ADULT INSTITUTE OPENS SUMMER SESSION

One of the cardinal principles of Traditional Judaism teaches that the pursuit of knowledge is not an activity to be relegated to one portion of the year. We are, rather, required to study morning and evening, summer and winter, throughout our lives.

In accordance with this precept, the Kehilath Jeshurun Adult Institute is inaugurating its summer session beginning this week.

The first course is the regular study of the Mishna, conducted at the close of every morning service during the week.

The second course, in the Ethics of the Fathers, will be conducted every Sabbath afternoon, one hour before Mincha services. The text will be explained and analyzed with particular reference made to the commentary of Maimonides. The only prerequisite for this course is a desire to learn and discuss this basic work. Men and women, young and old are invited.

The third course, in Talmud, will be conducted every Wednesday night at 8:00 P.M. The subject material will be the sixth chapter of the Tractate "Berachot" which deals with the various and diverse blessings made over food. An attempt will be made to explain the origin of each blessing, its function, and its applicability in one's life. Men and women, possessed of a desire to study Talmud and understand the function of these blessings, are cordially invited to attend.

RABBI HASKEL LOOKSTEIN TO DELIVER INAUGURAL SERMON

Rabbi Haskel Lookstein, newly appointed Assistant to Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein, will deliver his initial sermon before the Congregation, this coming Saturday morning, June 14. We are confident that everyone will wish to attend the Synagogue Service this Saturday, for this very important and auspicious occasion. The subject of Rabbi Haskel Lookstein's sermon is: "What of Tomorrow?" — A Young Rabbi Looks Ahead.

HIGH HOLIDAY SEAT RESERVATIONS

During the coming week the entire membership will receive notification from the Synagogue office concerning reservations for High Holiday Seats. It is especially important that those of our Congregational family who will be leaving the city for the entire summer season inform us of their wishes, as regards their reservations, prior to their departure.

Your cooperation in this matter will enable us to better serve you and your family's needs.

The class in Ethics of the Fathers will begin this Saturday at 7:20 P.M. The course in Talmud will begin this Wednesday, June 18th at 8:00 P.M. Both classes will be conducted by Rabbi Haskel Lookstein in the Synagogue Library.

Rabbi Haskel Lookstein will preach this Sabbath at 11:00 a.m.

THANK YOU

During the year various ladies of the Sisterhood assisted the Kiddush Chairman Mrs. Edward Lebowitz at the various special Kiddushim in the Congregation. We would like at this time to mention their names and thank them for their assistance. They are: Mrs. Richard Kolb, Mrs. A. Milton Brown, Mrs. Oscar Perlberger, Mrs. George Jacobs, the Feinberg Twins, Mrs. Reuben N. Popkin, Mrs. Eugene Hollander, Mrs. Harry Kaplan, Mrs. Joseph E. Adler, Mrs. Robert Wallach, Mrs. Joseph Roth and Mrs. William Lebowitz.

We would like to thank the following youngsters who assisted in pouring wine for Kiddush after services throughout the year: Benjamin Brown, Ronnie Etra, Elliott Lebowitz and Naomi Lebowitz.

HAPPY DAY FUND

We acknowledge with thanks a contribution to our Happy Day fund from Mrs. Rose Alpert, Rabbi and Mrs. Lookstein and Mrs. Seppy I. Silberman. Members are urged to share their joyous occasions with others by making a gift to the Happy Day Fund. Contributions should be sent to Mrs. Robert H. Zessman, 12 East 87th Street, the Happy Day Fund Chairman.

WITHIN OUR FAMILYBirthdays —

Many happy returns of the day to Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Levy, Dr. Israel Malbin, Mrs. Reuben N. Popkin, Mrs. Joseph Roth and Mr. and Mrs. George Schneider.

OUTSTANDING STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT LAUDED AT RAMAZ HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

Ramaz School held Commencement Exercises for its high school on Wednesday evening, June 11th, at the 92nd Street "Y". The exercises began with an academic procession led by Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein, Principal, and by the Board of Trustees of Ramaz School, followed by the members of the graduating class. The opening and closing prayers were pronounced by Harriet Goldberg and Rhoda Kreinen, and the valedictory addresses were delivered by Sybil Herschkopf and Barbara Nemerow. Rabbi Joseph H. Lookstein, who presided over the exercises, spoke of the high achievement of the class, as attested by the many diverse scholarships won and the splendid college admission record. He also commended the faculty for its devotion and for the splendid quality of instruction.

Science Award Established

Ramaz is, in a sense, a school family and as such, while it was celebrating a happy occasion, had to take note of a sad event — the sudden and untimely passing of its science teacher, Mr. David Franklin. Rabbi Lookstein paid tribute to Mr. Franklin as a superior teacher and as a wonderful person who was beloved and respected by everyone, and the entire assemblage rose for a moment of reverential silence. As a token of appreciation and as an expression of tribute, the graduating class will sponsor, in memory of Mr. Franklin, an annual science award to the outstanding senior. The names are to be inscribed on a suitable plaque.

A feature of the exercises was a beautiful and stirring performance by the High School Chorus and the graduating class, who sang a group of Hebrew and English selections on the theme of Sons of Freedom, under the direction of Dr. Fannie Kreinen, of the Ramaz teaching staff.

Following is a list of the graduates:

Batya Abramson, Rachel Agus, Marcia Brickman, Rochelle Choina, Linda Frisch, Harriet Goldberg, Hillel Gross, Francine Grossbart, Norman Hanover, Renah Helfand, Sybil Herschkopf, Daniel Katz, Martin Kolsky, Rhoda Kreinen and Elliot Lebowitz.

Also, Allwyn Levine, Mindy Linzer, Meira Lisman, Judith Metzger, Barbara Nemerow, Philip Rabinovitz, Marcia Reines, Stephen Reschke, Abraham Rosenzweig, Ruth Schreiber, Marilyn Spicehandler, Daniel Stein, Elana Unterman and George Wilner.

BACHRACH PLAQUE INSTALLED

A Plaque on the special Tablet of Honor was installed in memory of the late Philip Bachrach, his brother-in-law Judge Isaac Cohen and sister Fannie Cohen. This Plaque resulted from a bequest made in the will of Philip Bachrach.

YESHIVA UNIVERSITY SCHEDULES FOURTH LEADERSHIP SEMINAR

Young people from all parts of the United States and Canada will join for an exciting eight day experience in traditional Jewish living, Jewish studies, leadership skills, social and recreational activities, at the Fourth Annual Teen-Age Torah Leadership Seminar to be held from August 25 to September 1, 1958.

Teenage synagogue youth (14-18), currently active in Jewish affairs, who seek a better understanding of Jewish knowledge and the acquisition of leadership skills, will meet under the auspices of the Youth Bureau of Yeshiva University, at the rustic setting of Camp Monroe, approximately forty miles from New York.

All those who are interested should contact the Executive Director in the Synagogue office.
