"NAMES — LIVING UP TO THEM AND LIVING THEM DOWN"

An academic Convocation, marking the opening of sessions in the Kehilath Jeshurun Institute for Adult Studies for the year 1951-52, will be held on Monday evening, November 19th, at 8:00 o'clock, in the Social Hall. The proceedings will be presided over by Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein, and as guest speaker for the evening, we have invited Prof. Salo W. Baron, who will speak on "Jewish Survival: an Historic Challenge."

A world-renowned scholar, Dr. Baron is professor of Jewish History at Columbia University, and the author of numerous scholarly works. A noted sociologist, Dr. Baron has held the chair of Jewish History at Columbia for over twenty years. For many years he served as visiting lecturer of history at the Graduate School for Jewish Social Work in New York and also at the Rochester-Colgate Divinity School. He is a fellow of the American Academy for Jewish Research, and served as its president from 1940 to 1943.

Currently the editor of the quarterly, "Jewish Social Studies", our guest speaker has had many of his writings published. These include "A Social and Religious History of the Jews, in three volumes; "The Jewish Community", in three volumes; "Modern Nationalism and Religion", and many others which are regarded as authoritative in their fields.

Members of our congregational family have had numerous occasions in the past to hear Dr. Baron speak from our platform. Those who attended these meetings, need no further introduction to our guest speaker, and no special urging to join us on the 19th. To all our readers, we extend a warm invitation to attend the Convocation, and to bring their friends with them.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

New Members —

We are happy to add the names of Mrs. Anna Jacobson and Mrs. Ben Meyers to our membership roster, and we wish them a long association with us.

Don't Miss the Meeting of Dec. 3 —

We're giving you enough advance notice of our next Open Meeting to insure your attending! It will be a meeting you won't want to miss! Jot the date down now: Monday, December 3rd at 12:30.

We have invited Mr. Sanford S. Sherman, the assistant Executive Director of the Jewish Family Service, to be our guest speaker that afternoon. A graduate of Western Reserve School of Social Work, Mr. Sherman has devoted many years to his field, and is recognized as one of the country's leading family counselors. The subject to be discussed at our meeting is, "Marriage Relationship and Emotional Health", and Mr. Sherman will have some important as well as interesting remarks to make.

We urge you to attend, and to bring as many of your friends with you as possible. They'll also be interested in what will be discussed.

CALLING ALL RAFFLE STUBS —

At the meeting of December 3rd, we will hold the drawing for the Portrait Painting Study which is being awarded in connection with our Annual Luncheon of December 11th. Members who have raffle books outstanding, and who want to participate in this drawing, must return the stubs to the Sisterhood before the meeting gets under way. Send in the stubs, or bring them with you when you come to the meeting. But get them to us in time for the drawing. Yours may be the lucky stub!

And, on the same subject, you still have time to dispose of additional raffle books. If you need more — and remember: the sale of each book entitles you to a ticket to the Luncheon — call either of the co-chairmen, Mrs. Hyman Abrams or Mrs. A. Milton Brown, or contact the Synagogue Office.

January Theatre Party Selection —

Mrs. A. Milton Brown has announced that the monthly Theatre

KEHILATH JESHURUN SISTERHOOD

takes pleasure in presenting

Sanford S. Sherman

Asst. Executive Director of Jewish Family Service

who will speak on

"MARRIAGE RELATIONSHIP AND EMOTIONAL HEALTH"

at the next Open Meeting

Monday, December 3rd, at 12:30

in the Social Hall

IMPORTANT!

The drawing for the Portrait Painting Study will take place at this meeting. Members who still have raffle books outstanding are urged to return the stubs before or at this meeting.

RABBI LOOKSTEIN PRESIDES AT MIZRACHI CONVENTION

Rabbi Lookstein is spending this week at the Mizrahi Convention in Atlantic City. As President of the Mizrahi National Education Committee he is presiding at the sessions of that group at which are expected several hundred leading educators from all parts of the country.

In his capacity as Chairman of the Executive Committee he is also scheduled to address the opening meeting of the four-day conference of the Mizrahi Organization of America as well as to chair several sessions later in the convention.

Prior to the convention itself the Rabbi spoke before a meeting of the Mizrahi Women's Organization on the subject of "Religion in Israel."

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL OPENS CLASS FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

A new class in the Religious School has been opened for boys and girls attending high school whose programs do not permit them to attend a class during the regular afternoon hours of the Religious School. The class, to be known as a Seminar in Religious Studies for High School Students, will meet every Wednesday from 5:00 to 6:30 p.m., and will have as its instructor Rabbi Lookstein.

The group was organized earlier this week when the Rabbi met with several high school students who, until recently were pupils in our Religious School, and who evinced a keen interest in continuing with their Hebrew studies at some time that would not conflict with their high school programs. The class will have as its primary aim further instruction in subjects of Jewish learning, but it is hoped that it will form the nucleus of a young social group which will also become a regular club activity.

The first session of the Seminar will take place on Wednesday, November 21st, at 5:00 o'clock. From that date on, we expect to see a large number of high school boys and girls meet every Wednesday evening to continue their Hebrew education under the guidance of the Rabbi.

Party selection for January is "The Constant Wife" starring Katherine Cornell and Brian Aherne. Further details will be published in forthcoming issues of the Bulletin, but if you want to be sure of getting your tickets, call Mrs. Brown at Schuyler 4-1381. They're priced at $6.00 and $7.50 each.

MEN'S CLUB NEWS

New Members —

We extend a hearty welcome to Max Backer, Samson Eichler and Sidney Flatow, who joined our Men's Club last week, and we wish them a long and happy affiliation with us.

We're Expecting You This Tuesday Evening —

We're looking forward to having our entire membership — we won't settle for less — at the business meeting of our group, which will be held this Tuesday evening, November 20th, in the Social Hall. Arranged as a Supper-Meeting, a full course meal, from cocktails down to a keg of beer, will be served. Then we will get down to the business on hand, which has as its major item the election of officers for the next year.

Invitations have already been sent to our members. Enclosed with each was a response card, which we asked our members to return so that we may be able to make all the necessary arrangements. In this connection: PLEASE RESPOND IMMEDIATELY. There are ever so many details that must be looked after, but we must first know how many of our members will be with us.

For an enjoyable evening, spent as our guests, come down this Tuesday evening. It's for men only, of course, and every member of the Men's Club is invited.

Welfare Fund —

We are pleased to take note of the generous contributions to our Welfare Fund received from Ira F. Weisman and Louis W. Yohann — for which, gentlemen, please accept our thanks.

For the edification of our new members — and as a reminder to the old-timers — may we say a word or two about the Welfare Fund?

The Fund is the philanthropic arm of the Men's Club, and when one considers that about 80% of the Men's Club budget is devoted to philanthropy, one can readily see how important the Welfare Fund is. Contributions to it are made to commemorate a birthday or anniversary or a similar occasion; or, in honor of an esteemed friend; or in memory of a dear departed one.

Won't you keep the Welfare Fund in mind?

ADULT INSTITUTE BEGINS SESSIONS NOVEMBER 26th

Register for Adult Classes —

It occurs to us that the evening of the Convocation would be an ideal time to do another wise thing: register for one or more of the courses to be offered in the Institute. With us on the 19th, will be the members of the Institute faculty who will be only too happy to discuss with you some of the problems you may have with regard to your own individual needs. Are you considered "a beginner?" Would you fit into a more advanced class? Will such-and-such a course teach me to do this or that? Questions such as these, which may be disturbing you, can easily be clarified in a short chat with one of the teachers.

In any case, we urge you to partake of the program of studies which we have to offer. The curriculum is varied — one in which there is a place for every adult interested in cultural advancement. Hebrew on different levels, Hebrew Literature, Prayers, Talmud — these and other courses are available to you.

Bible Lectures to be Given by Rabbi —

A series of five Bible lectures will be given by Rabbi Lookstein on "The Book of Genesis: Prologue to the Epic of Man and his Universe." Arranged for specified Monday evenings, the lectures will begin at 9:30 o'clock so that those who attend the study classes (which last from 8:00 to 9:15) may also attend these lectures.

Dr. Salo W. Baron

For Further Information —

A brochure outlining the entire Institute is now in the mails. The courses, are described in greater detail, and other pertinent material relative to dates, fees, etc., is also contained in the brochure. Readers of the Bulletin are invited to call the Synagogue Office if they would like to have any additional information.
