

JERRY COAN, DR. FRANK GOODMAN, MAX SCHEIDT JOIN 1953 YEAR BOOK EFFORT

The addition of our esteemed members, Jerry Coan, Dr. Frank Goodman and Max S. Scheidt, onto the Honor Roll of Year Book workers, was announced this week by Jules Podell, chairman of the 1953 campaign. Mr. Coan and Dr. Goodman are no new-comers to this important activity; Mr. Scheidt, we note happily, has this year taken the work of the Educational Scholarship Fund to heart and is giving the Year Book drive the attention it deserves.

THE FATHER-AND-SON MINYAN

Attendance — and spirit — at the Father-and-Son Minyan continues on a high level. True, the recent bus strike made inroads in the number of youthful worshippers we customarily have every Sunday morning, but we can now look forward to having our usual complement of forty to fifty young men participate in the Minyan for the balance of the season.

While we are gratified at the response which the Minyan has met since it began in November, we are particularly pleased at the number of members of the Men's Club — the sponsoring body of the Minyan — who have volunteered as Patrons and have come down several Sunday mornings to join the young folk. Within the past two weeks our Patrons included Herman Charkey, Dr. Leo Edelman, Samson Eichler, George Jacobs, I. B. Jacobs, Morris Jaret, Alexander Kommel, Martin Markson, Nathaniel Robbins, Marvin Stokar and Dr. Ned Wachtel.

Once again, on behalf of the Men's Club and Haskel Lookstein, the young man who is in charge of the service, we extend an invitation to all boys — young and old — to attend every Sunday morning at 9:30, in the Chapel.

The list of members and friends engaged in soliciting ads has been growing consistently over the past few weeks. So, too, have we been climbing closer and closer to our $35,000 goal.

That is why we plead with our readers to get just one ad. We do not require of you that you neglect your business or other duties and concentrate only upon getting ads. We ask, simply, that you make a casual contact with those people whom you see daily or every so often; explain to them what you're after; give them the attractive ad-blank form.

Surely, no one will refuse to lend his support to so worthy an effort — a cause which exists for the sole purpose of rendering scholarship aid to children, who come to us from all parts of metropolitan New York, and who would like so much to continue their education at the schools we sponsor. Who can refuse assistance to a deserving young man or woman who wants to take college work but lacks the means? And won't anyone help send a youngster to camp for a few weeks' vacation? These are the purposes to which all Year Book proceeds are put.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

The next meeting of the Sisterhood Executive Board will be held on Monday, February 16th, at 12:30 o'clock, in the Library. Board members are urged to note the date and plan to attend.

Portrait Drawing to Be Held March 2nd —

Mrs. Alexander Gross and Mrs. Benjamin L. Leifert, co-chairmen of the Sisterhood Sixteenth Annual Luncheon, have announced that the drawing for the Portrait Painting Study, which is being conducted in conjunction with the gala affair, will be held at the next Open Meeting on Monday, March 2nd.

In connection with this announcement, we wish to make the following two points:

First — many other valuable gifts may be won by holders of lucky numbers, all of which are on the same raffle as the Portrait. These awards, however, will be made at the Luncheon which will take place on Tuesday, March 10th, in the Grand Ballroom of the Hotel Plaza.

Secondly — in order to be eligible for the drawing for the Portrait, your raffle stubs must be turned in by Wednesday, February 25th. The Portrait, as you know, will be done by the renowned artist, David Immerman.

Our word of advice, therefore: get busy on your raffle books without delay.

GOOD TO HAVE YOU BACK, RABBI

It appears that clergymen are not exempt from the ravages of flu epidemics and similar diseases. Our beloved Rabbi, Joseph H. Lookstein, was confined for over a week with illness, and only recently resumed his activities, albeit on a limited scale.

The Rabbi hopes, please God, to be in Synagogue this Sabbath and to occupy the pulpit to which he has brought such eminence. We hope the Rabbi will continue to occupy it in good health for many years to come.

OPEN SCHOOL WEEK IN RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

Jerome H. Rosenblum, principal of the afternoon Religious School, has announced the designation of next week as Open School Week. Beginning with Monday, February 9th, the school will welcome parents' visits to the classrooms to observe a regular session in progress.

The importance of parents' participation in Open School Week cannot be overemphasized. To all concerned — the pupil, the parent, the teacher and the school, as a whole — it has inestimable value.

Letters of invitation have already been mailed to parents of Religious School children. We take this opportunity to urge them to visit the school next week. Sessions are held in the afternoons, from 4:00 to 6:00 o'clock (including next Thursday, Lincoln's Birthday).

Executive Board

To Meet Tuesday —

Members of the Executive Board are reminded that a very important meeting of that body will be held this Tuesday evening, February 10th, at 8:30, in the Library. We urge them to be present.

"Hill-Billy" Levenson

To Star at Smoker —

We're in for a real treat next Tuesday evening, February 17th, at the Men's Club Annual Smoker!

In addition to the usual line-up of enjoyable pursuits to which our members look forward each year — and for which our Smokers are well-known throughout the city — we will have with us popular Hill-Billy Levenson.

You may have heard of William Levenson; you may even be one of his many admirers who know him well enough to call him "Bill". But until you've met and heard Hill-Billy Levenson, you "ain't enjoyed life".

Billy is getting set to regale us with songs and stories of the Far West (and Near East, too). With his trusty geetar to help him, he'll crowd into

WITHIN OUR FAMILY

Birthdays —

Many happy returns of the day to Mrs. Joseph N. Friedman, Mrs. Eugene Hollander, David Kahn, Julius Kohn, Oscar Perlberger and Mrs. Jerome I. Riker.

Anniversaries —

Best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel B. Jacobs and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stokar who celebrated their wedding anniversaries this week.

his allotted time all the entertainment your sides will take, and we promise you'll give out with some of the heartiest guffaws you're capable of producing.

There's no charge for admission; we'll be only too happy to have you and your guests. That's for Tuesday evening, February 17th, in the Social Hall.

Welfare Fund —

Generous contributions for sponsoring the breakfasts of our Father-and-Son Minyan have been received from Samson Eichler, George Jacobs, I. B. Jacobs, Alexander Kommel and Nathaniel Robbins. Thank you, gentlemen.
