SISTERHOOD NEWS

Open Meeting Set
For Monday, March 10 —

An unusual treat is in store for those who will attend the next Sisterhood Open Meeting, which is being arranged for Monday, March 10th. Mrs. Benjamin L. Leifert, chairman of the Program Committee, assures us that an outstanding speaker will be on hand to speak on a subject that will delight our guests.

The details will be announced in forthcoming issues of the Bulletin. In the meantime, reserve the date and plan to be with us. It's Monday, March 10th.

Are You Helping Our Bazaar? —

Following last week's Bulletin article about the Bazaar that is scheduled to begin in the middle of March, a considerable quantity of merchandise was received at the Synagogue House. We are happy to note this spontaneous response to the announcement of Mrs. Eugene Hollander's appointment as chairman of the project, but we must add that considerably more merchandise is needed before sales can begin.

All arrangements have been made for the Bazaar to begin on March 17th. This leaves just about another month in which to accumulate goods; the balance of the time must be reserved for sorting, pricing, getting the store ready, and the myriad other details

OPEN SCHOOL WEEK IN RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Jerome H. Rosenblum, principal of the afternoon Religious School, has announced the designation of next week as Open School Week. Beginning with Monday, February 11th, the school will welcome parents' visits to the classrooms to observe a regular session in progress.

The importance of conducting an Open School Week cannot be over-emphasized. To all concerned — to the pupil, the parent, the teacher and the school as a whole — it has inestimable value. To the over-all area of home-school relationship, it constitutes a major factor.

Letters of invitation have already been mailed to parents of Religious School children. We take this opportunity to urge them to visit the school next week. Sessions are held in the afternoons, from 4:00 to 6:00 o'clock.

Visitors are asked to stop by at the office (on the main floor of the Synagogue House) to sign the Parents' Register before they enter the classrooms. At the Office, too, you will be notified of the room in which your youngster's class meets.

that must be attended to.

So, without delaying any further, round up all the merchandise you can, and send it to the Synagogue House.

KEHILATH JESHURUN MEN'S CLUB

cordially invites its members and men friends to attend its

SUPPER-MEETING

Tuesday evening, February 19th

in the Social Hall

An interesting evening has been arranged for your enjoyment

MEN'S CLUB NEWS

The next meeting of the Men's Club Executive Board will be held this Wednesday evening, February 13th, at 8:30 o'clock in the Library of the Synagogue. Members of the Board know, by now, that there are a number of urgent matters that must come to their attention for prompt and final disposition. We are confident, therefore, that we will have a full attendance on hand Wednesday evening.

Supper-Meeting for Men on February 19th —

Here is another opportunity for the members of the Men's Club and their men friends to get together for an evening of enjoyment and good fellowship. A supper-meeting has been arranged for Tuesday evening, February 19, in the Social Hall, and a light but interesting program is being planned. Further details will be announced shortly, but we should like to urge our members now to set the date aside and plan to be with us.

Your invitation will soon be in the mails. Enclosed with it will be a response card, which we ask you to return immediately upon receipt. We must know in advance how many guests we may expect, so please respond as soon as you get your notice.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S MINYAN

Continuing along its own quiet way, the Young People's Minyan regularly attracts a larger and larger congregation of 'teenagers every Sunday morning. The boys and girls who have formed the habit of attending every week, have come to realize that not only is the Minyan an enjoyable activity but one which has real educational value.

We congratulate our "regulars" and hope their number increases with every succeeding week. We congratulate, too, the young men who officiated last week — Jerome Bruss, Ira Firestone, Joseph Hausman and Morton Schatzman — for a job well done.

While we're on the subject of felicitations, let's doff our hats to the Minyan basketball team, which gained a 39-32 victory over the Temple Anshe Chesed Jets this Sunday morning.

Again, we extend our invitation to our youthful readers to take advantage of this pleasant and important Sunday morning activity. The morning begins with services (at 9:30 in the Chapel), continues through a wholesome community breakfast, and concludes with a period of athletics in the gym.
