

JOHN ROY CARLSON TO SPEAK AT THANKSGIVING SERVICES

The annual Thanksgiving Services at Kehilath Jeshurun, which have enjoyed a most enviable reputation for their impressiveness and for the renowned guest speakers who have addressed them, will take place Thursday morning, November 22nd, at 11:00 o'clock in the Synagogue.

The guest speaker this year will be Mr. John Roy Carlson, noted author and

YOUNG PEOPLE'S MINYAN DRAWS LARGE CONGREGATION

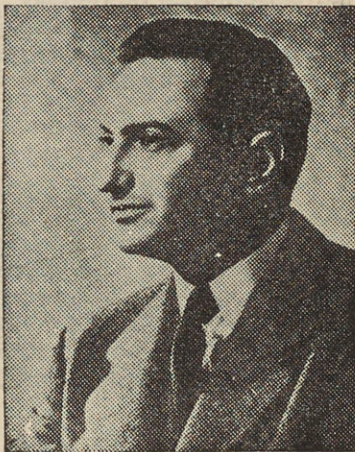

The first service of the Young People's Minyan, which was held last Sunday morning, attracted over fifty boys and girls who came to enjoy a religious, social and athletic period in an activity designed for them and conducted by them.

Last Sunday, Morris Amitay, Larry Frank, Morton Schatzman and Lloyd Shor officiated as cantors. This coming week, Morris Amitay, Fred Ehrman, Alvin Elkins and Franklin Holzer will lead the congregation in prayer, and Julius Novick will deliver a brief talk on the election results.

We again invite the youthful members of our congregational family to participate in an activity that is all theirs. In charge of the Minyan are two young men, Haskel Lookstein assisted by Ari Ickovic, who lead rather than supervise, and who participate rather than oversee. The breakfast that follows the service also consists of the fare that is attractive to the young people. And, of course, what could be more desirable than an opportunity to play some basketball in the Gym?

So you see, it's an enjoyable morning that can be spent with us each Sunday. Won't you try it this week?

internationally known "undercover" authority. Mr. Carlson will speak on the subject, "Behind the Iron Curtain of the Arab Countries." A choir under the direction of Oscar Julius will assist Cantor Hyman Gertler in officiating at the services which will be conducted by Rabbi Lookstein.

John Roy Carlson

Our speaker is an Armenian by birth who came to America, a victim of Turkish persecution, while in his early teens. Soon after his arrival, he embarked on a career in journalism and was graduated from the School of

Tickets Still Available For "The Numbers" —

Mrs. A. Milton Brown, chairman of the project, has announced that but a handful of tickets remain for the evening performance of Tuesday, November 13th, to "The Numbers". These may be had by contacting Mrs. Brown at Schuyler 4-1381.

Have You Done Yours For Federation? —

The Sisterhood Federation Committee, headed by Mrs. Seppy L. Silberman, is in the process of contacting every member for her contribution to this year's campaign. In connection with this drive, we ask but one thing: when you are approached, receive your solicitor kindly and respond to her appeal handsomely.

The work of Federation needs no elaboration here. You are familiar with the assistance it gives to the homeless, the orphaned, the underprivileged, the sick, and the aged. So important is Federation, that it is the responsibility of all of us to see that it is supported properly. Irrespective of your husband's contribution, which he no doubt makes through his industry, make your own gift!

REGISTRATION IN ADULT INSTITUTE PROGRESSING

We are happy to note that on the strength of the notice which appeared in last week's Bulletin, a large registration of students for our Adult Institute has resulted, and we are looking forward to having well-populated classes when sessions begin on November 19th.

An attractive brochure, outlining the nature of the courses to be offered and containing other pertinent material, will shortly be in the hands of our readers. In the meantime, however, we urge you to register by calling the Synagogue Office, or by dropping us a line. Further information may be had by calling the Office at Sacramento 2-0800.

Marcus to head the Gifts Raffle for the many valuable and beautiful prizes which will be awarded at the affair. This raffle is in addition to the major drawing for a Portrait Painting Study, the vehicle through which admission to the Luncheon may be had.

The drawing for the Portrait will take place at the next Open Meeting, which will be held on December 3rd. You see, then, that but a few short weeks remain in which to achieve the 100% record which is our goal. This can be achieved by having all of our members sell the raffle books which they received.

Journalism of New York University in 1932. After a succession of jobs throughout the country, he settled down to magazine work, which led to his assignment by Fortune Magazine to do research on Fascist activities in America. It was at this time that he adopted the pseudonym "John Roy Carlson" and that he launched upon the mission of exposing extremist groups which would sabotage our way of life.

Mr. Carlson's investigations between 1938 and 1943 resulted in "Under Cover" which met with phenomenal success and high critical acclaim. Further investigations resulted in "The Plotters" which was published in 1946 and which, too, found its way onto the best-sellers list. For this work in exposing the nation's bigots, Mr. Carlson received the Thomas Jefferson Award in 1947 from the Council Against Intolerance for "contributions to the advancement of democracy."

In 1947, he started on his own dangerous brand of research into Middle East affairs. He traveled extensively through Europe and the Arab states, covering twenty-two countries in less than two years. Assuming the disguise of an Arab, he came into contact with some of the notorious forces at work in the Middle East, and accumulated mountains of notes and took thousands of photographs, all of which

WITHIN OUR FAMILY

Birthdays —

Many happy returns of the day to Hyman Cohen, Mrs. Israel Cummings, Mrs. David Kahn and Vice-President Saul J. Lance.

Anniversaries —

Our warmest greetings to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hyman and to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kahn, who celebrate wedding anniversaries this week.

Bar Mitzvah —

A hearty Mazel Tov to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Elkins on the occasion of the Bar Mitzvah of their son, Alvin, a pupil in our Religious School.

Speedy Recovery —

Best wishes for a complete and speedy recovery are extended to Ann Kirshon, daughter of our devoted friends, Mr. & Mrs. Abraham R. Kirshon, who is recuperating from a recent operation.

provided him with the background for his latest book, "Cairo to Damascus." It is this phase of his travels and findings that Mr. Carlson will discuss next Thursday morning.

A cordial invitation is extended to all readers of the Bulletin and their families to attend Thanksgiving Services at our Synagogue. We know you will derive the inspiration that the occasion will have to offer.
