FATHER-AND-SON MINYAN TO CONDUCT CLOSING SERVICE SUNDAY MORNING

The Father-and-Son Minyan will hold its concluding service of the year this Sunday morning, April 26th, at 9:30 o'clock, in the Chapel. To bring its season to an auspicious close, the Minyan has invited Rabbi Lookstein to speak at the service.

We sometimes become boastful when we talk about this Men's Club-sponsored activity; please attribute it not to immodesty on our part, but to the pride which we take in the fact that, week in and week out, a fine group of our teen-age boys turns out to do what we feel is an outstanding job in a vital area of Jewish life. The young men are learning to become "at home" with the morning synagogue service — something that many of their elders are, for one reason or another, unfamiliar with. Not only do our "Minyanaires" participate in the service; they conduct it in its entirety, and can lead it as well as men two and three times their age. Further, thanks to the efforts of Haskel Lookstein, the young man in charge of the Minyan, our boys are introduced to the background, history and reason of the prayers and of the observances of the synagogue rituals that take place during a service.

We know that those who joined our roster of Patrons during the course of the past year, are as proud of the Minyan as we are. The two or three services that these Patrons attended were truly experiences that they enjoyed and will long remember. And we want our Patrons to know that

SISTERHOOD NEWS

The Sisterhood's method of celebrating Israel's fifth birthday was more than successful, from a variety of viewpoints. The Luncheon and Card Party that was arranged for last Monday afternoon was, in the first place, unusually well attended. Secondly, the Emergency Cash Fund of the United Jewish Appeal, to which all proceeds were earmarked, received a handsome contribution. Then, our guests were greatly impressed with the simple but dignified ceremonies that were held in honor of the anniversary of the establishment of Israel. Finally, the many Sisterhood members and friends who were with us enjoyed a most pleasant informal afternoon at cards, mah jongg, scrabble and the like, after partaking of a deliciously prepared luncheon. In addition, there was the exhibit of modern Jewish ceremonial objects, set up by Mr. Joseph Wolpert of the Bezalel School in Jerusalem, to be enjoyed, and — you can ask anyone who saw it — some of the work displayed was breath-taking in its beauty and design.

You can well imagine the wonderful spirit that an occasion such as this engenders; it would therefore be superfluous to describe all that took place in the Social Hall Monday. We would like to say a word about the formal proceedings attendant upon the birthday celebration. Brief and to the point, they consisted of a Prayer for Israel's future recited by Mrs. Seppy I. Silberman, chairman of the affair; the lighting of five candles on a blue-and-white birthday cake, which was done by the oldest and youngest Sisterhood members; and the singing of Hatikvah, with a feeling rarely before heard.

To all who, by their presence and cooperation, helped in the success of this function — particularly, to Mrs. Silberman and the members of her committee — we extend our congratulations for an affair beautifully planned and conducted.

ROBERT JABLON BAR MITZVAH

We extend our heartiest Mazel Tov wishes to Mr. and Mrs. David Jablon, on the occasion of the Bar Mitzvah of their son, Robert, a student in the highest class of our afternoon Religious School, this Saturday.

Robert is a pupil of Junior High School 30, where he excels in English and Social Studies. He has not as yet formulated definite plans for his future; although he is considering making the army his career. Leisure time is spent in a variety of sports — more as a participant than as a spectator — with particular emphasis on fishing.

At services at our Synagogue this Sabbath, Robert will chant the Haftarah.

WITHIN OUR FAMILY

Birthdays —

Many happy returns of the day to Harry Abramson, Leon Feldman, Mrs. Sidney Flatow, Martin Klein, Oscar Perlberger, Elliott W. Siegel, David Silver and Simon Vogel.

Bon Voyage —

Best wishes for a pleasant journey and a safe return are extended to our devoted members, Mr. and Mrs. Adolf John Elkeles, who are leaving this week for a trip to Europe.

Welcome Home —

We join our esteemed members, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice N. Jaffe, in welcoming Thomas Mohr back home, having served his country in the army for two years, the last ten months of which were spent in Korea.

AN INTERESTING AND MEMORABLE EVENING AWAITS YOU

MINYAN CLOSING SERVICE

their interest in the Minyan has been most encouraging to the youthful worshippers — and they appreciate it.

A fond au revoir and a "royal send-off" is due the Minyan. That is why we invite all of our men — young and old, whether or not you have previously attended a service — to join us this Sunday morning. You will enjoy the service; you will enjoy Rabbi Lookstein's remarks; and you will enjoy the breakfast which it will be our pleasure to serve.

ATTENTION, MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

One half-hour prior to the Membership meeting this Thursday evening, the Board of Trustees will hold a short session to discuss some very important items.

Members of the Board are therefore requested to be in the Synagogue Library at 8:00 o'clock this Thursday evening, so that the Annual Membership Meeting may begin at the time scheduled, 8:30.
