WORSHIPPERS INSPIRED BY IMPRESSIVE HIGH HOLY DAY SERVICES

RESERVATIONS FOR MEALS IN SUKKAH CAN NOW BE MADE

We are now in the process of making arrangements for Holiday meals to be served in our Sukkah during the first two days of the Sukkoth festival. Full course catered meals will be served on three occasions, Friday evening, September 30th, Saturday and Sunday afternoon, October 1st and 2nd.

Plans for Sukkah meals were formulated in order to render the observance of Jewish holidays more meaningful and more beautiful. Our large and beautifully decorated Sukkah is on the third floor of the Synagogue House, and will be the scene of joyous festivity appropriate to the spirit of Sukkoth.

The price per plate has been set at a nominal $6.50. This covers everything that will be required, including gratuities.

Forty Reservations Needed —

In order for us to make these arrangements for catered meals we must have at least forty reservations. If we do not have that number we cannot go through with our plans. Therefore if you would like to take advantage of this offer contact the Synagogue Office not later than this Tuesday morning, September 27th. Please do not delay making your reservation.

It is again our pleasure to record that the High Holy Day season was ushered in with services that inspired our worshippers and marked a new high for Kehilath Jeshurun. From the opening notes of the Cantor on the first eve of Rosh Hashanah our congregation participated in a religious experience that they will long remember.

Last year Rabbi Lookstein introduced a novel sermon arrangement. Instead of placing the sermon before the Musaf service, he delivered it towards the conclusion of the service. This arrangement was put into effect this year and again met with great success.

The first day of Rosh Hashanah Rabbi Lookstein preached a powerful sermon on the topic, "A Sense of Security, Religion's Prescription Against Fear". In his talk the Rabbi emphasized that A Sense of Security is generated from within and is not induced from without.

On the second day of Rosh Hashanah our Assistant Rabbi, Sol Roth, delivered an excellent sermon on the topic, "The Pursuit of Power, Where It May Be Found".

The services this year marked the second time that our Cantor, Jacob Konigsberg, and our Ritual Director, Israel D. Rosenberg, officiated. Mr. Rosenberg chanted the Shacharith prayers and impressed the worshippers with his piety, sincerity and

RABBI LOOKSTEIN TO REVIEW "MARJORY MORNINGSTAR" AT FIRST SISTERHOOD OPENING MEETING —

Mrs. Hyman Abrams, Sisterhood President, announced a special treat for the Sisterhood Open Meeting on Monday, October 17th. Rabbi Lookstein will discuss the best selling novel, "Marjory Morningstar" written by Herman Wouk, a member of the Synagogue.

This meeting will begin at 12:30 P.M. in the Social Hall, and a desert luncheon will be served. Our members and friends are invited to what promises to be a very stimulating and enjoyable meeting. We recommend, for added enjoyment, that you read the book before coming to the meeting.

Board Meeting October 3rd —

The first Board Meeting of the year will be held on Monday, October 3rd, at 12:30 P.M. in the Social Hall. All Board Members are urged to attend this meeting.

Happy Day Fund —

We acknowledge with thanks a contribution to our Happy Day Fund from Mrs. Seppy I. Silberman.

Members are urged to share their joyous occasions with others by making a gift to the Happy Day Fund. Contributions are to be sent to the Happy Day Fund Chairman, Mrs. Samuel Gross, 311 East 72nd Street,

CONDOLENCES

We record with sorrow the passing of Helen Engel, beloved sister of our devoted member, Isidore Grossman; Sarah B. Simon, beloved mother of our esteemed member, Dr. Kona Simon; David Bluver, beloved brother of our devoted member, Mrs. Rose Kolker; and David Feifer, beloved brother of our esteemed member, Alexander Feifer.

We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the members of the bereaved families, and we pray that the Almighty spare them further sorrow for many years to come.

lovely chassidic melodies. His excellent Torah readings and Shofar blowing added to the effect of the services.

Cantor Konigsberg delighted the congregants with his extraordinary voice and fine Cantorial renditions. Beautiful voices chanting the traditional prayers and familiar congregational melodies sung lustily and enthusiastically all blended together to render the liturgical phase of the service a thing of great beauty.

By adding up the renditions of Cantor Konigsberg and our Ritual Director, Mr. Rosenberg, with the inspiring sermons of our Rabbis and the explanatory interpolations given by Rabbi Lookstein throughout the entire service, we can readily understand why our congregants were thrilled and impressed.

Junior Congregation —

A warm reception was accorded the Junior Congregation High Holiday service, conducted this year for the first time. Over 50 youthful worshippers, boys and girls, took advantage of this service, ably conducted by Franklin Holzer, geared to the level of understanding.

Although necessarily abridged, the service nevertheless conveyed the full flavor of Rosh Hashanah through selected prayers, recitations, songs and stories. There was even the reading of the Torah and the blowing of the Shofar.

Junior Congregation services will be held this Saturday morning and Yom Kippur morning from 10:30 to 12:30 o'clock, and on Yom Kippur afternoon from 4:30 to 5:30 o'clock.

Cantor Konigsberg will chant the Kol Nidre prayer with the WEVD Chorus this Sunday morning on the program "The Forward Hour". This program begins at 11:25 over Station WEVD.

WORSHIPPERS URGED TO ACQUIRE LULAV AND ETHROG

The Sukkoth festival will begin on Friday, Sept. 30th at Sundown. In order to prepare for the holiday, we urge our worshippers to provide themselves with a Lulav and Ethrog, and to arrange for their acquisition without delay.

There are several reasons why we stress this matter. First and foremost, of course, is that Sukkoth cannot properly be observed without making a benediction over these articles. Second, the participation of a greater number of worshippers in the procession in the synagogue, each holding a Lulav and Ethrog, will make for a more impressive ceremony and beautiful service. And we add as a third reason that by making this purchase we are helping our brethren in Israel. Kosher Ethrogim are imported from the groves of Israel where so many depend for their livelihood on the sale of these citrus fruits.

You can thus accomplish many ends by purchasing a Lulav and Ethrog. Our Ritual Director, Mr. Israel D. Rosenberg, will be only too happy to be of assistance to you. A call to the Synagogue Office will bring the desired results.
