SISTERHOOD NEWS

New Members —

We extend a hearty welcome to Mrs. Hyman I. Cohen and Mrs. Murray Weinstein who joined our Sisterhood, and we wish them many years of happy association with us.

Executive Board to Meet Monday —

The next meeting of the Sisterhood Executive Board will be held this Monday afternoon, January 7th, at 12:30 o'clock in the Library. Board members are urged to attend so that the items on the agenda may receive full and complete consideration.

Open Meeting to Hear Fashion Talk —

As guest speaker for the next Open Meeting, which will be held on Monday afternoon, January 21st, the Sisterhood has invited the noted fashion coordinator, Mrs. Joseph D. Lieberman. Mrs. Lieberman will speak on "Fashion and its Application to the Individual."

An expert in the field, Mrs. Lieberman has traveled extensively throughout the United States and Canada to lecture before professional and lay groups. Formerly connected with some of the leading department stores, our guest speaker now conducts a fashion clinic for the Council of Jewish Women, and is regarded as a foremost authority on design and fashion.

Our members and their friends can look forward to a most enjoyable afternoon on the 21st, and we anticipate having a large group with us to hear Mrs. Lieberman's message. The meeting will be held at 12:30 in the Social Hall, as usual.

WITHIN OUR FAMILY

New Member —

We extend a hearty welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Salvan who joined as members of the Congregation recently, and we wish them a long and happy affiliation with us.

Birthdays —

Many happy returns of the day to Mrs. Harry W. Baumgarten, Mrs. Myron M. Bogdonoff, Mrs. Frank Goodman, Mrs. David Joseph, Mrs. Morton Kamerman, Mrs. D. Harry Kleinfeld, Mr. Harry Metzger, Mrs. Philip Weissberg and Miss Irene Weiss.

Engagement —

Best wishes to Miss Inge Goldsmith, a member of the Ramaz School office staff, on her engagement to Pvt. Walter Mayer.

Similar good wishes to Mrs. Edward Bernard, an esteemed member of our Sisterhood, on the engagement of her son, David, to Miss Mary Beck of Buffalo, N. Y.

Marriage —

Mazel Tov wishes to our devoted members, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Austin,

ADULT INSTITUTE RESUMES SESSIONS MONDAY EVENING

Regular sessions in the Adult Institute will be resumed this Monday evening, January 7th, at 8:00 o'clock.

At 9:00 o'clock, this Monday, following the study courses, Rabbi Lookstein will deliver his fourth talk in the Bible Lecture Series. The topic is, "Snakes, Angels and Pillars of Salt: an Analysis of Spiritual Phenomena." The final talk of the series on the subject, "The End of the 'Beginning': an Evaluation," will be given next Monday evening, January 14th.

whose daughter, Jeanne, became Mrs. Maxwell Kaufer last week.

Greetings to Mr. and Mrs. Irving Buchalter, Dr. and Mrs. Erich Buechler, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Garfein, Dr. and Mrs. Oscar Gruen, Mr. and Mrs. Gedeon Heller, and Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Topkis on the occasion of their

MEN'S CLUB NEWS

Maurice Samuel to Address Forum Meeting —

Once again we are pleased to announce that the world-renowned author and scholar, Maurice Samuel, will grace our platform to address a Men's Club Forum Meeting. On this occasion — Tuesday evening, January 22nd — Mr. Samuel will discuss his book, "Prince of the Ghetto."

Our guest speaker hardly needs any introduction to Kehilath Jeshurunites. He has spoken before K. J. audiences on numerous occasions in the past, and has achieved the distinction of having each address surpass in excellence every previous talk — a remarkable achievement, indeed, when one considers that his very first appearance with us made an impression that many still remember vividly for its high calibre.

Through his lectures and writings, Mr. Samuel has been an outstanding and tireless interpreter and exponent of Jewish values to the Jewish and non-Jewish world alike. His published works have won wide attention and important critical acclaim. They include "You Gentiles", a study of the specific character of Jewish civilization; "The Great Hatred", an expose of the pathological character of anti-Semitism; "Harvest in the Desert", an account of the growth of the Jewish homeland; "The Gentleman and the Jew", about which Mr. Samuel spoke to us last year; "The World of Sholom Aleichem", an interpretation of the work of the famous Jewish humorist; and "Prince of the Ghetto", a companion volume to this latter work, which deals with the life and work of I. L. Peretz.

This is one meeting you cannot afford to miss. The guest speaker and the nature of his talk should be so attractive that you and your friends should make it a point to join us. It's to take place on Tuesday evening, January 22nd, at 8:30, in the Auditorium. The ladies are, of course, cordially invited. A collation will follow the meeting.

SAUL LANCE HONORED BY RAMAZ BOARD

Having rendered a decade of devoted service to Ramaz School as chairman of its Board of Trustees, our esteemed Vice-president, Saul J. Lance, was honored at a Testimonial Dinner on Wednesday evening, December 19th, in the Social Hall. Present that evening were members of the Ramaz Board and the Board of Trustees of the Congregation, as well as a number of Mr. Lance's personal friends and associates who joined in this tribute.

As a token of their high regard for the guest of honor, those present established a scholarship in Ramaz School which will enable several youngsters to attend the school on a tuition-free basis. Milton H. Mandel, the new Chairman of the Ramaz Board, presented Mr. Lance with a beautiful gift — a token of the warm personal relationship that exists between Mr. Lance and Board members.

JUST A WORD ABOUT CHANUKAH

In reflecting upon the celebrations that took place in our building during the week of Chanukah, we summarize them in the following simple sentence: Affiliates and guests, young and old enjoyed themselves immensely at our affairs, and commemorated the joyous festival in a manner they will long remember.

From the Chanukah assemblies arranged for the children of Ramaz and the Religious School; through the Dance and Entertainment for the adults; through the Collegiate Sabbath and Collegiate Dance sponsored in honor of our college folk — the entire week was packed with festivity in keeping with the spirit of the holiday.

May we offer our thanks to the chairmen of the respective functions: to Mrs. Robert Wallach, Maurice N. Jaffe and Alexander Garfein, for the Dance and Entertainment; to Mrs. A. Milton Brown for the Collegiate affairs; and to all those who worked so devotedly and diligently for the success of the undertakings.
