PASSOVER RELIEF APPEAL IN FINAL WEEK

This week will mark the end of the 1952 Passover Relief Appeal, the annual drive conducted by the Congregation in behalf of the hundreds of needy individuals and institutions that turn to us at this time of the year for assistance.

We wish we could report that our quota has been reached. We wish we could announce that every one of the cases brought to our attention was given all the assistance required, and that we even had a "surplus" in the Benevolent Fund for future use. Unfortunately, such is not the case.

the size of some of the contributions received, is indeed indicative of the good-heartedness of our members and friends and their understanding of the real meaning and significance of "Mo'os Chitim."

It is to those who, for some reason or other, have not made their contributions, that we direct this final call: The list of the needy who have turned to us to help them celebrate Passover in the proper way, is unusually long. Included among them are several worthy rabbis who do not come to the attention of public charity, but who are deserving of aid. In addition, we are anxious to give sizable grants to Israeli institutions — particularly to the hundreds of yeshivah students there

Rabbi Lookstein will preach this Sabbath at 10:45 a.m.

SISTERHOOD COMPLETES SUCCESSFUL BAZAAR

A successful Bazaar was concluded last Friday, thanks to the efforts of a number of Sisterhood members who felt the need for doing their bit for this activity in order to realize as much revenue as possible for Sisterhood benevolences. It is only fitting to thank publicly those members who devoted so much of their time to serving at the Bazaar during the week of sales.

They are: Mrs. Hyman Abrams, Mrs. Harry W. Baumgarten, Mrs. Samuel B. Cooperman, Mrs. Isidore Givner, Mrs. Alexander Gross, Mrs. Emanuel Jacobs, Mrs. Emma Kaplan, Mrs. Lucien Kelin, Mrs. Martin Klein, Mrs. Richard Kolb, Mrs. Joseph H. Lookstein, Mrs. Harry Salvan, Mrs. Isidore Schacter, Mrs. Isidore Schlang, Mrs. Elliott W. Siegel, Mrs. Edgar Trautman and Mrs. David Warshavsky.

Working under Mrs. Eugene Hollander, the chairman of the Bazaar, these ladies did an exceptionally good piece of work, displaying a devotion and earnestness that is deserving of highest commendation.

To these — and to the many who helped in accumulating merchandise — we say a hearty "Thank You".

who are in such desperate want for the barest necessities.

Time is growing short. If our efforts are to be meaningful, we must do our life-saving work within the next few days. Only you can help us do what we must do. If you have not as yet made your contribution to the Passover Relief Appeal, please do so at once. Send your check — and be as generous as you can — to the Synagogue Office today. (Please make your check payable to the Benevolent Fund).

In next week's issue of the Bulletin, we will publish the list of all the contributors to this year's campaign. We trust your name will appear on that list.

Preparing for Passover —

Among the preparations that must be made for the Passover holiday, is the sale of chometz (m'chiras chometz). Rabbi Lookstein will be available for this purpose during the pre-holiday week, beginning Tuesday, April 1st. For those who cannot come in person, we provide a form below which is to be completed, signed, and returned to the Rabbi by Tuesday, April 8th.

I,, hereby authorize Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein to dispose of all Chometz that may be in my possession wherever it may be, at home, place of business or elsewhere, in accordance with the requirements and provisions of the Jewish law.

CURTAIN'S GOING UP—WILL YOU BE THERE?

Curtain's going up!

Monday evening, March 31st, is the date; 8:30, the time for the beginning of a show you can't afford to miss!

It's "Three Wishes for Jamie" which received such a warm welcome from the City's critics, and a rousing cheer from those who have already seen it.

And Monday evening is the right time to see it, for you will be supporting our Men's Club program of philanthropies by attending this particular performance. You see, it's the evening of the Men's Club Theatre Party — the one fund-raising occasion of the Men's Club year.

Here are some of the critics' reviews:

Atkinson (Times): "... distinguished musical work . . . audience hearty and enthusiastic . . ."

Kerr (Herald-Tribune): "... amiable spring entertainment . . . easy on the eyes, agreeable to the ear . . ."

Hawkins (World-Telegram): "... a lusty show, big and healthy and frank and funny, joyful as all getout . . . rich rousing entertainment . . ."

Wilson (Post): "... Anne Jeffreys, John Raitt and Bert Wheeler just great . . . a dan-dan-dandy show . . ."

Need we go on? All the reviews are in the same vein: they agree it is, as one critic put it, "another 'Okla-homa!'."

BEFORE IT'S TOO LATE, call the Synagogue Office and get your tickets. There are still some choice seats available, and ticket orders will be accepted until noon on Sunday.

The "box office" number is SACramento 2-0800. Use it!
