

ELLIOTT SIEGEL AND LOUIS YOHANN HEAD
MEN'S CLUB THEATRE PARTY
RESERVE MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 16th

Mr. Ira F. Weisman, president of the Men's Club, has announced that Messrs. Elliott W. Siegel and Louis W. Yohann have accepted appointment as Co-chairmen of the Theatre Party which the Club is sponsoring this Spring. This happy choice of two of the most ardent and devoted workers in the organization augurs well for the success of the project — and success it must be if the Men's Club is to carry on with its program of cultural, social and philanthropic work.

REGISTRATION OPEN FOR SECOND SEMESTER OF INSTITUTE

The Kehilath Jeshurun Institute is about to close the first semester's work, having completed an uninterrupted schedule of regular Monday evening sessions that began in October. The second half of the year's work will begin February 5th, with May 14th set as the date for the closing session.

During the few months that the Institute has been in progress, we have noted the keen interest which it has elicited from among our congregational family, and we have been particularly pleased with the rapid and considerable progress which our "students" have made.

In all, we are quite pleased with the warmth with which the Institute has been received, and with the work which is being accomplished. We are opening registration in some of the classes for the second term, and we will welcome as many newcomers as we can accommodate. If you are interested, please call the Synagogue Office. All information will be furnished gladly.

This announcement was followed by one which should command the attention of every member and friend of the Men's Club. It is, briefly, that the evening of Monday, April 16th, has been reserved as the date of the Theatre Party. This date was selected for a musical show that promises to be another "South Pacific" — with the authorship, music, direction, choreography and cast that simply can't miss.

At the present time we cannot say more. We have completed most of the negotiations that go into running a Theatre Party; there are still lacking the absolute final arrangements which are pre-requisite to an official publication of all the information. The Committee, however, has been so impressed with this particular show — after careful study of every forthcoming production — that we can state with some degree of certainty that final arrangements will soon be completed for the evening performance of April 16th.

Hold the date for us! Your support of this important function is impera-

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Plans Set for Annual Bazaar —

Members of the Sisterhood Executive Board, at a meeting held last week began to lay the groundwork for the Annual Bazaar which has been set for the week of April 2nd.

Yes, it is a little ways off yet. But when one thinks in terms of all the elements that comprise a successful bazaar, then time is indeed a most important factor. And there is no such thing as too much time. The earlier we begin, the greater our chances of equalling and even surpassing last year's income.

Now is the time for that all-important facet of bazaar work: the accumulation of a mass of merchandise to be sold when sales begin on April 2nd. Now is the time to contact your trades-people — wholesalers and retailers — to solicit from them salable goods. The sooner you begin making your contacts, the sooner will we be able to begin our stock-pile of material to be sold. So start today! Send all merchandise to the Synagogue House, marked to the attention of the Sisterhood.

Tickets Available for "Twentieth Century" —

Miss Mildred Feinberg, chairman of the Sisterhood monthly Theatre Party project, has announced that a handful of tickets are available for "Twentieth Century" for the performance of Thursday evening, March 15th.

The tickets on hand are for unusually choice orchestra seats, and may be had by contacting Miss Feinberg at REgent 4-8255. A slight charge has been added to the box-office price, which will be used for the furtherance of the Sisterhood's charitable work.

We stress the small number of tickets available — so lose no time in contacting Miss Feinberg. You'll enjoy seeing Gloria Swanson and Jose Ferrer in this hit show.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL CHILDREN TO CELEBRATE TU B'SHEVAT

Prevented from celebrating Chamaisha Asar b'Shevav last week by some unavoidable mishaps, the children of the afternoon Religious School will commemorate this joyous day with a special program that will take place this Sunday morning, January 28th, at 10:30 o'clock, as part of the regular morning session.

Mr. Myer B. Appleman, the principal of the Religious School, has disclosed that a new Israeli film, entitled "Ein Brerah", has been secured from the Jewish National Fund, and will be shown Sunday as a special feature of the program. The film depicts the gallantry and heroism of our people in the redemption of the land of Israel.

In keeping with its pattern of operations, the Parents' Club will cooperate in the morning's program by distributing the traditional Tu b'Shevav fruits and goodies.

MAX J. ETRA HEADS RECEPTION COMMITTEE FOR RABBI MAIMON

Our esteemed President, Mr. Max J. Etra, was named chairman of the New York Reception Committee to welcome Rabbi Judah L. Maimon, Minister of Religion in the Israeli Cabinet, to the United States.

Rabbi Maimon arrived yesterday for a good-will tour, at the invitation of the Mizrahi Organization of America. He will be feted at numerous receptions throughout the country, the first of which was, of course, in New York City.

Kehilath Jeshurun is indeed proud that its president was selected to head the welcome to this world-famed personage.

Committee to Meet Monday —

The final outcome of the Theatre Party is of such concern to us, that the entire Executive Board will constitute the committee in charge of arrangements. A meeting of the Committee will be held this Monday evening, January 29th, at 8:30 o'clock, in Room 202 of the Synagogue House. Members of the Executive Board are urged to put all else aside and attend this meeting. The decisions that will be reached will affect directly the program of the Men's Club for the balance of the year. Don't fail to be with us Monday evening.

A Note About February 20th —

In our pre-occupation with the Theatre Party, let us not overlook the monthly get-together which the Men's Club has on its calendar. The next meeting — a Forum Meeting — will take place Tuesday evening, February 20th, and will have a speaker of renown discussing a subject of interest. Jot the date down and plan to attend. Further details will be announced in next week's Bulletin.
