A WORD OF THANKS

Dear Friends:

I should like to take this means of expressing my sincerest gratitude for the tribute paid to me at the Testimonial Kiddush last Saturday on the occasion of my birthday and the twentieth anniversary of my association with Kehilath Jeshurun.

I am humbly appreciative of the affection you displayed and the good wishes you expressed. I pray that I might be able to reciprocate your kindness, and that I may earn your continued friendship for years to come.

Sincerely,

Joseph E. Adler

Final arrangements have been completed for the Consecration Service of our grounds on Beth El Cemetery for this Sunday morning, it was announced by the Cemetery Committee consisting of Hyman I. Bucher, Chairman; Abbott S. Bernard, and Thomas Bornstein. An impressive service, at which Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein and Cantor Hyman Gertler will officiate, has been prepared — a service which retains the traditions of this ancient ceremony, but is, at the same time, intelligible to the modern American Jewish man and woman.

The Service will begin at 12:00 noon. Facilities for the transportation of those who will attend have been provided, and the plans call for our cars to leave from the Synagogue soon

SISTERHOOD NEWS

You Can Help Our December 6th Affair —

Mrs. Harry Salvan, chairman of the Merchandise Committee for the project, is asking for the cooperation of the membership at large — of all our readers, in fact — in the matter of helping us accumulate merchandise to be sold at the Auction. True, a large number of our members are pitching in beautifully in this respect, and a large number, too, are assisting in other phases of activity in connection with the project. But of immediate concern is the necessity of amassing a huge stockpile of merchandise, so that a handsome sum of money may be realized from its sale for the beneficiaries of the affair: the various philanthropic causes supported by the Sisterhood.

Every possible assistance will be rendered by the Committee in charge of the affair, headed by Mrs. Benjamin L. Leifert, and by the Synagogue Office. Please do not hesitate to call if you have a "lead", or if you require some other aid in your solicitation for merchandise. (Please bear in mind that we are seeking NEW merchandise only.)

after 11:00 o'clock Sunday morning. Those who wish to avail themselves of these transportation facilities are asked to be at the Synagogue no later than 11:00.

For the benefit of those who wish to travel directly to the Cemetery, the directions follow: Cross the George Washington Bridge, follow Route No. 4 for approximately 8 miles; turn right at Forrest Avenue, to Beth El Cemetery.

One final word: an opportunity to witness a Consecration Service of this type comes very rarely. When, in addition, the Service will incorporate those features of impressiveness, dignity and intelligibility which mark all K. J. services; and, too, comfortable transportation facilities have been provided, then members of our congregational family should put everything else aside, and arrange to attend.

The Service will be held this Sunday, regardless of weather conditions. A tent has been constructed at the Cemetery for the convenience of those who will join us in the great mitzvah of Chinuch Beth Hakvoroth.

MEN'S CLUB NEWS

New Members —

We extend a hearty welcome to Sam Bruckner, Israel Present, Jacob Schultz, Marvin Stokar and William Unger, whose applications were received this week, and we wish them a long and happy association with us.

Supper-Meeting
Most Successful —

What was conceded to be one of the finest get-togethers of the Men's Club within the last few years, took place Tuesday evening when the organization held its first Supper-Meeting of the season in the Social Hall. What helped to make the meeting the success it was, was not only the friendly atmosphere that prevailed and the fine dinner that was served, but the excellent talk delivered by our guest speaker, Saul J. Lance, and the response that his remarks elicited from the audience.

Speaking on the subject, "Orthodox Jewry in a Divided Jewish Community," Mr. Lance discussed the controversy that is currently raging about the Federation of Jewish Charities with regard to the establishment of the Long Island Jewish Hospital. Taking a frankly partisan position, Mr. Lance analyzed the history of Federation, its aims and the scope of its activities, and described briefly the attacks that have been leveled against this fund-raising organization by those who disagree with the policies of the trustees of the aforementioned hospital.

The floor was then opened for a general discussion of the matter, and the diversity of opinions expressed, as well as the warmth with which some of these thoughts were conveyed, attested to the clarity of Mr. Lance's analysis and to the concern that has been given to this question by the members of the Men's Club.

Rabbi Lookstein contributed in no small way to the success of the meeting, when, in his customary closing remarks, he gave his views on the subject. The Rabbi touched on the reli-

FROM ONE OF THE BOYS IN SERVICE

The following is a letter from Sam Heyman, the son of our dear members, Mr. and Mrs. William Heyman, who is stationed in Anchorage, Alaska. The letter speaks for itself:

30 Sept. 52

Dear Folks:

I had a successful fast yesterday. We broke the fast with a free dinner of salami, lox, herring, liverwurst, cake, tea, coffee and grape juice. It was provided by the Jewish Welfare Board in Seattle.

We stopped services at 1:30 and started them again at 3:30. Sundown was stated at 6:00. No announcement was made. I broke the fast with a Martini while the buffet was being prepared. No cream soda available.

The Rabbi, an army chaplain, caught a 2:00 plane for Fairbanks and Ladd Field to finish services there and have the dinner with them. There is only one Jewish Chaplain for the two bases, which means for all Alaska. He is kept busy. Maybe you can't ride on Yum Kippur, but you sure can fly!!! This northland requires laws of its own. The Hadassah here is known as the World's Farthest North Hadassah.

Love,

gious implications of the controversy which threatens to result in a severe breach in the entire Jewish community, and offered his suggestions as to how the matter should be handled.

Ira F. Weisman, president of the Men's Club, reported that in view of the reactions to Tuesday's meeting, the Program Committee is considering sponsoring another Supper-Meeting of a similar nature on November 18th, the next meeting date of the Men's Club. Further information will be published in coming issues of the BULLETIN.
