

ARRANGEMENTS UNDER WAY FOR CONGREGATIONAL SEDER

Mr. Max J. Etra, President of the Congregation, has announced that arrangements are now being made for conducting a Congregational Seder for both nights of the Passover holiday. In order to maintain the high standards of Kehilath Jeshurun functions — particularly one that requires such exacting detail work — discussion on the matter is already well advanced, although the Passover holiday does not begin until April 1st.

THEATRE PARTY COMMITTEE NOW TAKING RESERVATIONS

Reservations for the Theatre Party to "Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep", are now being accepted by the joint Sisterhood and Men's Club Committee, it was announced by the co-chairmen, Martin Klein and Mrs. Harry W. Baumgarten. The members of the synagogue office staff are prepared to receive reservations for our Party, to be held Thursday evening, March 9th.

The entire Orchestra Section of the Broadhurst Theatre, 44th Street, West of Broadway, has been set aside for our use that evening. Tickets, priced at from $15.00 to $8.00 each, will be distributed on a "first-come, first-served" basis so that those who respond promptly will be rewarded with the choicest locations.

The play, which will open on Broadway just one week before our Party, is sure to be a hit this season. The dramatization of Ludwig Bemelman's novel of the same name, it is eagerly awaited by the critics and theatre-going public alike, who have always been most receptive to works by this author. Add to that the star-studded cast headed by Frederic March and Florence Eldridge, and we can't miss.

The plan to conduct the Sedorim came as a result of many demands received over the course of the past several years. Last year, readers of the Bulletin will recall, a Congregational Seder was scheduled, but because the response was too long delayed, plans had to be abandoned.

This year, in order to determine whether the synagogue will continue making the required arrangements, a survey is being conducted, in which members of the congregation and its affiliates are requested to indicate their interest in attending our Seder on the first night of Passover, the second, or both. Questionnaire cards have already been mailed from the office. We must have the cards back by February 15th, in order to allow sufficient time for the extensive preparations required.

The plans for the time being are as follows: The Sedorim will be held in the Social Hall Saturday and Sunday nights, April 1st and 2nd. They will be conducted by the Rabbi, the Cantor and the Ritual Director, and catered by Dornstein, our official caterers. Our intention is to have a limited attendance in order to preserve the family character of the occasion.

If we are to go ahead with the project, we must have your cooperation. If you are interested, please let us know by February 15th.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

The Luncheon and Card Party which was held last Monday for the benefit of the Scholarship Fund, attracted one of the largest turn-outs ever to attend a Sisterhood function in our own Social Hall. Featuring instruction in Canasta by Mrs. Bertram Chuck, the Card Party brought together members of the group and their friends for an afternoon of relaxation and enjoyment that had many of the ladies talking about "the next one".

Thanks are due to chairman of the affair, Mrs. Hyman Abrams, who was ably assisted by a number of members, particularly Mrs. Seppy I. Silberman and Mrs. Edgar Trautman, chairman of the Hospitality Committee. To all who pitched in and helped, our thanks for a job well done.

Next Open Meeting Speaker —

The next Open Meeting, to be held Monday, February 20th, will have as its guest speaker Mrs. Juliette T. Aschner, noted book-reviewer and analyst, who will be with us for the third time in recent years. The manner in which our members received Mrs. Aschner's reviews of such works as "Deep Are the Roots", "My Glorius Brothers", and others, warrants "repeat performance". At this coming meeting, Mrs. Aschner will analyze Harry A. Overstreet's "The Mature Mind" and several of the Many thanks to Alex Garfein and Dave S. Jaret for their contributions to the Men's Club Welfare Fund.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL CELEBRATES CHAMISHA ASAR B'SHEVAT

The children of the Religious School celebrated Chamisha Asar b'Shevav with an assembly program held in the Auditorium last Sunday morning.

Judith Wallach, Elizabeth Sussman and Ronald Klein recited appropriate poems; the entire school joined in the singing of Israel songs; and Mr. Myer B. Appleman, Principal of the School, spoke briefly on the significance of the day and emphasized the importance of planting trees in Israel. Mr. Ira F. Weisman, President of the Men's Club, also spoke to children on the vital role they can play in the upbuilding of the Jewish people and the Jewish State.

After the program, the traditional Tu b'Shevav refreshments were distributed by the Parents' Club. Special thanks are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Leifert and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Jaret for their kindness in arranging and distributing the goodies.
