SISTERHOOD NEWS

New Members Named to Executive Board —

Mrs. Harry W. Baumgarten, President of the Sisterhood, has announced the addition of three new members onto the Executive Board. They are Mrs. A. Phillip Goldsmith, Mrs. Alexander Gross and Mrs. Herman Odell. We congratulate the Sisterhood on the acquisition of three such devoted and ardent workers.

Executive Board Holds First Meeting —

The first meeting of the Board was held on Wednesday afternoon, and if the response is to be taken as an indication for the balance of the year, we may look forward to a season of unprecedented activity and success. Those present — and they comprised almost 100% of the Board — were fired with enthusiasm and exhibited the spirit that augurs well for the year's program.

More complete details of the meeting will be published in coming issues of the Bulletin. For the time being, we would like to make mention of those who were appointed to head Sisterhood committees for the coming year. They are: Mrs. Benjamin L. Leifert, Program Committee; Mmes. A. Milton Brown and Samuel A. Marcus, Monthly Theatre Party Project; Mrs. Nathan Ball, Rummage Sale (to be held in March). Mrs. Baumgarten also named Mrs. A. Phillip Goldsmith to head a group of ladies who will be in charge of decorating the Sukkah for the Sukkoth Festival that we will soon celebrate. Members who wish to participate in this important mitzvah, may send their contributions to the Synagogue office, marked to the attention of the Sisterhood Sukkah Committee.

Federation Campaign Gets Under Way —

Mrs. Seppy I. Silberman, chairman of the Sisterhood's Federation Committee, has reported an unusual display of eagerness on the part of the members of her committee who attended the group's initial meeting at her home

NOTES ON THE SUKKOTH FESTIVAL

... A beautifully decorated Sukkah will await our worshippers when the festival is celebrated this year. This was assured by the fact that a group of Sisterhood members, headed by Mrs. A. Phillip Goldsmith, will be in charge of preparing the Sukkah so that we may enjoy the spiritual uplifting of the holiday amidst beautiful surroundings.

... As we announced in last week's Bulletin, arrangements have been completed for catered meals to be served in the Sukkah. Full course lunches and dinners will be served on the first two days of the holiday as well as on Shabbat Chol Hamoed. Further particulars may be had by contacting the Synagogue Office, but we urge our readers to look into the matter immediately, since reservations must be in this week.

... The importance of providing yourself with an Ethrog and Lulav for Sukkoth cannot be over-estimated. The time to do so is now, while the supply of kosher and attractive Ethrogim is still on hand. Our Ritual Director, Mr. Joseph E. Adler, will be only too happy to render whatever aid he can in this direction. Please feel free to call upon us.

last week. The campaign on behalf of the current drive of Federation appears to be off to a good start; its ultimate success will depend on the cooperation of the general membership of the Sisterhood. Thus far, results are most favorable. It is expected that the motto "Every Member a Contributor" will be realized.

The members of the committee who will give their all so that a unanimous Sisterhood response will be forthcoming, are: Mmes. Hyman Abrams, Harry W. Baumgarten, Harry Etra, Bernard D. Fischman, David Joseph, Martin Klein, D. Harry Kleinfeld, Alexander Kommel, Benjamin L. Leifert, Joseph H. Lookstein, Elliott W. Siegel and Robert Wallach.

STANDING ROOM ONLY GREETED RABBI*AT FORUM MEETING APPEARANCE*500 Hear Lecture Sponsored by Men's Club and Sisterhood

The auditorium last Tuesday evening was quite literally packed to the rafters with an eager group of some 500 men and women. The occasion was the Rabbi's lecture on "Paris, Munich, Rome and Jerusalem — A Tale of Four Cities", presented before a joint meeting sponsored by the Men's Club and the Sisterhood of the congregation.

The Rabbi, who had just returned from a ten week stay on the continent and in Israel, took the audience through the magic carpet of his words on a whirlpool tour. The four cities that he chose to depict were not merely important in themselves but, the Rabbi explained, "represented types and symbols that prevail through the world of our day." He characterized his hegira from West to Near East as a progression from amnesia, to amnesia, to passivity, to re-birth.

With quick strokes and vivid imagery he painted a Paris "that has forgotten — or does not care to remember"; a Munich, now one of the most prosperous cities in Europe, which was the symbol of "unrepentance, of pardon for the criminal;" a Rome of unnatural calm and of artificial peace; and, finally the Rabbi spoke of the new Jerusalem, bursting with energy and the spirit of renaissance.

The Rabbi recounted the personal experiences of his tour. He quoted facts and figures. He named personalities and places. As a member of the Administration Committee of the Joint Distribution Committee he was commissioned by that organization to make an official inspection of their installations. He was thus in a particularly good position to see "inside" the countries he visited. And, indeed, he presented no mere bird's eye view. Those who attended and heard the Rabbi speak received a sober and considered analysis of the world dilemma which we are all facing and of the position of the Jew in that dilemma.

The experience was a rewarding one both emotionally and intellectually. That it provided more than the usual "food for thought" was evidenced in the heated discussions and earnest debates that were in evidence during the socializing that followed the lecture proper. The office of the synagogue has already received considerable comment on the evening and we know that those who attended this Forum will not soon forget it.

MEMORIAL WINDOWS INSTALLED

Members who arranged for windows to be inscribed in memory of their dear departed ones will be pleased to know that the memorial windows have been installed in the main Synagogue.

Plans for a Consecration Service, at which these windows will be formally dedicated, are now being made. We shall, of course, notify our readers of the time of this service.

CONDOLENCES

We record with sorrow the passing of the beloved mother of our esteemed member, Mrs. Alexander Kommel, and the sudden loss of the beloved sister of our devoted member, Mrs. Abraham R. Winer. Our heartfelt sympathies are extended to the members of the bereaved families. We pray that the Almighty spare them further sorrow for many years to come.

ENROLL YOUR CHILDREN IN OUR AFTERNOON RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Sessions: Sunday mornings from 9:30 to 12:30 and two afternoons from 4:00 to 6:00
