

FATHER-AND-SON MINYAN RESUMES SERVICE SUNDAY

Inaugurating its sixth year of weekly morning service, the Father-and-Son Minyan will resume meeting this Sunday, October 11th at 9:30 o'clock in the Synagogue Chapel. Known formerly as the Young People's Minyan it continues under the active sponsorship of the Men's Club.

This activity, which in the past has been received with enthusiasm and anticipation, affords the opportunity for young people to worship in a well planned

JUNIOR CONGREGATION TO BEGIN SATURDAY

The Junior Congregation will begin its weekly Sabbath Service this Saturday morning, October 10th at 10 o'clock, in the Chapel.

We know that the youngsters who reside in our community will welcome this bit of news, for they have come to enjoy this weekly feature and to participate in it in greater numbers with every succeeding year. We are certain, too, that they will be interested in knowing that a good deal of careful study has again gone into this year's Junior Congregation, to the end that it will be enriched to an even greater extent than in past years, and that it will bear more meaning and significance to the youngsters themselves.

Again, Mr. Manfred Rechtschaffen will be in charge of the service. A graduate of Ramaz, Mr. Rechtschaffen is currently attending Yeshiva University, and has several years of experience in handling groups of this kind. Last year he so popularized the service that is appealing to its congregants. It is also an occasion when fathers may join their sons and daughters in a religious service on a morning of the week which is free from business responsibilities and other obligations. It is, furthermore, an occasion for all participants to join in a community breakfast at the close of the service, to eat together, socialize together, and enjoy a period of athletic activity in the gym.

The Men's Club will continue its policy, instituted so successfully last year, of having its membership volunteer as patrons on different Sundays. In this way the Synagogue "fathers" join the Synagogue "sons" in prayer.

This year again the Minyan will continue under the supervision of Has- kel Lookstein, himself a Minyan graduate, whose personal experience and ability are used to good advantage in the guidance of the Minyan program.

We would like to keep our Minyan growing and we cordially invite the young men and their fathers to attend the first service of the Minyan this Sunday morning.

activity, that our youngsters have virtually clamored for his return.

Under Mr. Rechtschaffen's guidance the service has been made meaningful for the boys and girls between the ages of 8 and 12 who attend. The youngsters themselves are encouraged to take over as much as possible of the service.

Regular attendance at the Junior Congregation has its own reward in educational and pedagogical gains. A more tangible reward to the youngsters, however, will be given for attending the service every Saturday morning. Prizes are given for attendance, parties are frequently held, and every Saturday following the service a Kiddush is served.

Encourage your child or your neighbor's child to attend
