Come with your family and join us in ushering in our Holiday season.

GREETINGS

With this issue, we resume publication of our weekly Bulletin, in which we hope to bring to our members and friends congregational news and announcements.

You can help make the Bulletin even more attractive to our readers by furnishing us with bits of information that you feel will be of interest. Your comments on the Bulletin, in general, will be greatly appreciated.

We hope you have enjoyed a pleasant and restful summer, and we look forward to having you participate in our activities during the coming year.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES SETS MEETINGS FOR YEAR

The Board of Trustees has set its schedule of regular meetings for the coming year and we are publishing in advance the dates of these meetings for the benefit of our Trustees and Associate Board. The dates are: September 7th, November 2nd, January 4th, March 1st and May 3rd — all, of course, Thursday evenings.

The first meeting of the Board will take place this Thursday evening, September 7th, at 8:30 o'clock, in the Library. This is the first meeting of the season and several urgent matters are on the agenda. We expect all members of the Board to be present and to join in the discussion of these matters as well as of the plans for the coming High Holiday season.

WITHIN OUR FAMILY

New Members —

We welcome into membership Mr. and Mrs. Abram Miller, Mr. David Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shapiro, and wish them many years of happy association with us.

Birthdays —

Many happy returns of the day are extended to Mrs. Maximillian W. Goldstein, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Gross, Mrs. Sigmund Klein, Aaron H. Onish, and Mrs. Louis J. Singer.

Anniversaries —

Best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Abraham I. Holzer, Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Scheidt and Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Schimmel on their wedding anniversaries.

Speedy Recovery —

We learn with regret of the illness of Simon Vogel, and we extend our prayers for a speedy and complete recovery.

And Since the Last Bulletin . . .

. . . Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wick announced the birth of a daughter, and Dr. and Mrs. Sigmund Klein became the grandparents of a baby girl.

. . . Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rosen announced the engagement of their daughter, Helen Norma, to Dr. Jacob L. Yellin.

. . . Aleine Austin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Austin, became Mrs. Abraham Mufson; the children of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Gottesman were married: Alice to Stephen Bayer, and Sanford to Ruth Levy; Dr. Ned Wachtel, a member of our Men's Club was married to the former Edith Kohler; and Anne E. Rafsky, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Henry A. Rafsky became Mrs. Harry Grossman.

. . . Our esteemed Trustee, the Hon. Samuel Levy, was appointed Honorary Commissioner of Borough

AUXILIARY HOLIDAY SERVICES AGAIN TO BE CONDUCTED

In addition to the High Holiday services in the synagogue, we will again conduct an Auxiliary Service in the comfortable Auditorium of the Synagogue House. This will continue a practice initiated last year at the request of many residents of our community to make available to all the Jewish worshippers of Yorkville a Kehilath Jeshurun service.

A young, capable Rabbi will be in charge, to assure a dignified and decorous service that will meet the high standards we have established through the years. Well-qualified cantors will officiate, and the melodies customarily sung by the congregation during the service in the main synagogue, will be chanted at these auxiliary services as well.

Reservations for either the auxiliary service or for a few choice locations in the main synagogue, may be made by contacting the office which is open daily from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. For your convenience the office will also remain open next Sunday, September 10th, from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Tickets for the auxiliary service are uniformly priced at $10.00 for men and ladies.

Be with us for the holidays. You will derive a spiritual satisfaction that you have never before experienced, one you will long remember.

Works by Manhattan Borough President, Robert F. Wagner, Jr.

To all, we extend our sincerest congratulations.

Condolences —

To the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. Morris Golde, who were affiliated with our congregation for close to four decades.

To Dr. Frank Goodman, on the loss of a brother.

To Raymond A. Ochacher, on the passing of his brother.

To Dr. Henry A. Rafsky, on the loss of a brother.

To Mrs. Elliott W. Siegel and Mrs. Samuel Fine on the passing of their brother.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL SESSIONS RESUME SEPTEMBER 14th

Regular Sessions in the Afternoon Religious School will be resumed for the coming year on Thursday, September 14th. On Sunday morning, September 10th, at 10:00 o'clock, a general assembly of all pupils will take place in the Auditorium, at which time class assignments will be distributed, and pertinent information relating to Rosh Hashanah will be given.

Registration of new children, as well as of those who were enrolled last year, has been in progress since the beginning of the week, and will continue through next week. Indications are that this year's enrollment will increase the school registration by a considerable amount.

The program of studies, it was announced by our principal, Mr. Myer B. Appleman, will include Prayers, Bible, Hebrew, Jewish History, Laws and Customs, Current Jewish Events, and activities in related fields, including holiday celebrations, music, dramatics, assembly programs, and the like.

In addition to the usual curriculum of Hebrew studies, a program of extra-curricular activities for boys and girls will again be in operation. The club program of last year will be intensified to include an activity of interest for every youngster who attends the Religious School.

The faculty is again comprised of qualified teachers, well versed not only in the field of Hebrew education, but also in modern methods of instruction. Some of them have been on our staff for several years; the new appointees, we know, will be equally popular with the children under their care.

Sessions are conducted twice weekly from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. and on Sundays from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. The school office is open for registration daily, and Mr. Appleman will be only too happy to discuss your particular problem with you. Any further information may be had by contacting Mr. Appleman.

MIDNIGHT SELICHOT SERVICES TO BE CONDUCTED THIS SATURDAY

The High Holiday season will be ushered in this Saturday night at 12:45 a.m., when the traditional Selichot Service will be held in the Synagogue.

In past years, the Selichot Service was an occasion for the older folk to assemble for special prayers. It was generally conducted in the wee hours of the morning when none but the most hearty could attend.

Several years ago, we decided to popularize the service to make it intelligible and attractive to the modern worshipper. It was our aim to embellish it with some of the features that would make it more meaningful and inspiring to the young, and to the older folks alike. As a result, the last few years have brought ever-increasing numbers to the midnight service. The ladies as well as the men congregants attended; oftentimes entire families came together.

We extend our warmest invitation to our worshippers to attend the Selichot service once again this year. The service lasts a little over an hour. As in the past, prayer books with English translations are available to all. Explanatory interpolations will make many of the prayers clear and understandable. Congregational melodies will form part of the Service.

Cantor Hymen Gertler will officiate and Rabbi Lookstein will, of course, conduct the entire service. Our Synagogue should therefore be filled with men and women, joined together to usher in the High Holiday season.

MAZEL TOV TO RABBI AND MRS. LOOKSTEIN

As we go to press we learn of the birth of a grandson to Rabbi and Mrs. Lookstein. We extend to them and to the proud parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Schacter, our heartiest Mazel Tov wishes. May the new arrival continue the glorious family tradition, and may they find in him a source of everlasting joy.

Our Mazel Tov also to the great-grandfather, Mr. Isadore Schlang and to all the members of the family.
