SISTERHOOD TREATED TO INCISIVE BOOK REVIEW AT OPEN MEETING

This past Monday afternoon Rabbi Lookstein presented a dramatic review of "The Sacrifice" at the Sisterhood Open Luncheon meeting. The book, a critically acclaimed first novel by Adele Wiseman, was given a thorough and sympathetic treatment by the rabbi.

In his talk Rabbi Lookstein showed how this allegorical novel utilizes Biblical and traditional Jewish material. "The Sacrifice" refers to man's constant need to expiate his sins and the Rabbi explained the meaning of the various symbols used in this allegory.

The afternoon began as usual with a luncheon and a short business meeting. Mrs. Eugene Hollander, chairman of the Theatre Party Committee, announced that the tickets for the play had been received and were being distributed.

New Member —

We extend our warm welcome to our new Sisterhood member, Mrs. Philip R. Kornberg with best wishes for a long and satisfying association.

JEWRY DUTY

EDWARD M. WINER BAR MITZVAH

We extend a hearty mazel tov to our esteemed trustee, Abraham R. Winer, and to Mrs. Winer, on the Bar Mitzvah of their son, Edward.

A student in our afternoon Religious School, Edward has endeared himself to his teachers and fellow students. He is also a participant in our Junior Congregation. Now in the eighth grade, Edward's major interests are in the arts and natural sciences and he hopes to make a career in aeronautical design. A devotee of Camp Craft, he prefers the quiet rural life and hopes to settle some day in the country.

Edward's Bar Mitzvah will take place in our Synagogue this coming Saturday.

ADULT INSTITUTE CONCLUDES FIRST HALF OF LECTURE SERIES

The first half of the Adult Institute Lecture series on the theme "The Prophets Speak to Us Anew" has been concluded and after several weeks of winter recess the second half will get under way on Wednesday, January 9th. At that time Dr. Sidney B. Hoenig will return to discuss "Zechariah — Not by Might but by My Spirit." Rabbin Norman Frimer, Howard Levine and Morris Besdin will complete the second lecture portion on the Wednesdays of January 16, 23 and 30.

We have been very pleased this year with the presentations made by our guest speakers and also with the fine turn out and response on the part of our members and friends. We recognize that other commitments do not permit adults to attend educational programs as often as they would like but a fine audience has been on hand each week to listen to the speakers. Our speakers were uniformly good and those who attended were well rewarded.

We would like to point out an unusual experience that was shared when Rabbi Frimer was with us.

Instead of just delivering a lecture, Rabbi Frimer prepared a pamphlet of excerpts from the Book of Isaiah and this pamphlet was distributed to every one present and used as a text. The audience participated by reading these excerpts and by discussing their meaning. This was the first time we attempted this technique in our lecture series, and the experiment proved to be unusually successful. Instead of merely hearing conclusions stated by a speaker the audience was able by reading the basic text, to come to conclusions on their own.
