YEAR BOOK DRIVE GAINING MOMENTUM AS NEW AD-GETTERS JOIN EFFORT

WELCOME BACK, RABBI

We are happy to extend a hearty welcome to Rabbi and Mrs. Lookstein who have just returned from an important mission for Yeshiva University on the West Coast. The purpose of the trip was to consolidate the existing day schools in the city of Los Angeles.

We all know that the development of day schools is Rabbi Lookstein's pet project and from all reports we understand that he has done an effective job in strengthening this movement in Los Angeles.

KOSHER FOOD UP IN THE AIR

We know that many of our readers make trips by airplane to Florida during this time of the year, and for their benefit we have unearthed the following information. National Airlines has made arrangements with kosher restaurants to provide them with suitable meals for their Jewish clientele on first class flights. For coach flights, kosher corned beef sandwiches are provided.

We note with interest that in this case, as well as in many others, local and national concerns are quick to respond in meeting the needs of their Jewish patrons.

The months of January and February are key months in our Year Book campaign and we are happy to note that during this time the response to our Year Book has been gratifying. Trustees, members and readers have joined the effort in recent weeks. These include: Harry W. Baumgarten, Jack Buvitt, William B. Fischberg, Samuel Frank, Samuel Goldberg, Mrs. Frank Goodman, Martin Klein, Aaron H. Onish, Isadore Schlang, Romie Shapiro and Elliott W. Siegel.

We know that many others are in the process of soliciting ads, while additional results have come in from Thomas Bornstein, Al Feiner, Richard Kolb, Frederick Margareten, Oscar Perlberger and Louis W. Yohann.

As we have mentioned so often before, the sole beneficiary of the Year Book is the Educational Scholarship Fund. This Fund should be the responsibility of all of us. The Jewish education of young children is a mitzvah that concerns each and every one of us, and is not to be relegated to only a handful of interested workers.

At the last meeting of the Board of Trustees, a resolution was passed making it a moral responsibility for each trustee to bring in a minimum of $100.00 in ads and each member $25.00. At a special brunch held on January 16th, a large representation of members and trustees again reaffirmed their support of this project.

SISTERHOOD TO HOLD THEATRE PARTY MARCH 29th

Mrs. Romie Shapiro Appointed Chairman

Mrs. Hyman Abrams, President, announced that the Sisterhood's Annual Theatre Party will take place on Tuesday evening, March 29th, and that Mrs. Romie Shapiro has been appointed chairman of this affair.

The Theatre Party is one of the Sisterhood's major activities and each year has been a financial and social success. This year we anticipate an even finer response and more tickets are being made available.

The play selected is written by Tennessee Williams, the Pulitzer Prize Playwright, and is entitled, "Cat on the Hot Tin Roof". The titles of Mr. Williams' plays have a tendency to be unusual and some say, the more unusual they are, the better the play. In this case, our selection should be a smash hit.

If there is no such thing as a sure bet, there are such things as odds on favorites, and this play is certainly one. It is directed by Academy Award Winner, Elia Kazan and the cast includes such outstanding performers as Barbara Bel Geddes, Mildred Dunnock, Berl Ives and Ben Gezarra.

We anticipate a large response and we urge you to insure getting the best seats by making your reservations early. Ticket arrangements can be made by calling Mrs. Romie Shapiro, SA 2-6513, or the Synagogue Office at SA 2-0800.

BENNETT L. GERSHMAN BAR MITZVAH

We extend our heartiest Mazel Tov wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Gershman on the Bar Mitzvah this Saturday of their son, Bennett, a pupil at Ramaz.

Bennett has been attending Ramaz since kindergarten and is an active participant in all phases of school activity. His favorite hobby is painting, but he is also very fond of sports with football his special favorite.

At services which will be held in our Synagogue this Saturday, Bennett will read the portion of the week, as well as chant the Haftorah.

METROPOLITAN MUSEUM EXHIBITS JEWISH CEREMONIAL OBJECTS

One hundred and fifty rare Jewish ceremonial objects for the Synagogue and home are now being shown in the exhibit "Art of the Hebrew Tradition" at the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

This exhibit commemorates the tercentenary of the first permanent Jewish community in America which was established in 1654 on Manhattan Island. This display will remain on view through Sunday, February 27th. The exhibit includes such objects used in the Synagogue as Torah ornaments, Ark curtains, Torah cases, mantles, headpieces, crowns and breastplates. Also on display are objects created for ceremonial use in the home. These include Sabbath lamps, spice containers, wine cups, Passover plates and Chanukah lamps. We are sure that this exhibit will be of interest to our readers.

MINYAN PROGRAM ON "CAREERS" RECEIVES WARM WELCOME

Last Sunday morning, we instituted a new feature in our Father-and-Son Minyan. Mr. Victor Wouk, an electronic physicist, gave a short talk on career possibilities in the field of Science. Mr. Wouk also made some interesting comments on the application of Jewish training to scientific disciplines.

A large turnout of young men and parents were on hand to listen to Mr. Wouk and they gave him a very warm reception. This coming Sunday morning our member, Mr. Jacob P. Shulman, will speak on "Careers in Real Estate".

We would again like to extend a hearty welcome to our members and friends to join us on Sunday morning for the Minyan program. Service begins at 9:30 A.M. in the Chapel and is followed by Brunch and a gym period.

"JEWRY" DUTY

We would like to extend our thanks and appreciation to those who served on "Jewry" duty and attended services this past week. They are: Ludo Fleischman, Dr. Ned Wachtel and David Warshavsky.

We would also like to announce here that our volunteers for the coming week are: Morton Kamerman, Nathan Salzman and Dr. Robert Wallach.

NO TALMUD CLASS THIS WEDNESDAY

The Talmud Class will not meet this Wednesday evening, February 9th. Sessions will continue as usual the following week, under the direction of Rabbi Roth.

WITHIN OUR FAMILY

Birthdays —

Many happy returns of the day to Israel Cummings, Mrs. Joseph N. Friedman, Mrs. Leopold Heffner, Mrs. Eugene Hollander, Mrs. Maurice N. Jaffe, Julius Kohn, Oscar Perlberger and Miss Cecillie Weiss.

Bar Mitzvah —

A hearty Mazel Tov to Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Beller on the Bar Mitzvah this Saturday of their son, Milton. Milton is a pupil at Ramaz School.

Anniversaries —

A happy Wedding Anniversary to Mr. and Mrs. Martin Markson, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Schenker and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stokar.

YEAR BOOK EFFORT

We cannot impress too strongly the urgency of the drive this year. More and more we are called upon to provide Jewish training in Ramaz School and our Afternoon Religious School for an ever increasing number of boys and girls. Only through the medium of this Fund will we be able to do so.

Please don't put it off another day. Get one ad — in any amount — or, call upon the Synagogue Office to help you if you have several people to contact.
