RABBI LOOKSTEIN TO REVIEW "THE SACRIFICE" AT SISTERHOOD MEETING DECEMBER 17th

Mrs. Oscar Perlberger, president, announced that Rabbi Lookstein will review the book "The Sacrifice" at the next Sisterhood Open Meeting which will take place on Monday, December 17th, at 12:30 o'clock in the Social Hall.

"The Sacrifice" is the first novel written by a young author Adele Wiseman and received critical and popular acclaim. This story of a Jewish family was called by Orville Prescott, book critic of the New York Times, one of the best novels of the year.

So there is our program — an excellent book, reviewed by our Rabbi Lookstein whose excellence as a speaker we need not comment upon. We would here merely like to mention the fabulous reaction to Rabbi Lookstein's Book Review last year.

This is another program which has been arranged by Mrs. William Lebowitz, Chairman of our Program Committee.

Members and friends are cordially invited to attend this meeting. A desert luncheon will be served at 12:30 P.M.

JEWRY DUTY

We would like to extend our thanks and appreciation to our members who served on "Jewry Duty" this past week: Arthur M. Rosen and David E. Rosen.

Our volunteers for the coming week are Gerald M. Goldstein and Benjamin Gottesman.

CONDOLENCE

We record with sorrow the passing of our devoted trustee, Abbott S. Bernard, and we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the members of the bereaved family.

May the Almighty spare them further grief for many years to come.

NOTE TO COLLEGIATES AND PARENTS

This year we again plan to welcome our college youth who will return home for their winter vacations. Saturday, December 22nd, has been set aside as Homecoming Sabbath.

A special program is being planned and full particulars will be given in future Bulletins. Meanwhile, we are trying to reach our collegiates in advance in order to inform them of the welcome planned for them. Unfortunately, we do not have the names of all the young men and young women of our congregation who are at college, either in the city or out-of-town. We would, therefore, greatly appreciate it if parents would call the Synagogue Office without delay and give us the names of their sons and daughters at college in order that we may contact them directly.

FATHER AND SON MINYAN

We extend our thanks and appreciation to Berthold Breiner, A. Milton Brown and Jerry Coan for their generous contributions to our Father and Son Minyan Fund.

This fund was established to permit members and friends to help the Men's Club maintain this important Sunday morning Minyan by acting as sponsors.

KIDDUSH HOSTS

This Saturday morning the Kiddush will be sponsored by Dr. and Mrs. Konstantin Himmelbrand in honor of the Bar Mitzvah of their son, Adrian.

Last Saturday our Kiddush sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Kommel, who celebrated the return to civilian life of their son, Aaron.

STANDING ROOM ONLY AT GALA CHANUKAH PARTY

Although seats were hard to get and one almost needed a scalper to get in, there was no shortage of food, entertainment and plain good fun at the Annual Chanukah Party sponsored by our Sisterhood and Men's Club this past Saturday evening, December 1st.

It was an unusual affair in many respects. First of all there was the turn out. Over 170 members and friends, filled the Auditorium of the Synagogue House to overflowing. The room was festively decorated and the tables were set up night club style. The band was in the groove and provided a good musical atmosphere.

The two major highlights of the evening were Haskel Lookstein's parodies and the performance of the Israeli Trio. Setting clever lyrics to popular and congregational melodies Haskel humorously lampooned synagogue members and staff.

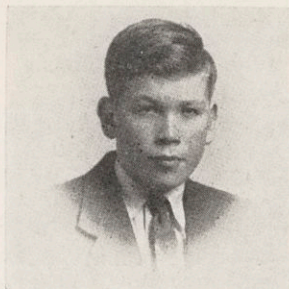

The Israeli Trio gave an outstanding performance. Consisting of three attractive Israeli's including a Yemenite singer, a Martha Graham scholarship dancer and a Juilliard piano student, the trio provided an entertaining forty-five minutes of songs and dances. Although it took them longer to get here than it took the Israeli Army to conquer the Sinai Peninsula, they were eminently worth waiting for.

A special treat was provided by another trio consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Adler and Haskel Lookstein, who rendered a liturgical selection.

The buffet supper, like every other element in the evening's program, was top notch.

This unusual affair was the result of the hard work of a devoted committee to whom we extend our thanks and appreciation: William Lebowitz and Mrs. Joseph Roth, chairmen of the Chanukah Party and their committee members Norman Halper, Dr. Harry Kaplan, Dr. Philip A. Lief, Martin Markson, Elgin Shulsky; and from the Sisterhood,

ADRIAN HIMMELBRAND BAR MITZVAH

We extend a hearty mazel tov to Dr. and Mrs. Konstantin Himmelbrand on the Bar Mitzvah of their son, Adrian.

An honor student, Adrian is in the 8th grade at McBurney Prep School, where he is active on the basketball and baseball team. Although he likes all his studies, medicine seems to hold his interest most and he plans to become a physician like his father. His spare time hobbies include piano playing, Spanish dancing and sports.

Adrian's Bar Mitzvah will take place in our synagogue this coming Saturday.

The Feinberg Twins, Mrs. Alexander Gross, Mrs. Samuel Gross, Mrs. Abraham Kirshon, Mrs. Benjamin L. Leifert, Mrs. Wm. Lebowitz, Mrs. Joseph H. Lookstein, Mrs. Oscar Perlberger, Mrs. Reuben Popkin and Mrs. Elgin Shulsky.

Special Helpers —

Thanks also go to the door committee: Mrs. Hyman I. Cohen, Mrs. Alexander Gross, Mrs. Abraham Kirshon, Mrs. Benjamin L. Leifert and from our own office staff Mrs. Nettie Epstein, Mrs. Lillian Finkelberg and Mrs. Beatrice Seigerman.

And behind the bar we had Hyman I. Cohen, Harry Etra, Norman Halper, Abraham Kirshon and Elgin Shulsky.
