

STUDENTS AGAIN TO READ MEGILLAH AT PURIM SERVICES

The festive holiday of Purim will again be ushered in this year, with students of Ramaz School and the afternoon Religious School reading the Megillah at the evening service, Thursday, March 2nd. The Maariv services with Cantor Hyman Gertler officiating, will start at 5:45 p.m., and the Reading of the Megillah, to the accompaniment of the traditional percussion instruments in the hands of our children, will follow.

THEATRE PARTY TICKETS STILL AVAILABLE

Choice locations for the March 9th showing of "Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep", to which our Men's Club and Sisterhood are sponsoring a Theatre Party, are still available, it was announced by the Co-chairmen of the joint committee, Mrs. Harry W. Baumgarten and Mr. Martin Klein. While a large number of seats in the Orchestra, which we have reserved for our Party, has already been sold, there still remain many choice locations, which may be had by calling the Synagogue office at SAcramento 2-0800.

The show, a comedy based on Ludwig Bemelmans' book of the same name, stars Fredric March and Florence Eldridge. Out-of-town reports — from Philadelphia and Boston — are highly favorable, and another hit is expected on Broadway when "Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep" opens next week. From the reviews of the critics, there is praise for every facet of the play, from the direction, through the actors' performances, down to the sound effects. It simply can't miss.

The practice of having our own young men read the Purim Scroll was instituted about three years ago and met with instantaneous enthusiastic acclaim. So enthused were our worshippers, in fact, that they burst into applause when the Megillah was completed, special dispensation having been given by Rabbi Lookstein.

This year, an equally well-received rendition is expected from the young men who will participate. They are: Morris Amitay, Philip Berger, Walter Berkowitz, Walter Censor, Lothar Frank, Yakov Goldin, Sylvan Kleinhans, Seymour Sadinoff, Morton Schatzman and Martin Slove.

Purim is one of those holidays which appeal to the young children as well as to the adults. We welcome all to attend our service next Thursday, March 2nd in the Synagogue, and join in celebrating our victory over those who would have wiped our people off the face of the earth. Special arrangements have been made for the children who will be with us. They are asked to assemble in rooms 301 and 302 of the Synagogue House at 5:15 p.m., where they will receive the traditional noise-makers and be escorted into the Synagogue to join the service. In order to maintain the proper dignity which is attendant upon all Kehilath Jeshurun services, we ask our parents to bring their children on time to the designated rooms so that their entrance into the Synagogue will be effected with quiet and order. A special section will be reserved for them and ample supervision will be provided.

Proceeds to be realized from this function will go to further the benevolent work of the Sisterhood and Men's Club. The Scholarship Fund, the Neediest Cases of the Sisterhood, the Men's Club Welfare Fund; gifts to such charities as U. J. A., Red Cross, Federation; sending deserving children off to camp for the summer months — these and the many other benefactions too numerous to mention will benefit from this Theatre Party. You will be doing yourself a favor and at the same time help many worthy causes by taking tickets to the show. Prices range from $8.00 to $15.00, and the contributions are, of course, deductible from income tax. Call the office TODAY!

RAMAZ LOWER SCHOOL PARENTS COUNCIL TO MEET

A regular meeting of the Parents Council of the Ramaz Lower School will take place this Tuesday evening, February 28th, at 8:00 o'clock in the Auditorium, it was announced by Mrs. Saul Schwartz, Council president. The feature of the meeting will be an address by Dr. Alvina Treut Burrows, of New York University, whose remarks will center about a sound film "Meeting the Emotional Needs of Children", which will be shown that evening.

One of the most competent people in the field of elementary education, Dr. Burrows is the co-author of "They All Want to Write", and a teacher of teachers. Her rich background and experience with pre-school children and children of elementary school age, renders her pre-eminently qualified in her field.

While the meeting is called for 8:00 o'clock, formal proceedings will not get under way until 8:45. The three-quarter-hour period before the gathering is called to order, will permit parents to meet with teachers for informal chats about their children's work. Mrs. Schwartz would like to emphasize the fact that the meeting will start promptly at 8:45, and urges parents to arrive on time.

We extend a Cordial Invitation to Attend

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL TO CELEBRATE PURIM AT ASSEMBLY

Purim will be celebrated by the children of the Religious School with a special assembly program to be held Sunday morning, March 5th, at 11:00 o'clock in the Auditorium. Mr. Myer B. Appleman, principal of the School, has announced that all of the clubs have organized a well-coordinated program, to include songs, dances, a stage presentation, puppets, and recitations, to commemorate this joyous festival.

Under the direction of Miss Viola Harris, the Dramatics Club will present "The Purim Pinocchio", with costumes and scenery prepared by the Art Club under the supervision of Miss Sara Rothberg. Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein will be with us to greet our guests and speak briefly on the holiday.

At the close of the program, the traditional Purim refreshments will be distributed to the children by the Parents' Club. In all, another well-rounded program, entertaining to both children and adults, has been prepared and we extend our cordial invitation to our readers to be with us and enjoy it.

This program, we might add, is in addition to the children's participation at Purim services Thursday evening, March 2nd, at the Reading of the Megillah.

WITHIN OUR FAMILY

Birthdays —

Many happy returns of the day to Maurice Finkelstein, William B. Fischberg and Dr. Frank Goodman.

Anniversaries —

Greetings to Mr. and Mrs. Salomon Farro and Dr. and Mrs. Max L. Som, on their wedding anniversaries this week.

Best wishes also to our Ritual Director, Joseph E. Adler and to Mrs. Adler on the occasion of their Silver Wedding Anniversary.

Speedy Recovery —

To our esteemed Associate Trustee, Jack Poust, go our sincerest hopes for a complete and speedy recovery from the leg injury he recently sustained.

With Thanks to our Generous Donors —

The Sisterhood Happy Day Fund acknowledges with thanks the kind contributions of Mrs. Samuel B. Cooperman, on the occasion of her 52nd wedding anniversary; and of Mrs. Frederick Margareten, on the birth of a new grand-daughter.

The Men's Club Welfare Fund expresses its appreciation to Messrs. A. Milton Brown, Alexander Gross, Ralph Hyman, Saul J. Lance, Samuel A. Marcus and Aaron H. Onish, on their generous contributions.
