

HARVARD, CORNELL, COLUMBIA ADMIT RAMAZ HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

Others accepted at Temple, Rutgers and New York University

Sixteen students form the 1950 graduating class of Ramaz High School. These students applied for admission to various colleges throughout the country and to the city colleges of New York. Most of those who were admitted to the city colleges were exempted from the entrance examinations usually required. They were admitted entirely on their academic high school record.

The following is the record of admission of those who applied to private colleges:

Jacob Bloom — Rutgers University,
Temple University

Warren Brown — Temple University,
New York University

Anita Bunim — Long Island
University

Sarah Keehn — New York
University

Lawrence Kobrin — Harvard College,
Cornell College, Columbia
College, New York University,
C. C. N. Y.

Judah Schechter — New York
University

Arnold Smith — Long Island
University, C. C. N. Y.

Arthur Stein — New York University,
Long Island University

Those who have been admitted to the city colleges are: Manfred

Rechtschaffen, Esther Brinsky, Rita Himmelstein, Zelda Kashtan, Varda Katz, Sarah Ordentlich, Evelyn Seelenfreund, and Raiselle Sorscher.

Ramaz has reason to feel proud of its college admission record. Realizing that this is only the second class to graduate from the high school and that the high school is only in existence five years, this record is an indication of the recognition that Ramaz has won as a superior educational institution, and of the scholastic attainments of its students.

To the young graduates we offer our congratulations and our heartiest wishes for success in the college careers that lie ahead of them.

PLEASE NOTE

Next week's issue will be the last Bulletin before congregational activities are suspended for the summer months. In that issue — coming as it will at graduation time — we will devote space to the announcement of graduations, receipt of scholarships and awards, and other related items, which will be of interest to our readers.

If your son or daughter is reaching an educational milestone this month, won't you drop us a line or call the office (SAcramento 2-0800) and tell us about it. We will be happy to make mention of it in next week's Bulletin.

SISTERHOOD ELECTS NEW SLATE AT CLOSING MEETING

A new slate of officers was elected at the Sisterhood Closing Meeting of the Season, which was held Wednesday afternoon in the Social Hall. The names presented by the Nominations Committee were unanimously elected by the members present, and the new officers were inducted into office before the meeting was adjourned. The new administration consists of: Mrs. Harry W. Baumgarten, president; Mrs. Hyman Abrams, vice-president; Mrs. Martin Klein, treasurer; and Mrs. Bernard D. Fischman, secretary.

The meeting was a most constructive and enjoyable one. A large attendance was present, first to partake of the delicious luncheon arranged for by Mrs. Edgar Trautman, Hospitality Chairman; then, to participate in the business part of the meeting. Among the items on the agenda were several interesting reports — all indicating noteworthy progress during the past year — rendered by respective committee chairmen. The first of these was the President's Annual Report, given by Mrs. Alexander Kommel. Mrs. Kommel stressed the success of the past year's undertakings which, as Sisterhood members know, did not include the Donor Luncheon which constitutes the major fund-raising function of the year. She added, however, that the numerous other affairs were all socially successful, and the sum total of these showed financial success as well. This, Mrs. Kommel noted, made possible substantial gifts to many many causes, like U. J. A., Federation, the Educational Scholarship Funds of Ramaz and the Religious School, the Camp Fund, and many others.

Other reports that were heard included a Financial Statement, by Mrs. Robert Wallach, treasurer; and reports of the various committees, rendered by their respective chairmen. These included the Neediest Cases, the Happy Day Fund, the Theatre Party and the Bazaar.

A feature of the meeting was the induction of new members, many of whom were present and introduced to the general membership. They were welcomed into the organization by Mrs. Kommel, who expressed the hope that they will enjoy a long and active association with us.

Speaking on behalf of the membership, Mrs. Baumgarten rose to express a few words of appreciation to Mrs. Kommel and the out-going administration, and she presented Mrs. Kommel with a beautiful gift — a small token of esteem and gratitude. In a few well-chosen words, Mrs. Baumgarten voiced her hope that the new administration, under her leadership, will live up to the standards of successful activity set by Mrs. Kommel and those who preceded her.

The meeting was called to a close after Rabbi Lookstein was introduced to speak briefly on the afternoon's proceedings. The Rabbi complimented those who served this past year; congratulated those who were elected; and called upon all members to give their support and cooperation toward the continued growth of the organization.

Happy Day Fund —

Miss Minna Feinberg, chairman of the Happy Day Fund, acknowledges with thanks, the generous contributions of Mrs. David Joseph, Mrs. Henry A. Rafsky and Mrs. Lillie Rosenthal.

SISTERHOOD PRESENTS PIANO

A beautiful spinet piano was presented to the congregation this week by the Sisterhood. The piano, which has been placed in the Social Hall, is both beautiful to the eye and most pleasing to the ear. Several pianists who have run their fingers over the ivory keys have expressed their satisfaction with the dulcet tones that emanate from the instrument.

We extend our thanks to the Sisterhood for making our lovely Social Hall still lovelier.

AUGUSTA SARETZKY SPEAKS AT PARENTS' CLUB CLOSING MEETING

The closing meeting of the Parent's Club, which was held last Thursday evening, had as its guest speaker, Mrs. Augusta Saretsky, consultant of Parent Education at the Jewish Education Committee. Mrs. Saretsky reviewed the current best-seller, "The Wall" by John Hersey.

The meeting, which was very well attended, heard reports by Mrs. Benjamin L. Leifert, president; Mrs. David Gordon, treasurer; Mrs. Joseph J. Einhorn, chairman of the Program Committee; and a review of the Boy Scout program, given by our Scoutmaster, Martin Klein, vice-president of the Parents' Club. Mrs. Leifert, Mrs. Gordon and Mr. Klein were re-elected to their respective offices for the coming year, as was Mrs. Morris Jaret, who was elected Secretary.

A beautiful gift was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Morris Jaret who contributed the Kiddush to the Junior Congregation every Sabbath morning after services. The gift was a token of appreciation, too, for the many services which Mr. and Mrs. Jaret rendered during the past two years.

A successful year of activity was thus brought to a close. We have every reason to feel that, enjoying the leadership and cooperation which it had last year, the Parents' Club will continue to function as an important affiliate of our congregational family.

NAT HOLMAN ADDRESSES RAMAZ HIGH SCHOOL

Nat Holman, whose brilliant career as basketball coach reached a new high in the unprecedented "grand-slam" victory of his City College quintet earlier this year, was the guest speaker at the Awards assembly of Ramaz High School on Thursday, May 25th. The students thrilled to Mr. Holman's delightful and inspiring words as he recalled, in a charming manner, some of his experiences, including his recent visit to Israel. Mr. Holman also congratulated the Ramaz basketball team as they received their "letters", and shook hands with every player.

Extra-curricular activities played the prominent role at this assembly. First, there was a discussion on the subject of world government, prepared by members of the Brandeis Social Problems club under the guidance of their faculty adviser, Mr. Irving J. Levine. Then, with Mr. Paul Nodell, faculty adviser to the G.O. presiding, a variety of awards were presented to many students for achievement and distinction in athletics, cheer leading, Hebrew and English poetry declamation, and a city-wide French contest.

All in all the occasion marked a memorable event in the history of the activities of the Ramaz High School students.

RAMAZ NOTES

. . . . All graduates of Ramaz are looking forward to Sunday, June 4th, the date of the annual luncheon of the Ramaz Alumni Society. The luncheon will be held in the Auditorium at 2:00 o'clock, and a splendid program has been arranged for that afternoon. Old friends will have the opportunity to renew acquaintances amidst reminiscences, songs and a festive spirit of comradeship.

. . . . Congratulations are in order to all participants in the Good Speech Contest conducted last week among students of the Ramaz Upper School. Special plaudits go to the winners in a hard-fought contest: Evelyn Mond of grade 8, first prize winner; and Joshua Berman of grade 7, second prize winner. Our sincere thanks are extended to the judges, Mrs. Herman Bodner and Mrs. Abraham R. Winer, for a difficult task well done. We likewise offer thanks to Mr. Ira Sherman, a member of the faculty, for his leadership in conducting the contest. This was truly one of the finest contests ever held at Ramaz, and the excellent quality of the recitations was due to his skill and guidance.
