

We extend to all our members and friends, young and old, best wishes for a very happy Chanukah.

COLLEGIATE SABBATH TO BE HELD DEC. 25th Herman Wouk to Lead Special Seudah-Seminar

The college men and women of Kehilath Jeshurun who are home for the winter vacation will be our guests at a special service in their honor, that will be held in our Synagogue on Saturday morning, December 25th.

On that Sabbath, our young men will receive Torah honors to the extent that the weekly portion will permit. All the young ladies will be remembered with floral corsages in honor of the occasion. A special buffet Kiddush

CHANUKAH IN THE SYNAGOGUE AND IN THE HOME

There are many signs in the air that Chanukah is coming. The festive characteristic of this holiday is well reflected in the gayly decorated lobby of our Synagogue House. Again on display is the beautiful six foot bronze candelabra that was presented by the Jewish community of Budapest, Hungary.

Chanukah is a grand holiday which is fully celebrated in our Synagogue and in our Religious Schools. It is important that it also be celebrated in the home. We would like to point out several ways in which Chanukah can be brought meaningfully into the home: have each child light his own candle in his own Menorah and make the candle lighting a family affair with everyone doing it; serve the special foods associated with Chanukah including, of course, the famous latke; decorate the home with various Chanukah motifs, either professionally made or by members of the household; have on hand books with Chanukah stories and tell them to the young ones. In short, make Chanukah meaningful by having it experienced in many ways, with all the senses, by all the members of the family.

The first Chanukah candle should be lit this coming Sunday evening, December 19th, after sundown, with one additional candle added each evening until the full complement of eight candles, besides the Shamosh, is reached.

Chanukah Benevolent Fund -

Another traditional form of celebration is the giving of Charity. The Synagogue has sent to all of its members and friends a box of lovely twisted candles in many colors and made in Israel. These candles were sent with the compliments of the Benevolent Fund which helps maintain hundreds of worthy charities and individuals.

In keeping with the spirit of Chanukah we ask that you practice an act of charity and respond generously to the Benevolent Fund. All contributions should be made directly to the Synagogue Office.

Rabbi Lookstein will Deliver this Sabbath at 11:00 a.m. the concluding address on "THE REVISED MARRIAGE CONTRACT OF THE CONSERVATIVE RABBINATE" will be served in the Social Hall at the close of services, with the Men's Club and Sisterhood acting as hosts.

At the close of services in the Main Synagogue, the congregation will proceed to the Auditorium of the Synagogue House to listen to a panel of three collegiates who will speak on the subject, "The Forces of Religion and Irreligion on the College Campus."

Our three collegiate panelists will be Elliot M. Gross, a senior at Columbia University, who has been accepted at N.Y.U. – Bellevue Medical School; Ruth H. Joseph, who attends Harvard Law School; and Sylvia Schneider, a student at Barnard College. Lawrence Kobrin, attending Columbia Law School, will act as moderator.

These four young people are part of the Kehilath Jeshurun family. They have made their mark in college and have won scholastic honors. It would prove enlightening to hear their impressions gained through experience as to what religious and irreligious influences exist on the American college campus.

This panel discussion was introduced last year with such success that we have received many requests to make it a steady feature.

Herman Wouk to Lead Seudah-Seminar —

An additional feature this year for our collegiates will be the Sabbath Seudah-Seminar. At this weekly Seminar, members of the congregation act as discussion leaders.

In honor of our collegiates, we are having as our guest, on December 25th, Mr. Herman Wouk, the Pulitzer Prize winner. Mr. Wouk has long been interested in our Jewish youth and will have much to offer on that occasion.

OUR CHILDREN'S WORLD

Last week the life of Moses was discussed in one of the classes of our Afternoon Religious School. After the session, this conversation was overheard between two students. "Imagine" said one, "Moses was the only man ever to see God." Replied the second, "Yes, and it's too bad he didn't have a camera along to snap a picture of Him."

tertainment for their children returning from school. Why not also provide religious recreation, so necessary for young people who are away from home a good part of the year.

It is therefore extremely desirable for all parents, whether they have children at college or not to be in Synagogue that Saturday. Their presence will serve not alone as an example of synagogue attendance but as an encouragement to the youth of the congregation. Kehilath Jeshurun offers all an opportunity to spend an inspirational Sabbath. Come and take advantage of it. A hearty welcome is extended to all our congregants and to their friends.
