

COLLEGE YOUTH TO BE FETED AT
"COLLEGIATE SABBATH", DECEMBER 27

Once again, as a gesture of welcome to the sons and daughters of our members who will be returning home from out-of-town colleges for their winter vacations, the Congregation is planning to dedicate a special Sabbath — "Collegiate Sabbath" — to celebrate their home-coming. This year, December 27th has been designated, and an attractive program has been arranged in honor of our special guests.

YEAR BOOK CAMPAIGN OFF TO FINE START

The 1953 Year Book campaign, launched but recently, is beginning to show fine results, it was reported by Jules Podell, the chairman of the drive. Already a tidy number of ads have been received in the office — many of them having been solicited by members who are "rank beginners" in Year Book work. (Which, we may add, goes to prove what we have been repeating for a long time now: that one need not be experienced nor an ad-getting veteran in order to participate in the project.)

Last week, the office mailed to the members of the Congregation literature on the Year Book, and enlisted their cooperation in our efforts to raise $35,000 for the Educational Scholarship Fund. The method whereby our goal may be achieved is a simple one; it requires only a visit to a friend or a local storekeeper with whom you deal, to ask him for a contribution in the form of an ad.

Whether it's an ad for $20 or $200 — get it and get it today. Every possible assistance will be rendered by the Office. Don't hesitate to call upon us; don't hesitate, too, to call upon your friends and associates for their support.

At synagogue services that morning, the young college men among our worshippers will be honored with Aliyoth; and our "collegiettes" will be presented with corsages. For all to enjoy, there will be a buffet kiddush, served in the Auditorium following the services. If present plans materialize, a surprise feature, involving our college folk, will take place at the kiddush — a treat we know will be thoroughly enjoyed. The Sisterhood and Men's Club will act as hosts to our young guests at the kiddush.

A Collegiate Sabbath is a relatively new institution at Kehilath Jeshurun. From its inception a few years ago, however, it became an immediate successful venture—something our young people look forward to from the moment they start the semester's work at college. Participation in this special Sabbath has been growing consistently, and this year we are looking forward to having the largest attendance of collegiates ever.

Incidentally, collegiates will be the guests of our Sisterhood and Men's Club at the Chanukah Dinner-Dance and Entertainment this Sunday evening. We ask those who plan to attend to call the Synagogue Office by Friday so that the necessary arrangements may be made.

Rabbi Lookstein will preach this Sabbath at 10:45 a.m.
"THE DESCENDANTS OF THE MACCABEES FIGHT ON"

FROM OUR BENEVOLENT FUND

Last week, members of the Congregation received boxes of Chanukah candles with the compliments of the Benevolent Fund. Several of our members responded promptly and generously — a most gratifying response indeed.

It is in keeping with the spirit of the holiday to render an act of kindness through an agency such as our Benevolent Fund, to the many deserving individuals and causes which the Fund supports. Before any more time elapses, and before the eight days of Chanukah are gone, won't you send in your contribution?

Please make your checks payable to the Benevolent Fund and send them to the Synagogue Office

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE BAR MITZVAH BOYS

We extend our hearty Mazel Tov wishes to our devoted members, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Einhorn, on the occasion of the Bar Mitzvah of their son, Woody, this Saturday.

Woody is in the graduating class of P.S. 6 and plans to enter Stuyvesant High School in the fall where he will embark on an engineering career. In addition to his high scholastic attainments, Woody is quite an athlete, excelling in tennis and baseball.

At the service this Saturday, which will be held in our synagogue, Woody will chant the Haftorah.

Our Mazel Tov wishes, too, to Mr. and Mrs. Lester Krulwich on the Bar Mitzvah of their son, Lewis, a student at Ramaz, which will also take place this Saturday.

WITHIN OUR FAMILYBirthdays —

Many happy returns of the day to Mrs. Irving Angel, Dr. Samuel Gross, Mrs. Saul J. Lance, Mrs. William Lebowitz, Mrs. Isaac E. Okun, George Ratner, Mrs. Jack A. Rothenstein, Mrs. Moses Schonfeld, Dr. Max L. Som and Mrs. Robert Zessman.

Engagement —

Heartly felicitations to our esteemed members, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Gross, on the engagement of their daughter, Anne Linda, to Mr. Norman B. Ackerman.

Anniversary —

Greetings to Mr. and Mrs. David L. Lippoff who celebrate their wedding anniversary this week.

Speedy Recovery —

Warmest wishes for a speedy and complete recovery are extended to our devoted members, Mrs. Samuel B. Cooperman and Mrs. Ralph Hyman, and to Mrs. Nathan Wertheim, a devoted member of our Sisterhood.

Similar wishes are extended to little Salo Belkin, son of our esteemed members, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Belkin, who was injured by an automobile this week.

Vacationing —

Our esteemed members, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Marcus, are now on a cruise in the Caribbean, and Mr. and Mrs. Elliott W. Siegel are enjoying the sunnier climes of Florida. We wish them a pleasant and restful vacation.

Good to See You —

It was good to see our devoted member, Benjamin Jacoby, with us at services last week, recovered from his recent illness.
