

RABBI LOOKSTEIN TO SPEAK ON CRISIS IN ISRAEL

The sudden fall of the Ben-Gurion government in Israel has shocked and puzzled the American Jew. In an attempt to clarify what has transpired, Rabbi Lookstein has chosen to speak this Saturday on the subject, "Crisis in Israel — Who is to Blame? What may be the Outcome?"

The dissolution of the present coalition government has already had startling financial and political consequences in the new state. Rabbi Lookstein is a life-long Zionist and a leader of the Mizrachi movement, which is a member of the so-called religious bloc accused of precipitating the crisis. He is, therefore, particularly well qualified to analyze the significance and to prognosticate the consequences of the emergency. As our worshippers already know, he possesses both the economic and political understanding necessary to the problem.

The reports in the newspapers have been most confused and, in some instances, even misleading. Rumors of all sorts are in circulation and the general climate of the situation is tense and tumultuous. We are very anxious to have a capacity congregation attend services this Saturday and listen to the Rabbi's sermon. We feel that his message will not only be of interest but of importance to all American Jews. We can assure you of a skillful presentation of the picture in Israel as it exists and as it will develop.

We cannot urge you too strongly to come and bring your friends. Services begin at 9:00 o'clock; the sermon will be delivered at 10:45.

NEW COURSES ADDED TO ADULT INSTITUTE

Sessions Begin Monday Evening

Since our last Bulletin announcement of the opening of adult sessions — to be known as the Kehilath Jeshurun Institute — several new courses have been added to the curriculum which, we are certain, will be of interest to our readers.

The first of these is the Talmud Class, which will meet Monday evenings at 8:00. The class will be conducted in English, and will have as its instructor Rabbi Sol Roth, a youthful but unusually qualified scholar, a former pupil of Rabbi Lookstein at Yeshiva University. Rabbi Roth, many of our friends will recall, was in charge of the Auxiliary Service during the past High Holidays, and left a most favorable impression with the worshippers there.

Another new course, which will be sponsored by the Sisterhood, is in the field of music and will be given by the talented Mrs. Hilda Holt. The course has as its aim the better understanding and enjoyment of music, and will be in the form of 12 lectures devoted to the recognition of symphonic themes; a survey of the opera; the instruments of the orchestra and how to recognize them; the different schools of music; definition of musical terms and forms — everything from the earliest beginnings of music to the modern atonal styles. Each lecture will be illustrated by recordings, piano selections or a guest artist. The class will meet Wednesday evenings at 8:30, and a fee of $15.00 will be charged.

SISTERHOOD NEWSExecutive Board to Meet Monday —

An important meeting of the Sisterhood Executive Board will be held this Monday afternoon, October 23rd, at 12:30 o'clock, in the Library of the synagogue. Board members are urged to attend.

New Appointments to Executive Board —

Mrs. Harry W. Baumgarten, president of the Sisterhood, has announced the addition of Miss Mildred Feinberg and Mrs. Benjamin D. Gold to the Executive Board. Miss Feinberg heads the monthly Theatre-Ticket project, and Mrs. Gold will be the chairman of the Happy Day Fund. Our congratulations to the new appointees, and our congratulations, too, to the organization on the acquisition of two such ardent and devoted workers.

Next Open Meeting to Take Place November 6 —

The next Open Meeting of the Sisterhood will be held Monday afternoon, November 6th, at 12:30, in the Social Hall. Another interesting and enjoyable afternoon, details of which will be announced shortly, is in store for our guests. Reserve the date and plan to be with us.

Tickets Available for "Legend of Sarah" —

A few tickets are still available for the hit comedy, "Legend of Sarah" for the evening of Thursday, October 26th. This is the first show of the latest Sisterhood project whereby tickets to a different show each month may be had at $1.00 above box-office price — the dollar going, of course, to charity.

To secure your tickets, conveniently, call Miss Mildred Feinberg, who heads the project, at REgent 4-8255. Call today!

Large Audience Hears James Waterman Wise —

The Men's Club series of Forum Meetings got off to a good start Tuesday evening, when a large audience was on hand to hear James Waterman Wise speak on "How Liberal Can A Jew Be?" It was a talk that was most worth-while listening to, for not only is Mr. Wise an orator of note, but he is also one of the most liberal minds we have today.

Mr. Wise dismissed as suicidal the all-too-common idea that Jews think and act in certain ways for no other reason than that they are Jews. "How liberal can a Jew be?" may be answered by "How liberal can a human being be?", and, continuing on his idea of liberality, he asserted that the major concern of any liberal is for the right of the human as an individual, rather than as a member of a particular group or race.

It is impossible to convey in these columns the thoughts that the speaker expressed, or the impression he left on his audience. It was an auspicious start to another season of forum meetings that will bring to our platform some outstanding speakers

Included in the program of the Institute are the Sunday evening Supper Lectures, sponsored by the Men's Club. The series will consist of four lectures, to be delivered by Rabbi Lookstein, on the theme "The Drama of God and Man: A Study of Four Major Books of the Bible". The books to be discussed are Job, Ecclesiastes, Jonah and the Psalms, and interpretive readings at two of the lectures will be given by an outstanding dramatic artist. The series will begin in the latter part of February and will run in bi-weekly succession.

Further information regarding fees, dates, hours, and the like, are contained in a brochure which is now in the mails. We urge you to attend as many of the courses as you possibly can. It will be our pleasure to have you, and we know that you will derive great satisfaction from what we have to offer.

discussing some stimulating and timely subjects.

We Suggest —

We suggest that you call the Synagogue Office NOW and reserve for the Eleventh Annual Dinner, to be held November 28th. You'll thank us for the advice.
