

TWELVE STUDENTS OF RAMAZ SCHOOL WIN STATE REGENTS SCHOLARSHIPS

Graduates Admitted to Leading Colleges

Among the winners of Regents State Scholarships recently announced in the public press, there were twelve students of Ramaz School. Thirty Ramaz students took the examination and forty percent of that number won scholarships. We are reliably informed that this represents the highest percentage of winners in the state.

Those who won Regents Scholarships are: David R. Blumenthal, Neil H. Brenner, Ophra Chill, Rachel Friedman, Ernest Grunebaum, Eleanor Kagle, Harold Keiser, Michael Klagsbrun, Martin Mayer, Frank M. Sadinoff, Stephen Waldman and David B. Weisberg.

The present graduating class has excelled in yet another respect. The students of the class have improved upon the already excellent college admission record of Ramaz students. The following are some of the colleges to which they have been admitted: Barnard, Brandeis, Columbia, Cornell, Franklin & Marshall, Harvard, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Sarah Lawrence, Stern College, Wharton School of Business, Wisconsin University, Yale, and Yeshiva University.

Several of the students were not only admitted to the colleges of their choice but were also awarded freshman scholarships.

We congratulate the graduating class, their parents, and the faculty of Ramaz on the academic achievement of this group. The graduation exercises will take place in the auditorium of our Synagogue House on Wednesday evening, June 13.

We are happy to report that in addition to the winners from the Ramaz School three members of our congregation

ARE YOU GRADUATING IN JUNE?

In keeping with our yearly custom, we are planning to publish in the final issue of the Bulletin the names of those members of the congregational family who will celebrate educational milestones this June. We feel we should take public notice of those memorable occasions in the lives of our younger folk.

We ask of our readers, therefore, that if your son or daughter is graduating this June, or has been chosen for some outstanding honor by his school, please drop us a line and permit us to include the name among our "educational celebrants."

Please do not be bashful. Let's give our young people the pat on the back they deserve, and the encouragement they could use in their plans for the future. We assure you we shall be more than happy to publish all of the scholastic items we receive.

SYNAGOGUE RESPLENDENT IN SHEVUOTH ATTIRE

The Festival of Shevuoth was celebrated in Kehilath Jeshurun in a spiritually inspiring manner and in surroundings that were aesthetically beautiful. The Main Synagogue was decorated with an exceptionally lovely floral and leaf display to represent that part of the holiday which is known as Chag Habikkurim, the Festival of the First Fruits.

The services both days of Shevuoth were conducted in the dignified and moving way that is the tradition in our Synagogue and both services were remarkably well attended. We were especially pleased with the second day of Shevuoth. On that day it had all too often become the unfortunate custom for many to arrive only for the Yizkor prayers and then depart upon their conclusion. We regard Yizkor as part of the total service and therefore we were very pleased with the large number that came for the beginning of the morning service and stayed until the end.

The Book of Remembrance, in which are recorded the names of those in whose memory a Yizkor offering was made, was made available to our Worshipers at this Memorial service.

Ida Westerman, daughter of our esteemed members, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Westerman, who left for an extended stay in Israel.

K. J. TROOP ATTENDS BOY SCOUT CAMPOREE

Eighteen members of our Scout Troop attended the Annual Yorkville Camporee that was held at the end of last month. The boys participated in a most unusual week-end program that was Jewishly inspiring and that helped them advance up the scouting ladder.

Religious services were conducted Friday evening and Saturday and included a most impressive outdoor Havdalah ceremony. Arrangements were made for Kosher food as well as for a special Sabbath program.

Saturday evening the Scouts joined in a Tapout of the Order of the Arrow, a Boy Scout Honor Society. Two members of our troop, Alvin Elkins and Robert Jablon were elected to this order. After the initiating ceremony all the scouts enjoyed the camp fire session of singing, Indian dances and stories.

Sunday morning the Scouts attended Jewish religious services as guests of another camp and spent the rest of the day in scout instruction.

This Camporee represented the first time our troop went on a week-end trip and we are happy to report it was a complete success. The Sabbath was observed in the traditional manner. The outdoor service and the contact with nature proved most impressive. In addition, by joining for the weekend with other scouts in the area, the morale of the troop was bolstered immeasurably.

This trip was taken under the supervision of the Scout leaders, Mel Benowitz and David Weisberg, who are to be commended for the excellent job they did. The Scout Troop continues to meet under the sponsorship of our Men's Club with our esteemed member, Dr. Ned Wachtel, acting as Scout Master.
