SISTERHOOD NEWSCivilian Defense*Topic of Next Meeting —

The next Open Meeting of the Sisterhood will have as its guest speaker a representative of the Office of the Coordinator of Recruiting and Public Information on Civil Defense. The meeting will be held Monday afternoon, January 8th, at 12:30 in the Social Hall.

The discussion will be both important in the informative sense, and timely. For, beginning January 3rd, a nation-wide civilian defense program will be put into effect. Coming as it does on the 8th, our meeting will be one of the first to be held under the program.

In connection with this talk, a film will be shown by way of illustration. We should therefore spend an afternoon that will be of interest to us all, educationally and patriotically.

Just a Few More Tickets for "Black Chiffon" —

Mrs. D. Harry Kleinfeld has informed us that no more than a handful of tickets are still available for the January 11th performance of the hit play "Black Chiffon".

Interested parties are asked to call Mrs. Kleinfeld at REgent 7-4674.

WITHIN OUR FAMILYNew Member —

We extend our warm welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Milton H. Mandel who joined as members of the Congregation this week, and we wish them many years of happy affiliation with us.

Birthdays —

Many happy returns of the day to Mrs. Saul J. Lance, Dr. Paul Lehman, Miss Irene Weiss and Mrs. Robert Zessman.

Anniversaries —

Best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. David L. Lippoff and to Dr. and Mrs. Max L. Som, who celebrate their wedding anniversaries this week.

RABBI CONCLUDESLECTURES ON BIBLE

Included as one of the star features of our Kehilath Jeshurun Institute this semester was Rabbi Lookstein's series of Bible Lectures which came to a close last Monday. Some 60 students attended each of the five lectures and if the response and enthusiasm they demonstrated is any criterion at all this can be considered a real educational "bull's-eye!" The students not only learned and were entertained; even more significant, they were inspired to re-learn and to return to their Bible. A fine Bibliography was distributed at the close of the series and we know that it will be well and conscientiously used.

The Rabbi's discussion of the literature of the Bible, the Miracles and Allegories, the historic period, the Commentaries and translations was stimulating and on a high scholarly level that did not belie the title of the series, "The Bible and the Adult Mind." Many doubts were resolved; many uncertainties were clarified. The vigor and energy of the series was demonstrated by the active question and answer period that followed each lecture. The only complaint that we heard was that the series was not long enough! Those that attended need no further description; to those that were not there we can only say that they missed a lively academic treat such as only our Rabbi can provide.

In the second series of our Adult Institute, beginning in February, the Rabbi will give his Sunday Supper Lectures on the subject, "The Drama of God and Man: A Study of Four Major Books of the Bible." In this series Job, Ecclesiastes, Jonah and the Psalms will be discussed. We know that all the Rabbi's former students will want to re-register for this course and we are sure that those of you who missed the Bible Lectures will not need to be urged to take advantage of the Sunday Supper Lectures.

MEN'S CLUB NEWSMaurice Samuel to Speak at Forum Meeting —

Our guests at the next Forum Meeting of the Men's Club, which will take place Tuesday evening, January 16th, will have the pleasure of listening to one of the most outstanding Jewish scholars of our day, Maurice Samuel.

Author, lecturer and exponent of Jewish values, Mr. Samuel is no newcomer to Kehilath Jeshurun. He has graced our platform in the past, and was invited to occupy the Rabbi's pulpit at a recent Thanksgiving Service. It is, in fact, due to the unusual demand for a "return engagement" that the Men's Club has asked Mr. Samuel to address us at the next meeting.

Further details will be announced in forthcoming issues of the Bulletin. Be on the look-out for his subject; it will be one of interest to you. In the meantime, set the date aside: Tuesday evening, January 16th, and plan to be with us.

FOR OUR YOUNGER READERS

The Young People's Minyan will continue its regular weekly service this Sunday morning, December 24th, at 9:30, in the Chapel. There will be no Minyan service next Sunday, December 31st.

Our Boy Scout Troop and Cub Pack will interrupt its regular schedule of Wednesday evening meetings, and will not meet this Wednesday, December 27th.

"S.R.O." AT PARENTS' CLUB SOCIAL EVENING

One of the largest turn-outs ever to attend an affair of this sort at K. J. was on hand last Sunday evening at the Game Night and Card Party sponsored by the Parents' Club. The Social Hall was filled to capacity, and last-minute arrangements had to be made in order to accommodate the host of at-the-door admissions in the comfort which their cooperation deserved.

To say everyone enjoyed himself, is putting it mildly. There was evident a spirit and warmth which was evoked by the knowledge that the enjoyment had a real purpose behind it. The very presence of so many people attested to the merit of the cause which was to benefit from the proceeds — the Religious School Scholarship Fund.

A hearty Thank You is in order to each and every one who came down last Sunday, and especially to that handful of people who contributed not only their presence, but their efforts and time — and gifts for the raffle — toward making the affair as pleasant and successful as it was. These included the chairman of the party, Mrs. J. William Rosenbluth, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Casner, Mr. and Mrs. M. Duell, Mr. and Mrs. A. Philip Goldsmith, Mr. and Mrs. David Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Jaret, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kahn, Mr. and Mrs. D. Harry Kleinfeld, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin L. Leifert and Mr. and Mrs. Elliott W. Siegel.
