A TIMELY SUGGESTION

Readers of the Bulletin received notice last week of the 1951 Book of Remembrance, which will again be published for the Shevuoth festival. Enclosed with that notice was a form which we asked you to complete and return to the synagogue office, authorizing the insertion of the names of those whom you would like to have memorialized at Yizkor services.

You can help us immeasurably in the preparation of this year's Book of Remembrance by accepting our suggestion that you return the Authorization Form at your very earliest convenience. There is considerable detail work in connection with the publication of the Book, which can be greatly facilitated by your prompt response.

Please accept our thanks in advance for your cooperation.

RABBI ROTH TO PREACH
FAREWELL SERMON SATURDAY

This Saturday morning at 10:45, Rabbi Sol Roth will preach his "farewell" sermon before a K. J. congregation.

Rabbi Roth has been with us since the last High Holidays, when he was engaged to conduct the Auxiliary Services. In the brief period of his stay, he has preached in the Main Synagogue, delivered a series of Biblical discourses Sabbath afternoons and conducted the Talmud Class in the Adult Institute. In each instance, he has won for himself a large number of admirers and well-wishers.

He is now considering accepting a position as Rabbi of a congregation, and we know our worshippers will want to wish him well. We are sure, therefore, that you will join us at services this Saturday morning.

THE PARENTS' CLUB EXPECTS YOU THIS TUESDAY

The Kehilath Jeshurun Parents' Club is expecting you — and, indeed, looking forward to having you — this Tuesday evening, May 22nd, at its Closing Meeting of the Year.

On the various occasions during the past year, when the Parents' Club held its Open Meetings, a general invitation was extended to readers of the Bulletin (and their friends). We were most gratified to note that our invitation was accepted by many men and women who are not members of the Club, and we feel justified in the belief that the work of the Parents' Club on behalf of our Religious School and Jewish education generally, commanded the attention of those who are seriously concerned with the religious training of our youngsters.

The topics that were discussed at these meetings and, even more particularly, the lively question-and-answer periods that followed each talk, gave evidence of the interest that was aroused by the young but energetic Parents' Club.

The meeting this Tuesday evening will bring our season to a close. Our aim at this meeting is to be a bit more informal — to give our guests a chance to chat among themselves, to

GIFT OF SILVER TORAH ORNAMENTS RECEIVED

Last week, the Congregation received a beautiful gift of Torah ornaments from our devoted members, Mrs. Frank Morganstern and her son, Alexander. The gift consists of a Crown, Breast-plate and Pointer (Yad), all in sterling silver and beautifully engraved, and was made in memory of Frank Morganstern. It is, indeed, a most fitting tribute to the memory of a dear departed one.

We plan to consecrate these sacred vessels on the first day of Shevuoth at synagogue services, on the festival that commemorates the giving of the Torah at Mt. Sinai.

We extend our heartiest thanks to the Morgansterns, and our hope that the Almighty will bless them richly for their generosity to the House of God.

spend a few moments with the Religious School staff, and to hear a few words from our guest speaker, Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein.

We should like you to make it a point to be present. The meeting will start at 8:00 o'clock (in the Social Hall, as usual) and a collation will be served. All in all, we know you will spend an enjoyable evening.
