"AMOS" TO BE DISCUSSED BY RABBI NORMAN FRIMER AT ADULT INSTITUTE JANUARY 16th

"Amos — Seek God, That Ye May Live" is the title of the Adult Institute Lecture that will be delivered on Wednesday evening, January 16th, by Rabbi Norman Frimer, Metropolitan Director of B'nai B'rith.

In his talk Rabbi Frimer will deal with such vital themes as: Chosenism or Favoritism; Religion or Immorality; History and Divinity; Particularism and Universalism.

Rabbi Norman Frimer

You are cordially invited to attend the
ADULT INSTITUTE LECTURE

The Hebrew Class will be held from 8 to 9 o'clock

The Adult Education Committee in announcing this sixth lecture in its series on "The Prophets Speak to Us Anew" commented that it eagerly looked forward to Rabbi Frimer's return engagement. The last time he was with us, on November 28th, he presented "Isaiah" in a unique way that included mimeographed text and audience participation. This method resulted in one of the most stimulating and successful evenings we have ever experienced at our Institutes and this technique will be used again in the talk on "Amos."

Rabbi Frimer, who is also instructor of Judaic Studies at Brooklyn College and a staff member of the B'nai B'rith Adult Institute, combines outstanding qualities of scholarship and an active public life. He has written many scholarly articles and yet is a fine popularizer of Jewish learning.

Rabbi Lookstein will preach this Sabbath at 11:00 a.m.

SIDNEY WOLITZKY BAR MITZVAH

We extend a hearty mazel tov to Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Wolitzky on the Bar Mitzvah of their son, Sidney.

A member of the graduation class of our Afternoon Religious School, Sidney is in the 8th grade at Horace Mann. His major interests are science and math. As he looks to the future he sees himself as a scientist. Sidney is active as secretary of his grade and is vice-president of the Science-Fiction Club. His spare time is devoted to sports and stamp collecting.

Sidney's Bar Mitzvah will take place in our Synagogue this coming Saturday morning.

PUBLICIZING A RELIGIOUS SCHOOL PUBLICATION

During the school year we encourage our youngsters to read works of Jewish interest. One of our outstanding publications in this line is the "World Over," a magazine for boys and girls which is published by the Jewish Education Committee.

The children of our school receive this magazine free of charge throughout the school year. It is an excellent source of information for the young people as well as for adults. We would like here to urge parents to read this magazine and to have them in turn encourage their children to do likewise.

World Over meets supremely well the need of inducting the child into Jewish life and affairs the world over. Beautifully and skillfully edited, it contains news items, biographical and historical data of current interest, stories, articles, games, cartoons, puzzles — all that a children's magazine ought to be. Long wanted, here it is — eagerly read and appreciated by our children. Parents can help bring home and school closer together by reading it themselves.

World Over rests upon the pedagogical theory that Jewish life today, as in ages past, is a reservoir of values upon which the individual draws for guidance, inspiration and enjoyment. Judaism, we say, is a way of life which had its beginning long ago and far away but leads to our own land and time. World Over is more than so much pleasant extra-curricular home-reading; it represents one of the principal aims and objectives of our School, namely, initiation for the purpose of ultimate participation into the previous ways of living, thinking and believing of a particular people — the Jews — "your child's people."

THOMAS BORNSTEIN, AL FEINER AND SAMUEL FRANK JOIN YEAR BOOK AD GETTERS

Our esteemed members Thomas Bornstein, Al Feiner and Samuel Frank, who have been among our leaders in past campaigns, are now enjoying top positions in the matter of soliciting ads for the 1957 Year Book.

Mr. Feiner's efforts this year have netted the splendid sum of $1400. Both Mr. Bornstein and Mr. Frank are touching the $500 mark. They join Mr. Richard Kolb, who has gone over this mark.

We congratulate Mr. Bornstein, Mr. Feiner and Mr. Frank and we are also pleased to learn that they are still actively continuing their solicitations, and we wish them well in their efforts.

This year we have many of our "veteran" ad getters working for the success of the Year Book and their ranks are being swelled by the addition of a large number of new ad-getters — members of the Congregation and non-members, alike — who recognize the importance of the Educational Scholarship Fund and are determined to do their utmost for it.

The roster of workers grows; so, too, do our hopes. It appears that we will exceed this year all previous efforts. But, our optimism notwithstanding, we still cannot safely predict that we will reach our goal of $35,000 — the amount required this year in order to provide the necessary scholarship aid. The reason for this is that we need the cooperation of more and more of our members and friends to do just one simple task: get one ad, in any amount.

It figures, mathematically; it adds up, logically. A few conscientious men cannot be expected to carry the entire burden. They may account for a large percentage of the proceeds, but they must have the backing of the entire K. J. family.

The end is a great one; the means to the end, very simple. Contact your friends, business associates or local tradespeople for an ad. If there is any way in which the Synagogue Office staff can be helpful to you, please do not hesitate to call upon them.

ACTIVE PROGRAM

Our Boy Scouts and Cub Pack have maintained the fine level established at the beginning of the season and each week sees an unusual program that is thoroughly enjoyed by the boys who are members of the troop.

We would like to comment on the impressive Chanukah parties that Troop 640 held. The programs consisted of renderings of the Chanukah story, lighting of the candles and the singing of the Chanukah songs. In addition there were refreshments and scout handicrafts. These programs were arranged under the direction of Rabbi Sherman Siff.

Scout meetings are held every Monday evening from 7:15 to 9 o'clock in the Auditorium for Boy Scouts and in the Gym for cubs. All boys in the neighborhood of scouting age are invited to join.
