SYNAGOGUE RESPLENDENT IN SHEVUOTH ATTIRE

The Festival of Shevuoth was celebrated in Kehilath Jeshurun in a manner that was spiritually inspiring and in surroundings that were aesthetically beautiful. The Main Synagogue was decorated with an exceptionally lovely floral and leaf display to represent that part of the holiday which is known as Chag Habikkurim, the Festival of the First Fruits.

The services both days of Shevuoth were conducted in the dignified and moving way that is the tradition in our Synagogue and both services were remarkably well attended. We were especially pleased with the second day of Shevuoth. On that day it had all too often become the unfortunate custom for many to arrive only for the Yizkor prayers and then depart upon their conclusion. We regard Yizkor as part of the total service and therefore we were very pleased with the large number that came for the beginning of the morning service and stayed until the end.

The Book of Remembrance, in which are recorded the names of those in whose memory a Yizkor offering was made, was made available to our worshippers at this Memorial service.

PRIZES FOR JUNIOR CONGREGATION

All those children from our Junior Congregation who turned in their "attendance tags" and filled out the prize form can pick up their prizes this week in the synagogue office.

REGISTRATION IN RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NOW IN PROGRESS

Theodore Comet, principal of the afternoon Religious School, has announced that registration of children for the new school year is now in progress and will continue until the end of June. The new school year will open Monday, September 13, beginning with which date classes will meet on regular schedule for full instruction.

Parents of children now attending are urged to re-enroll their sons and daughters before they leave for their summer vacations. We should like to point out that re-registration of these children is not automatic; a registration form — which parents will soon receive — must be completed and returned to the school office before any child can be considered enrolled for the new year.

Those of our readers who know of children who are eligible for admission to our Religious School, are urged to refer them to us.

PLEASE NOTE

The Holiday of Shevuoth fell this past week on Monday and Tuesday. Since these are the days during which the Bulletin is usually prepared we are going to press this week with a smaller-than-usual issue.

The final Bulletin of the season will be published next week.
