party, will be $5.00 — just about half the expense of a similar evening spent elsewhere. Your money's worth is a foregone conclusion, but since the Party is not run as a money-making, fund-raising venture, we are happy to be able to provide an evening of fun and enjoyable getting-together at this nominal cost.

FIRST MEMORIZATION CONTEST AT YOUNG PEOPLE'S MINYAN

This Sunday morning, at the Young People's Minyan, the first Memorization Contest will take place. Those who will recite by heart certain prayers assigned, will be given prizes of trips to the Radio City Music Hall and to local theatres.

At last Sunday's service, Morris Amitay, Fred Ehrman, Joseph Hausman and Seymour Sadinoff officiated as cantors. Harvey Leifert delivered a sermonette on the Mizrahi Organization, outlining the aims of this religious bloc of the Zionist movement.

This coming Sunday morning at 9:30, the Young People's Minyan will continue its weekly service, with the aforementioned young men serving as cantors. Frances Holzer will speak briefly on Jewish Book Month.

All young people are invited to participate in this, their own service, which takes place in the Chapel every Sunday morning at 9:30. Breakfast follows in the Social Hall.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Executive Board Meets Monday —

This Monday, November 28th, the Sisterhood Executive Board will hold a regular meeting in the Library. The meeting will start at 12:30, and all members are urged to be present.

Noted Psychiatrist to Speak at Open Meeting —

As its guest speaker for the next Open Meeting, which will take place in the Social Hall on Monday, December 5th, the Sisterhood has invited Dr. Joseph H. A. Miller, who will speak on "Psychiatric Needs of the Community."

Dr. Miller, the Medical Director of Hillside Hospital, is a well-known and widely-recognized psychiatrist. He is among the few who have attained world renown for their keen insight and profound knowledge of the subject, and he is, in addition, a gifted public speaker.

Our members have long awaited an opportunity to hear an interesting discussion of a vital current problem. The role which psychiatry plays in our life today, is such a problem; and the speaker who will address us is one of the most outstanding and qualified psychiatrists.

MEN'S CLUB NEWS

A Message from Mr. Weisman —

To the Members of the Men's Club:

Because of the physical impossibility of writing to each of you personally, I would like to take this means of addressing these words to you through the columns of the Bulletin.

You saw fit to especially honor me on the occasion of the Tenth Anniversary Dinner of our Men's Club. It is an evening I will never forget.

I shall be forever grateful and indebted to all of you. Your reward far exceeds any performance of mine during these past ten years.

With all good wishes, I am

Fraternally yours,

Ira F. Weisman

Prizes to be Awarded in Honor of Ira Weisman —

At the Men's Club Dinner tendered last week in honor of Ira F. Weisman, announcement was made that at the coming graduation exercises of the Ramaz and Religious Schools, prizes would be awarded by the Men's Club, to be known as the Ira F. Weisman Awards. These awards will be made to graduates who excel in one or another of the subjects, the exact nature of which will be decided at some future date.

New Members —

The following applications were received within the past two weeks, and we welcome these new members into our Club: Fred Altman, Myer B. Appleman, Bertram G. Coplon, A. Philip Goldsmith, Solomon E. Green, Isaac E. Okun and Harry Resnick.

Welfare Fund —

Periodically a notice will appear in this column in the Bulletin concerning a contribution to the Men's Club Welfare Fund. The proceeds of this Fund are utilized for the many philanthropic activities of the Club, such as scholarships to Ramaz and to the Religious School; relief to worthy individuals and organizations; providing a few weeks' stay at summer camp for deserving children, and so on. In short, the Welfare Fund is the charitable arm of the Men's Club.

In acknowledging the generous contributions of Max J. Etra, Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein and Samuel Sacks to the Fund, we would like to call attention to this little-heralded but greatly-needed activity. And, of course, our thanks to the aforementioned members for their kind gifts.

A NURSING HOME FOR OBSERVANT JEWS

Every once in a while we are consulted by people regarding a Nursing Home, especially for elderly folks. We are, therefore, pleased to announce that such a home exists and it is called the Montrose Nursing Home. It is situated near Croton and is just one hour from Grand Central Station. Of course, these are physicians in charge and provisions exist for every possible condition that may arise.

The Home is operated by Mrs. C. Trautman, a very active and loyal member of our Sisterhood. Dr. Edgar C. Trautman is consultant in neurology and psychiatry for the Home. Those who are interested may obtain further information by contacting Mrs. Trautman directly.
