

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL TO ATTEND
CHILDREN'S THEATRE

Theodore Comet, Principal, announced that the children of our Afternoon Religious School will continue the practice established last year and will hold their own theatre party on Sunday afternoon, March 13th, at 2:30 P.M. The play that will be seen is "Asher Levy in New Amsterdam", a presentation of the Jewish Theatre for Children Department of the Jewish Education Committee.

This play was originally presented four years ago and is being brought back by popular request. It is especially appropriate in this Tercentenary year for its colorful and exciting recreation of the birth pangs of the first Jewish community in this country.

The central plot concerns itself with the story of Asher Levy, a Dutch Jew, who defied Peter Stuyvesant and led the first fight for freedom and equality in the new world. Although dealing with a serious theme, it is an exciting play for children to watch; it has Indians, dancers, songs and villains.

Kehilath Jeshurun has reserved a special section and an invitation is extended not only to the members of our Religious School, but to parents and friends as well. The cost is 75 cents per child and $1.00 per adult. The play will be performed at the Joan of Arc Playhouse, 154 West 93rd Street.

We must know in advance how many will be attending. We ask that all those interested please make their reservations by February 15th.

RABBI LOOKSTEIN LEAVES FOR WEST COAST

On January 24th, Rabbi Lookstein is leaving for the West Coast to fill an important engagement to which he has been assigned by Yeshiva University. The primary objective of the trip is to consolidate the existing day schools in the city of Los Angeles and to make them more effective institutions in the day school movement.

Mrs. Lookstein is accompanying the Rabbi on the trip. They expect to be back the 3rd or the 4th of February. We extend to them best wishes for a successful mission and for a safe return.

CANTORIAL FEATURE THIS SATURDAY

This Saturday during the Musaf service Cantor Konigsberg will sing a special melody to the "Retzey" prayer. The melody is composed by Schlossberg and adapted by Cantor Konigsberg.

SISTERHOOD DONOR LUNCHEON LIVES UP TO EXPECTATIONS

They've gone and done it again, is the popular saying and it certainly applies to the Sisterhood Donor Luncheon which took place this past Tuesday afternoon in our Social Hall. "This affair received quite a build up and we were expecting a lot," remarked one woman as she was leaving. "but we got even more than we bargained for." This comment just about sums up the Luncheon.

It was certainly a lovely affair and a wonderful compliment to Mrs. A. Phillip Goldsmith, the hard working chairman of the Luncheon Committee, and to her able assistants, Mrs. Richard Kolb and Mrs. Oscar Perlberger, Luncheon Treasurer. Mrs. Goldsmith's personal touch was particularly noticeable in the elegant decor. The table centerpieces and the wall and ceiling decorations were unusually effective.

Mrs. Hyman Abrams, Sisterhood President, presided at this occasion and presented her report in her usual charming and ingratiating way. The program began with a fashion show of knitwear and the styles displayed were quite unusual. Full credit and thanks for this fashion show go to Etka Kent, 20 West 58th Street, who not only presented the show but supplied her own professional models.

As a special guest, we had Louis Mannard, a singer of high caliber who has sung with La Scala and other Italian Opera Companies. Mr. Mannard delighted his audience with his musical renditions.

Although a Sisterhood affair, the men folk were represented. Mr. Hyman I. Bucher, Men's Club President, extended greetings from the Men's Club and Mr. Max J. Etra, President of the Congregation, extended the best wishes of Kehilath Jeshurun.

The climax of the occasion was reached with the talk given by Rabbi Lookstein. The Rabbi thanked the Sisterhood for the wonderful work they did. He described boredom as being one of the major problems of our times and showed how the Sisterhood program presented an activity in which women could participate and do something for people rather than to people.

The smoothness of the affair showed the effects of the many hours of hard work put into it. Our thanks certainly go to Mrs. Goldsmith and her committee; to Mrs. Hyman Abrams and Mrs. Joseph H. Lookstein for their untiring efforts; to the Door Committee: Mrs. Hyman I. Cohen, Mrs. Bernard D. Fischman and Mrs. Romie Shapiro; to the contributors of prizes for our raffle (their names were listed on the program). Finally, our thanks to all those who attended and by their presence helped make it a wonderful event.

From a financial viewpoint, the success of this luncheon means that the Sisterhood can continue to meet its philanthropic commitments. It means that the Scholarship Fund of Ramaz School and the Afternoon Religious School would again receive generous grants so that deserving youngsters, unable to pay their tuition rates, could continue their schooling with us.

It means something else too. It means that the Sisterhood of Kehilath Jeshurun is a vibrant, dynamic and successful group.

ISRAELI WINES GETTING WARM RECEPTION IN U. S.

Wines made in Israel are being favorably received in the United States by the general public and the Jewish community, according to a recent study.

Israel has been known since Biblical days as a grape-growing country. Wine usage has figured prominently in Jewish religious life throughout the centuries. Today, the State of Israel produces a large variety of sweet and dry wines, including Rishon (a sacramental grape wine), Tokay, Sauterne, Hock and Adom Atic (Burgundy). Israel's wines have been acclaimed throughout Europe, for many years. In recent months, a determined effort has been launched to introduce wines made in Israel in this country.

Our members are urged to support this effort, since the Israeli wines are not only superb products, but also because increased wine exports from Israel will help to strengthen the new State's economy. Israeli wines are strictly kosher.
