YEAR BOOK GAINS MOMENTUM AS NINETEEN FIFTY-FOUR ROLLS IN Samuel Frank and Jack Buvitt Join Ad-Getters

LARGE CONGREGATION HONORS COLLEGIATES

A large congregation of members and friends attended Services last Saturday morning in honor of the special Collegiate Sabbath. Especially gratifying was the presence of many of our college youth who were the guests of honor on this occasion.

Collegiates Take Over —

The entire service was conducted by our youth in an experienced and professional way. Officiating as cantors were Franklin Holzer, Shacharith, and Haskel Lookstein, Musaf. The Torah was read by George Gruen, Ari Icikov and Morton Schatzman. The Haftorah was chanted by Marvin Stokar. Torah honors were distributed to the young men. The young women received corsages.

Panel Discussion —

At the conclusion of the services the congregation was directed to the Auditorium of the Synagogue House which they filled to overflowing. There the panel discussion was held. Rabbi Lookstein introduced the panelists: Frances Holzer, Fred Zuckerman and Ida Westerman, who discussed the topic, "A Jew at College — Problems and Opportunities". Each spoke on the nature of the problem at his respective college and how he attempted

The response to our Year Book campaign has gathered added momentum at the arrival of the year 1954 with the addition of two more workers to this effort. Mr. Samuel Frank and Mr. Jack Buvitt have been busily engaged in soliciting ads and have brought in many ads for the Year Book.

Our list of Year Book workers is constantly growing but many more are still needed. We have appealed to all our members and friends to join in this worthy project.

The Year Book project is unique in that none of its proceeds goes to the Synagogue itself. All monies go exclusively to the Educational Scholarship Fund. This Fund provides scholarships so that worthy students can attend the Ramaz School, the Religious School, summer camps and even Universities.

Mr. Jules Podell, chairman of the Year Book, has again emphasized the point that everyone, no matter what line he is in, has many sources he can contact for ads.

We have many active workers but we must broaden our base. If each of our members and friends were to bring in but one ad, we would easily make our quota.

The need is great, the cause worthy. We hope that all will pitch in and join the 1954 Year Book Campaign.

Rabbi Lookstein will preach this Sabbath at 11:00 a.m.

"ZIONIST AND NON-ZIONIST—WHAT DO THESE TERMS MEAN NOW?"

SIGMUND ROTHSCHILD GUEST AT SISTERHOOD MEETING

Famed Appraiser To Conduct "Treasure Hunt"

The Sisterhood Open Meeting of Monday afternoon, January 11th, will feature Mr. Sigmund Rothschild, well-known appraiser and fine arts restorer, who will discuss antiques and how to buy them. As a special feature, Mr. Rothschild will conduct a "Treasure Hunt" similar to his television show, in which he will appraise articles submitted by members of the Sisterhood.

Well known to professional antique collectors and art dealers throughout the world for his ability to track down the values of obscure antiques and art objects, Mr. Rothschild has been at his interesting and unique craft for many years. His more famous finds include: six letters valued at $100,000 which were written by Abraham Lincoln's wife to the forbear of an Englewood, N. J. woman; a painting bought by a client for $105 which he restored as a genuine Titian valued between $30,000 and $100,000.

Here is a remarkable opportunity for members and friends to have articles appraised. During the time allotted, Mr. Rothschild will be able to appraise 50 objects. Since there will be many more requests than this, arrangements must be made prior to the meeting either by calling or by stopping in at the Synagogue office. To defray the expense involved in having Mr. Rothschild present, there will be a charge of $1.00 for each item appraised.

Mr. Rothschild has emphasized that there need be no hesitancy about bringing in any kind of article. Into his studios come items from everywhere — two ton granite carvings and petrified ants; 1880 penny valentines and early Sears Roebuck catalogues. From to resolve them. Those present were so moved by the mature and inspiring comments that they burst into applause.

Following the discussion, a sumptuous buffet Kiddush was served in the Social Hall where the Men's Club and Sisterhood acted as hosts.

Although Collegiate Sabbath has been celebrated for the past years, the form it took this year represented something new and different. This was the first time the collegiates took over the service and the first time the panel discussion was held. It was a pleasure for everyone to see how well the young people did. The services and the discussion were conducted in an expert way. Kehilath Jeshurun can well be proud of these young men and women who were brought up and educated by its own institutions of learning.

them is determined their value in terms of money and their value in terms of history and interest.

Luncheon To Be Served —

As usual, the Open Meeting will begin at 12:30 with another fine dessert luncheon. All members and friends are invited and in view of the special occasion are requested to come on time to provide Mr. Rothschild more time for his unique performance.

Sisterhood Board Meeting —

An advance notice is here given to all members of the Sisterhood Executive Board that their next meeting will be held on Monday, January 25.
